

ESSAYS ON SOME THEOLOGICAL QUESTIONS
OF THE DAY. By Members of the University of Cambridge. Edited by Prof. H. B. SWETE, D.D. 8vo. 12s. net.

GUARDIAN.—"The volume is one which must engage the attention of all who are interested in theological speculation in English-speaking countries, for the men who have contributed chapters to it are specially qualified to judge of the direction in which religious thought is moving."

TIMES.—"The book is throughout the work of thoroughly competent men, who are abreast of the thought and learning of the day, who know their subject, who give every sign of having grappled seriously with the problems before them, who can always give a good reason for the faith that is in them."

ESSAYS ON SOME BIBLICAL QUESTIONS OF
THE DAY. By Members of the University of Cambridge.

Edited by Prof. H. B. SWETE, D.D. 8vo. 12s. net.

ATHENÆUM.—"This is a remarkable book, and ought to attract the attention of all who are interested in the Bible. . . . It reflects the highest credit on the University's school of theology, and places that school in the foremost rank of the theologians of the day."

GUARDIAN.—"The volume, as a whole, is one of the deepest interest. It is not a 'manifesto.' There is no attempt to put forth any special thesis or to exhibit novelties of speculation. But it provides an admirable survey of the problems which are engaging the attention of Biblical scholars, and is a welcome indication of the spirit in which sacred studies are being pursued at Cambridge."

THE FAITH AND MODERN THOUGHT. Six

Lectures. By Rev. WILLIAM TEMPLE, Headmaster of Repton.

With an Introduction by Professor MICHAEL SADLER. Crown
8vo. 2s. 6d. net. Globe 8vo. 1s. net.

CHURCH TIMES.—"These lectures deserve to the full the praise bestowed upon them in the short Preface contributed by Professor Sadler. They are quite admirable of their kind, and we have no doubt many were helped by them."

REVIEW OF THEOLOGY AND PHILOSOPHY.—"The candour and quiet power of Mr. Temple's book on fundamental problems make a deep impression. . . . Prof. M. E. Sadler says truly in the Preface that lectures like these leave the mind ashamed of lingering amid half-beliefs, and impel it to a decision."

£

LONDON: MACMILLAN AND CO., LTD.