WHITE ROSE DAY TO BENEFIT SICK

Children Most Susceptible to Consumption Need Early Attention.

EFFORTS OF HOSPITAL

Shelter and Succor Little Ones Who Suffer Thru Negligence.

There is something very suggestive and beautiful about the title chosen for Sept. 9, the day on which the people of Toronto will be tested in the matter of their interest in the children cared for in Queen Mary's Hospital.

"White Rose Day" has the power of calling up visions of innocence and beauty which seem to belong to itself in a peculiar way. England's immortal Tennyson has given us the "white flower of a blameless life," and typifying the class for which the plea will be advanced on the coming day of campaign nothing could be more truly emblematic. The mission of Queen Mary's Hospital is to shelter and succor those little ones, who, innocent themselves, suffer in many instances thru the carelessness or neglect of others. This carelessness or neglect may not have been that of an individual. More likely it was that of humanity at large, which so often neglects to take advantage of protective measures which if taken in time would minimize so much of the evil to which flesh is heir.

Children Susceptible.

More and more each day is science forcing home the lesson that consumption exists simply because we permit it to do so. It has been demonstrated within the last decade that certain methods and means are infallible in destroying the germ which feeds upon those predisposed to the dread disease. Children are most susceptible ground upon which preventive measures may be employed. To do this effectively and for large numbers the Queen Mary Hospital has been established. If assisted to carry on its good work in the most effective way known to philanthropy and science the results will be not only beneficial but widespread. Immunity gained for one little life now may mean health to generations of the future. To work along these lines is what the hospital plans to do.

Her majesty, the gracious Queen Mary, has given her distinguished patronage to the day which a special effort will be made to assist the institution which bears her name. Her command has been given by V. J. Gage thru Canada's governor-general, the Duke of Connaught. It is a foregone conclusion that the day will have the organizing of the day in hand, will do their work willingly and well, and it only remains for the public to support their generosity by making "White Rose Day" a big success.

Notes of Women's World

Mrs. Pittsford is working for a hostel for gentlewomen in Vancouver.

The Lake Shore branch of the Red Cross meets today at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Christie, stop 16, Lake Shore road.

The Misses Clara Paget, Rena Thompson, Gwendolyn Snell and May Lawson have forwarded $26.27, proceeds of a bazaar, to the secretary of the Red Cross.

The patronesses of the Sir Henry Feltz patriotic dance for the poor of the city, to be held at the Island on Friday evening, are: Mrs. A. E. Goodenham, Mrs. Ambrose Small, Mrs. R. de Bruno Austin, Mrs. M. Healey, Mrs. James E. Day, Mrs. T. P. Phelan, Mrs. Ruddy.

In every Catholic parish church of the city today prayers will be offered for the success of the allied arms and for the attainment of an enduring peace. At the cathedral His Grace Archbishop McCrellin will say mass at 8 o'clock for the above intention, and in the other parishes the pastors and assistants will be the celebrants.

Over a thousand dollars have been raised thru the efforts of Mrs. D. N. Smith and Mrs. H. Roads, who, during the past two weeks, have spent the greater part of their time collecting passengers on board the "Cayuga" of the Canada Steamship Line for the purpose of providing a field ambulance to be used as part of the equipment of a Canadian field unit.

The adoption of prisoners located in upon which the latest objects of the Red Cross are exerting themselves. General instructions sent from headquarters are to the effect that a prisoner may be adopted for two dollars a month and that contributions of money are the most useful. For this amount a hamper containing food and comforts will be forwarded every fortnight to the prisoner accepted. Primary chapters should send their contributions to headquarters of the Red Cross, 77 East King street, Toronto.

On Monday the summer residents at Go Home Bay, on Georgian Bay, had an interesting, spectacular event in the form of an explorer, which was a commemorative of the day when the first white man passed centuries ago. Coureurs de bois and missionaries were all pictured, and the address by Rev. Father Harris of Barrie, an authority on the history of those days, was given. The picturesque but-of-door event was followed by a dance in the evening at the cottage of Dr. Wilart.

From Montigny, in the Marne district, the following has reached Mrs. E. F. B. Johnston: "Our poor little village is full of needy and sad people. We have had since the war been many refugees from our country in need of food and shelter. These people have taken care of us, but we have found work on the farms, etc., while others, who are able to fight, have gone back to the front. "With the spring our little village seemed to take on some of her old look of peace, but the other day there came to us a carload of the most distressed looking lot of human beings, who had fled desperately to their village in spite of fighting day and night for months. It is left of the most distressed people, all of whom, or children who had lost their parents, or been separated from their families, and had been taken care of by charity. They had hardly any clothes, were barefooted, and all had suffered from want. Quite a few were wounded by bombs and shells, and some may not recover."

The letter of which the above was a part was passed on to the Daughters of the Empire and a considerable sum has already been raised in response to the call.

WOMEN OF AMERICA START BIG CAMPAIGN

Relief Society in New York Organized for Purpose of Arousing People to Prepare.

Activity among the women of the United States has been a conspicuous feature of the life of the republic for a number of years. Their alertness and business methods have been matter for comment the world over. That their experience has had results is seen in the promptness with which they are accepting the change in policy which may at any moment involve their country in the general war. Latest accounts tell of the Relief Society of New York, of which Mrs. William Alexander is president, organizing for a campaign for the purpose of arousing the women of America to a full realization of the vital necessity of immediate preparedness for war. The society has undertaken to complete at once a nation-wide organization of women to consider and act upon questions of preparedness. The memory of "bitter experiences" in the past and the knowledge of present conditions in the countries already engaged are evidently not neglected factors with our sisters on the other side of the line, and undoubtedly the call for a nation-wide movement in this matter will be answered by a nation-wide response.

In preparing for war women do not lose their identity as preservers and protectors of the human race. Women's work is primarily to nurture and preserve life, and in preparing to take part in the battle into which their country may be plunged, the women of America, like the women of England, Canada and the allies, are simply carrying on their mission, even though the apparently contradictory lines.

Red Cross work in which the women will largely engage—American things have already done exemplary things in this sphere—is altogether curative and comforting. Preparing garments and comforts for the men who fight is also along this line. Building hospitals, collecting moneys for ambulances and other motors, and even actually recruiting will in the final analysis tend to the preservation of life, for the very contest in which the world is engaged it would mean that overwhelming numbers now against the common enemy, will tend much more to bring about the finish than would the lengthening of the war into years, with the consequent continuous loss of life.

Once the women of America have their campaign established, we may expect that results will begin to show in measure full to the brim and overflowing.

Discolored or Spotty Skin Easily Peeled Off

The freckling, discolored or roughening to which most skins are subject at this season may readily be gotten rid of this before retiring, by removing the morning with soap and water, completely peeling off the discolored skin. Get an ounce of the wax at any drugist's. There's no freckles or other cutaneous defects. Little skin particles come off each day, so the process itself doesn't even temporarily mar the complexion, and one soon acquires a brand new, spotless, girlishly beautiful face. Wrinkles caused by weather, worry or illness are best treated by a simple ointment of powdered salicylic acid, dissolved in 4-pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in this produces a truly marvelous transformation.

MANAGER LOOKS FOR BIG CROWDS

Dr. J. O. Orr of Exhibition Says Tourists Are Coming to Fair.

MILLION MARK WANTED

Record Figures of Two Years Ago Keep Presenting Themselves.

Dr. J. O. Orr, manager of the Canadian National Exhibition, returned yesterday afternoon from the seashore, where he has been resting. He is much improved in health and appearance, and is enthusiastically looking forward to the big fair, which he believes, from an attendance standpoint, will approach the record year—1913—when the million mark was passed for the first time.

"The demand for exhibit space was never greater, while the concessionaires are applying in greater numbers than we can hope to accommodate. "I never thought our fair was so well known across the line," he added. "Nearly everywhere I went someone asked me about it, and I feel that we are going to have a record attendance from over there."

False Impressions.

"There has been considerable discussion regarding the difficulties experienced by Americans in crossing the border into Canada, and false impressions have gone abroad, but these are gradually disappearing, and now that it is becoming generally known that tourists find no more obstacles in their way than in previous years, traffic is increasing. By fair time it will be in full swing."

"The Toronto public," he continued, "will be pleased to know that Major Barker has been appointed command the Model Military Camp. It is a happy appointment and one that greatly pleases the fair executives."

"A million people at the fair this year? Why not? There should be the rural districts. Americans are sure to come over in large numbers, while the people of Toronto and other cities find the patriotic nature of the Exhibition making a very strong appeal to them. So that in all we have a combination that can hardly fail to make the fair a big success."

LOCAL AVIATORS READY FOR SERVICE AT FRONT

Crowley of Victoria, and Delamere, Toronto, Leaving for War Zone.

A. T. Cowley, Victoria, B.C.; R. H. Delamere, Heath street, and A. J. Nightingale, 22 Golden avenue, Toronto, who successfully passed their examinations for aviators last Friday, will set sail this Friday for the old land. These young men have been granted commissions as sub-lieutenants in the Royal Naval Air Service. There are over a hundred young Canadians who have signed up with the Curtiss Aeroplanes and Motors Limited, for aerial instruction. Admiring Charles Kingsmill has received notice from the admiralty that no more aviators are required at present, and has issued a notice to this effect. Cowley and Delamere had a shipboard escape on Sunday at Long Branch. Getting out of a steep bank the machine dished and both were badly shaken up. The biplane was completely wrecked, but neither the men is the worse for the mishap.

Bert Aceta, who came to Toronto recently from San Diego, California, is now a pilot for the Curtiss Aviation School, Long Branch. He is considered one of the best military flying men on the continent.

Recipe to Stop Dandruff

This Home-Made Mixture Stops Dandruff and Falling Hair and Aids Its Growth.

To a half-pint of water add: Bay Rum ..... 1 oz. Olex Compound ..... 1 oz. Glycerine ..... 1-4 oz. These are all simple ingredients that you can buy from any drugist at a very little cost, and mix them yourself. Apply to the scalp once a day for two weeks, then once every other week until all the mixture is used. A half pint should be enough to rid the head of dandruff and kill the dandruff germ. It stops the hair from falling out, and relieves itching and scalp diseases. Although it is not dye, it acts upon the hair roots and will darken streaked, faded gray hair in ten or fifteen days. It promotes the growth of the hair and makes harsh hair soft and glossy.

FEW LABOR DISPUTES REPORTED IN CANADA

Some Complaints, However, From Workmen Employed in Munitions Factories.

OTTAWA, Aug. 3.—Labor disputes of a serious nature in Canada are exceedingly few at the present time. The chief complaints which are reaching the labor department are in regard to wages where munitions are being manufactured, and the question of working in the same room as Germans and Austrians. Wage disputes are being dealt with as thoroughly as possible and so far have been settled fairly satisfactorily. In a number of cases miners and other workmen have refused to work with alien enemies and strikes have threatened until these were dismissed. Now the government has on its hands the problem of terminating and caring for them. The arbitration board which is sitting at the present time is in British Columbia.
