MOTORISTS

Mullen Knocked Unous, and His Wife's Broken Yesterday.

DE ENDED BADLY

McArthur Hurled Hydro Post-Police ing for Chauffeur.

ing west on Wright avewith a smaller car passengers, at of Sunnyside avethe smaller car was hurlcross Sunnyside avenue and against a hydro-electric post st side. Mullen, 223 Balliol avenue, of the small car, was knockof the small car, was knock-cious by the impact, while was thrown out on to the and sustained a fractured er undergoing X-ray exami-the General Hospital, she to go home. The five other by Mullen's two children, Or-ls and wife, 321 Balliol ave-diss Clarke, 321 Balliol aveliss Clarke, 321 Balliol ave-d with a few bruises and a king up. Both cars were damaged. not even see the large car ound himself in a heap on ide of Sunnyside avenue, so him he was traveling but h on the avenue, at a tim ast crossing Wright av elt a terrible shock; his little en whisked right across the only to stop up against the d and rendered what assist-ould. Neither driver was held

Jumped the Curb. other motoring party ended ision with a hydro-electric n at 7 o'clock Saturday eyen-r car 28665, owned by L. J. and driven by his chauffeur, taid, 727½ Dufferin street, avenue and Rideau street pants, was hurled against cording to the police, the and its two remaining ocen drove hurriedly away maining to see if McArthur or alive. The injured man wed to the Parkdale Hospiat No. 6 police station, that eur had taken the car out of ge without his permission until he was summoned to on he did not even know his ut of the garage. He remaining in the police station for the of the driver, but up till day evening Haid could not ns Before Embarkation Anxious to See Quebec the One Black Sheep.

nes, Earlscourt, received an in-letter from Cook Sergt, W. H. board the S.S. Zeeland, Red Sept. 30, 1914, of which the is an extract; pect to leave Quebec tomorrow nd. Have been embarking for week, and the whole fleet will with us. The accommodation on board are splendid—the best I was ever on. It is a Belgian nging to Antwerp, and well apThe corporals and sergeants nd-class beruss ut disappointment is being unet into the town, the men not mitted to leave the ship before s an extract :

fatigue party of ten men of Il fatigue party of ten men di corps had to go to town from They started off, and after hru nearly the whole chain of long the docis, the sergeant, marching in front, happened to hd, and found his party quite ng. It did not take the sergeant to things up, and he came to ze things up, and he came to list that other men of differ-had fallen in with his own ten s to evade the sentries and get n for a drink.

theme fell thru. at a mascot. It was found stray-the camp. It is a black one, restigation it was found to have black, the reason for this be-is, said, that it was the only py in the 12th Battalion fam-l betaken on the journey eastek's attraction at Shea's will be Chien, the greatest of all magicians. Surrounded by a set the talented oriental will greatest of all illusions, the ekin Mysteries. Percy Bronson the Baldwin will offer as the ature, "Picking From Song and Ind." "Twenty Odd Years," a f youth and springtime, will be by Harry Beresford and comthe special extra attraction, arnes is a monologist well and tne special extra attraction.

arnes is a monologist well and known to Toronto. Ford and ave a burlesque on the society ze. Flanagan and Edwards will comedy sketch which they call Off." Charlotte Ravenscroft is violinist, and with the Ioleen violinist, and with the Ioleen ensational aerialists, and the h complete the bill.

Hamilton Hotels.

OTEL ROYAL oom furnished with new beds, its and thoroughly redecorated

MPLE ROOMS IN CANADA

RUSSIAN SOLDIER TELLS OF FIGHTS

War Costs Seven Millions Was Lying Wounded in a Trench During Great Battle.

MONDAY MORNING

ENDURING STRAIN

Daily, But Finances

Are Sound.

CASH RESERVES GAIN

Loans Have Also Increased —

Reasons for Optimism

Are Abundant.

Canadian Press Despatch.

PARIS, Oct. 4, 6.10 p.m.—The war is costing France $7,000,000 a day. Minister of Finance Alexandre Ribot announced today that the outlay for the first sixty days of the conflict had been $420,000,000.

Mr Ribot gives an interview to The

"Loans and discounts," the minister

$41,800,000 over the preceding week, and it can be seen that France it far from having exhausted her reserves, and that when the hour comes she will find the money for a new loan, which

Discussing the projected reopening of the Paris bourse, M. Ribot said:

of the Paris bourse, M. Ribot said:
"I think there is an interest in doing so without delay, but it is necessary to take into consideration that the exchanges in London and in New York

ket. This has been studied in London, where everything, like in Paris not much difficulty in practising

ON BATTLEFIELD

Kaiser's Fifth Son Cheered Up

When Iron Cross Was Given Him.

*pecial Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.

Prince Oskar, fifth son of the kaiser, from the fighting line is a very interesting one. It appears that the prince led a charge on Sept. 24 in which a large number of officers were killed.

But at the head of the column he passed unscathed thru a withering fire and finally drove back the French at the point of contact . When the psychological moment passed, Prince Oskar collapsed and was taken to the hospital at Metz in a rather serious condition. Arrived there he began to re-him he brightened up visibly.

The decoration was pinned on him

by General Von Strantz, who received

The last list of casualties contains several names of distinguished Germans. Major-General Freiherr Von

Der Horst is the first on the roll of killed. He commanded the 20th infantry brigade and was killed on Sept. 28 at the head of his troops. The Iron Cross had been given him only a few days be-

Mikado's Government Does Not

Think Violation of Neutrality

Was Committed.

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World PEKIN, Oct. 4.—The reply of Japan to the protests of the Chinese republic against the occupation and destruction the railroad from Tsinan to Tsingtau, the fortified German have indi cates that the mikado's government is ent on complete destruction of the

The last note from Tokio states that would be dangerous for Japanese back of their lines. They do not regard as unneutral the slezure of such a line and cite instances in which they ferman stronghold.

JAPAN TELLS CHINA

The complete list of today contained

"YOU DID THE SAME"

it in 1890.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 3 .- The story of

PRINCE COLLAPSED

at present is unnecessary."

May Reopen Bourse.

AUSTRIAN SAT ON HIM

Used His Body for a Seat While Shooting at the Enemy.

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.

PETROGRAD, Oct 4—A Russian soldier lying in a hospital at Mescow relates that during the fighting in Galicia three Austrian Army Corps attacked his regiment. The Russian commander's task, he said, was to check the enemy's advance until the arrival of reinforcements.

Mr Ribot gives an interview to The Temps on the situation in the Bank of France, which has not published regular statements since the war began. He says that on Oictober 1 the bank had $$12,400,000 in cash, which was $63,000,000 more than it had on the every the war. arrival of reinforcements.

The Russians, with the object deceiving the Austrians as to their numbers, attacked them over open ground and drove the Austrians from the trenches by a furious bayonet of finance said, "are $895,200,000, an increase during the last week of $17,-500,000. This shows that the bank has made some discounts and I hope The Russians found the trenc filled with a singular collection of household goods-chests, drawers and boxes full of earth, and even refrigeraters piled up to form a strong barri-

Funds Pientiful.

"The advances made to the government on October 1 after two months of the war reached $420,000,000. The credit balance on the same date in the treasury was $50,200,000, and, therefore, we are far from having exhausted the amount provided by our convention with the bank. Besides we have just renewed the convention to assure the resources necessary in case the war be prolonged beyond the date now foreseen. The narrator of this incident wounded, lay down to rest and was soon startled by the reappearance of the Austrians. He crept thru the trench and lay on his stomach, feigning death. The Austrians again took up their positions in the trenches, the Russians having retired.

Sat on his Back.

"Soon an Austrian soldier of great bulk, tremendously bearded," said the narrator, "trampled one my legs, lifted an arm, paining me excruciatingly, and, concluding I was dead, sat on my beat with the rendercore weight discountered. now foreseen.
"The total bank bills in circulation October 1 was $1,345,800,000, this being $37,400,000 less than on the preceding week. This is explained by an increase in the deposits which on October 1 reached $435,400,000, an increase of $1,000,000, are the proceeding week. back with his ponderous weight, di-recting the fire against my regiment. I almost fainted under the great pressure, but remained quiet, praying silently and remembering the ikon of Kasper, wherewith I was blessed before setting out upon this war. "The Austrian's weight seemed to increase; then, at the moment when I had resolved to move, the Austrians were ordered to retire. Then the Russians came and removed me from the

"Even now tho," said the soldier, with a ghost of a smile, "I have more pain in my stomach, because of the huge Austrian's pressing me into the ## changes in London and in New York still remain closed. 'There is no hurry anywhere to give too great facilities for the negotiation of foreign securi-ties in the fear of seeing money go BEGIN ENLISTMENT abroad, and if the bourse reopens we would have to take precautions in this direction.

Reasons for Optimism.

"In any case," the finance minister added, "a resumption of negotiations on the bourse would necessitate the liquidation of operations made before the war, and this could not be done without certain advances to the market. This has been studied in London Organization of French-Canadian Brigade to Commence Forthwith.

spare the time. He had gone with the troop ships as far as he could without going right across.

The admiralty had provided a strong convoy for the transports, but neither the route, nor the port of landing were being revealed. Col. Hughes added that the organization of the French-Canadian brigade would be commenced forthwith the attack of heart trouble which is and troops would be enlisted at varisatid to have caused the revirement of our Canadian centrees to reinforce the contingent which has just sailed.

SPECIAL PRAYER DAY THRUOUT ALL CANADA

Dominion Government Will Request All Ministers to Pray for Allies.

The Dominion Government will issue a request to the ministers of all churches within a few weeks that a gain strength and when told that the Sunday be set apart for praying for kaiser had conferred the Iron Cross on the success of the allies in the war. Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States, issued a similar request to the ministers of his country. All yesterday thruout the United States prayers were offered for the success of the allies' cause.

Hugh J. Kilgour, pastor of the Wychwood Church of Christ, devoted portion of his sermon to the war. Prayer is needed, he said, just now so that the peace when it comes will be a just peace, not one that will only last till the countries have succeeded in bringing their armies and navies back to sufficient strength to enable them to commence war again. HELD ANNUAL RALLY.

St. David's Presbyterian Church, Earls-court, annual Sunday school rally was held yesterday afternoon in the church. About 400 young people were in attendance, and the building was not large enough to accommodate them. The gathering was under the superintendency of A. Adamson, and Rev. C. A. Mustard delivered an appropriate address. The annual election of officers of the Y. P. Union will take place this evening in the church.

WHEN WAR BROKE OUT.

"Glimpses of England at the outbreak of the war" is the subject of a talk by Miss Fitzgibbon, which will be delivered on Oct. 8 before the Women's Canadiar Historical Society at 52 St. Albans street hack of their lines. They do not regard as unneutral the siezure of such a line and cite instances in which they say China has not restrained the Germans from using the road for purposes of war:

AT CEDARVALE.

A number of Q.O.R. men practiced rithe shooting in Cedarvale yesterday afternoon. They had improvised targets in the side of the hill. They were taken there by automobiles loaned for the occasion.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS OUT FOR AN AIRING

Servian wounded soldiers walking in the grounds of the hospital at Nish with Red Cross nurses assisting

GREAT TURNING MOVEMENT PRESSED FIERCELY BY ALLIES

Whole French Column From Roye Northward to Arras don, where everything, has in Paris, is at a standstill by an adjournment of the liquidation. I am trying myself to put into shape measures that may soon be applied.

"Above all," said M. Ribot in conclusion, "have confidence and preach and took over the administration of the left have been appreciately maintained.

The great effort of the allies to envelop the German right may therefore be said to be again in operation, and it is believed that the whole French column from Roye northward to Arras confidence. We have the best reasons for being optimistic, and if optimism is a virtue in times of great crisis we defenders. The defensive role is now apparently being assumed by the in-

In the centre, from the Oise to the Argonne, the two well-entrenched armies are still watching each other, ready at a moment's notice to meet attacks, or, on the advice of aerial observers, to move to some point where the line threatened. While there have been many of these movements there is many of these movements there is many of these movements there is might would be separated parts of Belgium. They visited Tournai on Sattion remains virtually as it was.

Advance in Argonne.

ater were forced back over the river. In Lorraine and the Vosges there is no change in the positions of the op-posing armies. This probably is accounted for by the fact that the Ger-mans have not sufficient forces to attack the almost impregnable line of fortifications, while the French are too busy elsewhere to attempt an invasion of the lost provinces. They have set themselves the task of getting the Germans out of northeastern France, and Mystery Veils Antwerp. As to the result of the operations around the outer line of fortifications of Antwerp there is considerable mys-Last night the Belgian legation at London announced that the Belgians had been compelled before a vio lent artillery attack to fall back east of the River Senne, toward the Nethe. This was taken to mean that some of the forts had fallen, and the German and Koningshoyck had been taken, with redoubts and earthworks, and

British Casualty List

long after the big German siege guns have been brought up. But Antwerp is in a different category, as, in addition to being stronger than any fort-ress yet attacked, there is a considerable space in which the field army can operate against the besieging an advance guard of 10,000 men pro-Advance in Argonne.

In the Argonne district where the crown prince's army attempted an adfar to the east near Lanaeken, northvance a few days ago, there has been west of Maastricht. One report said additional fighting with the result that Lanaeken was on fire, but anthe Germans have been pushed back other declared that it was a nearby northward. In southern Woevre the village that was burning. A number of

No News From Cracow. In the eastern theatre of war the tattle of Cracow is developing more slowly than anticipated, or, at any event, nothing has come thru from either side as to the happenings in that field of operations. Three monarchs, the Russian Emperor, the German Emperor, and the King of Belgium, and the President of France, are now taking part in the raans out of northeastern France, and if this can be accomplished they are faced with the necessity of attacking peror has been on both western and eastern frontiers, while King Albert are the actual firing line ever since the war began. The Russian Emperor has left Petrograd for the front and President Poincare, accompanied by his ministers, is well on his way from Bordeaux to give greetings to the men on the firing line.

Hesitate on Brink In both Italy and Roumania, a con-siderable difference of opinion has arisen as to what steps, if any, the governments should take regarding the official report issued today asserts as war. Some are for war and others are a, fact that Forts Lierre, Waelhem for a continuation of neutrality.

If the report coming from Rome to-day that Italian sailors have occupied with redoubts and earthworks, and that the Germans had entered the line of forts thru the breaches.

Later the Belgian minister, on authority of a telegram from Antwerp, declared that the forts had not been captured, altho Waelhem was badly damaged.

These forts, altho important, are only the first line of defence of the city and, besides two more powerful lines, the besideers will have to consider the line of data to the city and the first line of defence of the city and, besides two more powerful lines, the besideers will have to consider the line of data and the line of data and the line of a daring exploit by the Italian allors have occupied Aviera is true, Italy has taken action which will almost certainly involve her. Alvona, "the Gibraltar" of the war between Italy and Austria. During the war between Italy and Turkey, when aviona belonged to Turkey, it was the scene of a daring exploit by the Italian and June 1.

oving Against Strong Gersan Positions—Armies in London From the Oise to Argonne Comparatively Inactive.

Argonne Comparatively Inactive.

London, Oct. 4. 20 p.m.—Having repulsed the German attacks, presumably in the vicinity of Reys, the French, according to the efficial comparative to officer wounded and missing, now anofficially reported wounded, now uncertainty the French, according to the efficial comparatively in the vicinity of Reys, the French, according to the efficial comparative to officer wounded and missing, now anofficially reported wounded and missing, now anofficially reported wounded, now uncertainty the previously reported wounded and missing, now anofficially reported wounded and missing, now anofficially reported wounded, now uncertainty that the previously reported wounded and missing, now anofficially reported wounded and missing, now anofficially reported wounded now uncertainty that the previously reported wounded, now uncertainty the previously reported wounded and missing, now anofficially reported wounded and missing, now anofficially reported wounded now uncertainty that the previously reported wounded, now uncertainty that the previously reported wounded and missing, now anofficially reported wounded and missing, now anofficially reported wounded now uncertainty that the previously reported wounded now t By a Staff Reporter.

By a Staff Reporter.

The great effort of the allies to envelop the German right may therefore beach in Ottawa this morning and took over the administration of his department again. Sir Robert Borden having been acting minister of militia for the past two weeks. A long session of the militia council was held today to deal with a mass of accumulated business.

Col. Hughes confirmed the reported appointment of General Alderson to command the Canadian contingent and said the choice was a good one.

Asked as to whether he was going to England, he replied that he might go, if he could find time for the trip, but he had made no definite arrangements and was not sure that he could spare the time. He had gone with the French are "making progress, but very slowly" against the Germans, who crossed the Meuse at St. Mihiel, but had been interned.

In Manual In Manua Recruits There.

> Canadian Press Despatch. DUBLIN, Oct. 4 (via London, 9 p.m.) The number of new recruits for the British army obtained in Ireland amounts to about 26,000. More than 8000 of these are from the Dublin district, 4000 from Cork district and the remainder from Belfast. Not all the Belfast recruits are Unionists, nor are all the southern recruits Nationalists. The Belfast Nationalists claim to have furnished 5000 of the Belfast recruits, which number relatively to their total population is larger than the proportion supplied by the Unionists.

Many of the southern recruits belong to football, and athletic club classes. There is not such a rush to join the colors from the agricultural districts as was anticipated, as there is a lack of men of available age. Emigration has left Ireland with a much greater proportion of the old and very young than there is in England, while she already has a much larger pro-

These forts, altho important, are only the first line of defence of the only the first line of defence of the city and, besides two more powerful lines, the besides two more powerful lines, the besides two more powerful lines, the besides will have to contend with a large inundated area. This extends along the rivers Scheidt, Rupel and Nethe as far as Duffel, as wall as to the north and the east of the town.

Withstands Siege Gurs.

Heretofore, fortresses have not stood.

Pan-Germanic Doctrines Not Backed By Appeal To History, Says Bryce

"The present war has had some un-expected consequences. It has called the attention of the world outside of the attention of the world outside of Germany to some amazing doctrines. These doctrines may be found set forth in the book of Gen. vonBernhardi, 'Germany and the Next War.'

"I have certainly no prejudice in the matter, for I have been one of those who for many years labored to prémote good relations between the German and English peoples. It was neither commercial rivalry nor jealousy of German power that brought Britain into the field.

Glorification of War.

Germany to some amazing doctrines. These doctrines may be found set forth in the book of Gen. vonBernhardi, 'Germany and the Next War.'

"I have certainly no prejudice in the matter, for I have been one of those who for many years labored to promote good relations between the German and English peoples. It was neither commercial rivalry nor jealousy of German power that brought Britain into the field.

Glorification of War.

"I return to the doctrine set forth by Von Bernhardi: 'War is in itself a good thing. The inevitableness, the idealism, the blessing of war, must be greatest factor and furtherance of power.' 'Efforts directed toward the abolition of war are not only foolish but absolutely immoral and must be stigmatized as unworthy of the human race.' 'Any action in favor of collective humanity outside the limits of the state and nationality is impossible.'

"These are startling propositions.'

"Is there no such thing as a common humanity? Are there no duties owed to it? Is there none of that 'decent respect, to the opinions of mankind,' which the framers of the Declaration of Independence recognized?

"Gen. von Bernhardi invokes history as the ultimate court of appeal. He appeals to Caesar. To Caesar let him go. History declares that no nation, however great, is entitled to trys to impose its type of civilization on others. No race, not even the Teutonic or Anglo-Saxon, is entitled to claim the leadership of humanity. Each people has in its time contributed something that was distinctively its own, and the world is far richer thereby than if any race, however gifted, had established ascendancy.'

'I'lis only vulgar many that mistake bigness for greatness, for greatness is of the soul, not of the leady.'

"These are startling propositions.'

LONDON, Oct, 3.—Viscount Bryce, former British ambassador to the United States, has written an article for The Dally Chronicle, which says in part:

"The present war has had some unexpected consequences. It has called serving treaties, which are only entirely and the sayer.

The Appeal to History.

INDIAN TROOPS AUSTRIANS BLAMED SCARE GERMANS

Depression and Anxiety Caused by News of Their

UNITS DISORGANIZED

lion Men Can Be Mustered.

Twenty-Six Thousand Have Rallied to Colors in Ireland.

BELFAST'S RESPONSE

"And now to all this is added the certain knowledge that the Indian contingent is on French soil and with an admirable system of railway at their disposal, thanks to which it is impossible to predict at what point of their line—right, left or centre—the Indian troops may appear, and you will get some conception of the sense of depression and anxiety under which the staff and its supreme head in France are now working.

now working. 'Lastly, superimpose the Russian peril on the east, and very naturally doubts arise as to the competence of the most high commander and entour-age, diplomatic and administrative, to handle the whole problem of the na-tion behind them—doubts which neither ignorance nor desire can any Princess Alice Was Forced to longer ignore."

JOIN BRITISH REGIMENTS.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Oct. 4, 9.32 p.m. estimates say that some 5000 Irishmen from Glasgow have joined the colors. From Lancashire, it is said, omitting Manchester and Liverpool, 15,000 have joined. Leeds has furnished many Irish recruits, and Dundee 1000. The mining villages have been largely de-pleted. Birmingham will furnish at a Canadian Pacific Liner off the Philip she already has a much larger proportion of men in the army than has England.

Separate Brigade.

John Redmond and his colleagues are to address recruiting meetings in parious parts of Ireland, and their usual fortnightly meeting in the Parish Hall tonight when Dr. Jas. L. Hughes will address the meeting taking as his subject "War and Civilization."

The R. fle Association attached to the proposals are expected to be fruitful. At the proposal are expected to be fruitful. At the proposal are expected to be fruitful.

"Abandoned Us Like Traitors," Says Captured German Officer.

LUBLIN IS DEVASTATED

FOR BIG DEFEAT

Not Three-Quarters of a Mil-Resembles a Town That Has Been Wrecked by an Earthquake.

their losses from illness on the march, stragglers, footsore men and so forth, are greater per day than in the far shorter marches and less sustained efforts during the first six weeks of 1870, they must have lost well over half a million men already, making a total reduction of about 1.000,000 men in their fighting line numbers. And this is a low estimate.

Cannot Muster 750,000.

"I do not therefore believe it possible that, including Austrians and Bavarians, they can muster 750,000 men under arms at any given moment to defend their 250 miles of front in France, say 3000 men to the mile, and these are of a very hetergeneous character. Meanwhile they have lost all freedom of movement. They are held everywhere by superior forces, whose aeroplanes can detect all attempts at concentration in ample time to take counter measures.

"And now to all this is added the certain knowledge that the Indian contingent is on French soil and with an admirable system of railway at their disposal, thanks to which it is impossible to predict at what point of their line—right, left or centre—the Indian contingent is on French soil and with an admirable system of railway at their disposal, thanks to which it is impossible to predict at what point of their line—right, left or centre—the Indian contingent is on French soil and with an admirable system of railway at their disposal, thanks to which it is impossible to predict at what point of their line—right, left or centre—the Indian contingent is on French soil and with an admirable system of railway at their disposal, thanks to which it is impossible to predict at what point of their line—right, left or centre—the Indian contingent is on French soil and with an admirable system of railway at their disposal, thanks to which it is impossible to predict at what point of their line—right, left or centre—the Indian contingent is on French soil and with an admirable system of railway at their day dinvited us to help theat on the Austrians. "Our allies the Austrians of the Austrians of th

"Before leaving this memorable scere I shook hands with a shepherd youth of 16, who, dressed in the uniform of an Austrian fleutenant, was driving a herd of cattle."

GERMAN CRUISER

Beach by British Auxiliary Cruiser.

Canadian Press Despach.
SEATTLE, Wn., Oct. 4,—The Blue Funnel Liner Talthyblus. in port from the Orient, brings details of the pursuit of the German auxiliary cruiser Princess Alice, by the British auxiliary pines early in September, as already cabled. The German vessel was bound for Tsingtau and was reported to carry $10,000,000 for the German Similar reports come from South Wales, Bristol and the west.

The figures regarding the Irish enlistment have been compiled by the Nationalist party organizers in the various districts.

St. Anne's Association
OF MEN MEET STONIGHT

Ch. James L. Hughes Will Speak—Rifle Practise Continues.

Rifle Practise Continues.

Cabled.

bound for Tsingtau and was reported to carry $10,000,000 for the German officials there. She was signted by the Empress and fled at once, pursued by the Britisher. The Empress carries four 6-inch guns and six 4.7-inch guns. The Alice had eight 6-inch guns. The Empress overhauled the German boat and a running fight followed. The German boat took the top of her smoke mast and had her mainmast cut off clean. The stern was torn away and clean. The stern was torn away and clean. The stern was torn away and several holes made in the huli. The Empress was unmarked.

The German ship to avoid capture or foundering headed for the Island of Cebu and ran on the beach. The Dettiels were all did not follow inside the British vessel did not follow inside the three-mile limit. The loss of life was

DUNNING'S

Leave your orders now for plum puddings and mince meat. High-class catering. 27-31 West King street; 23 Melinda street.