

1783.

M A R C H.

4. Twenty-three prizes made by Adm. Pigot's fleet in the West-Indies since December 11, 1782, and an American privateer overfet.
5. Bill to allow commerce with the ceded West-India Islands, in the House of Commons.
— Letter from the Board of Loyalists to Earl Cornwallis in London, which he answers on the 8th.
12. Lord Vis. Mountstuart appointed Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Court of Spain.
— Nine Consuls appointed to reside in Spain.
13. Motion in Congress to lay $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. on all European and Asiatic manufactured goods, &c. imported.
— La Cōquette French frigate of 28 guns, the Marquis de Grasse, taken by the Resistance of 44, off Turk's Island, in the West-Indies.
14. Packet-boats begin to pass between Dover and Calais.
15. Address of the West-India planters and merchants, on the Peace, presented to his Majesty.
— The French King procures a loan of six millions for the States of America.
17. First Installation of the Order of St. Patrick at Dublin.
18. Address of the city of Edinburgh, in approbation of the Peace, presented to his Majesty.
19. The Argo of 40 guns, which had been taken by two French frigates in the West-Indies, is re-taken.
The French have lost 4 sail of the line and 2 frigates by storms in the East and West-Indies, this winter.
20. Mutiny of the 104th regiment in the Island of Guernsey.
21. Address of the people called Quakers, on the Peace, presented to his Majesty.
22. Advice of the Peace being signed arrived at Jamaica.
24. Don Bernardo del Campo, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Court of Spain, presented to his Majesty.
— The Chev. de la Luzerne, French Minister at Philadelphia, announces to Congress the general PEACE.
— Congress order their cruizers to be called in.
— The cities of Bourdeaux and Marseilles petition the French King for a charter to establish "the American Company trading to the Western continent."
— The militia of England disembodied.
The Court of Spain formally recognize the Independence of America, and admit Mr. Carmichael as Charge des Affaires at Madrid.

O

Mr.