

196-201; visits Corps Commander at Neuville Vitasse, 209; after Vimy, 402.

Cagnicourt, 146, 157, 159.

Cairns, Sergt. H., 46th. Batt., 365.

Caix, 46, 50.

Cambrai, Battle of, Sept. 27-Oct. 12:—

Greatest Battle of Hundred Days. 110-1; Canadian Corps hold centre throughout, 111; confronting Canal du Nord, 185-192; Corps Commander's daring plan of attack, 202; difficulty of task, 203-4; Sept. 27, battle opens, Canal du Nord stormed; Bourlon, Marquion, Haynecourt, Epinoy captured, 219-237; Sept. 28, storming of Marcoing line, 240-5; Sept. 29, last ditch battle by enemy to hold plateau, 245-252; Sept 30, our initial offensive beaten back by enemy counter-offensives up Bantigny Ravine, 253-8; Oct. 1, attack renewed against fresh enemy divisions; after desperate fighting all day victory remains with Canadian Corps, 258-273; effect of victory, 275; after "battles of unparalleled severity," enemy on Oct. 2 decides to ask for armistice, 280-5; summary of battle, 286-8; capture of Cambrai, 298-309; conclusion of battle, 310-6; compared with Vimy, 402; casualties of, 405.

Cambrai, City of, 146, 149, 189, 194, 201, 220, 240, 276, 298, 300; capture of, 241, 298-304; destroyed by enemy, 305-8.

Cambrai, First Battle of, Nov., 1917, 89, 193, 195-200.

Cambrai Road, see Arras-Cambrai Road.

Canadian Army Service Corps, see Army Service Corps.

Canadian Cavalry Brigade, see Cavalry.

Canadian Chaplain Services, see Chaplain.

Canadian Corps:—

The months of preparation: Effect on enemy of Battle of Amiens, 2; return to Vimy after Passchendaele, 6; importance of its task in defending French collieries, 7; its Divisions separated but reunited after protest by Corps Commander, 8; goes into G.H.Q. Reserve for intensive training in tactics of the offensive, 10; its First Contingent and its debt to Sir Julian Byng, 10; reasons for its strength, 10-4; its composition, 11; Corps Commander resists creation of 5th. C.I.D., 12; its battle strength augmented, 12; value of its "esprit de corps," 13-4; spirit of the men, 15.

Battle of Amiens, Aug. 8-22: Back in the line, 16; ordered to Amiens, 17; camouflage movement to Flanders, 17-9; preparations for offensive, 17-9; moving south, 19; marching into battle, 24-5; "zero", Aug. 8, 26; Canadian Corps spearhead of attack, 38; enemy overwhelmed, 40; record advance for first day's attack, 50; Aug. 9, attack renewed, 52-3; enemy resistance stiffens as old Somme battlefield reached, 53, 86; salient established at Meharicourt, 57; Aug. 10, attack resumed, 57; hard fighting before Hallu, 58; Corps Commander on battle, 59-60; capture of Parvillers and Damery, 64-7; capture of Fransart, 69; transfer of Corps to First Army begins, 68; prisoners and guns captured, 68; after the battle, 77; "Canadians core and crux of battle of Amiens"—London Times, 84; moral effect of victory, 94; "Up against the celebrated Canadian Corps"—German General Staff, 95.

Battle of Arras, Aug. 26-Sept. 4: Haig outlines battle plan, 109; entirely a Canadian Corps battle, 110; Corps Commander describes the task, 111-4; hardest