Seasonable Recipes

Little Sponge Cake.

Beat one egg, add two level tablespoons of fine granulated sugar and beat until very light. Stir five level tablespoons of flour with one-half level teaspoon of baking powder and pinch of salt and fold into the sugar and egg. Bake in a small tin in a moderate oven. This is a good recipe to use when a small cake is needed for a lunch basket.

Mint Potatoes.

A delicious way of cooking new potatoes is to place them in boiling water and cook for three sprigs of fresh mint. When the potatoes have been cooked and drained a little melted butter should be poured over them. The mint gives a most delicate but not at all obtrusive flavor. Instead of trying to peel new potatoes, the English cook removes the skin by rubbing them very hard with a coarse cloth. This leaves them both white and smooth and obviates the necessity of peeling them after cooking.

Chestnut Cream.

Shell, Blanch and boil enough chestnuts to make one pint of pulp, and press thru a sieve. Cook in a double boiler; then add one pint of cream which has been whipped until it is ready for use. Add a pinch of salt, a dash of vanilla, and a dash of sugar. Serve with custard sauce, or it is excellent if plain. For extra occasion, a half cupful of preserved fruit may be added. The cream, if well whipped, will completely take away any objectionable taste.

Almond Dessert.

Line some patty pans with short paste and fill with this mixture. Found in the E. Eddy Co. Hull, was in town yesterday accompanied by Mr. J. F. Taylor.

The marriage of Miss Irene Mack, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mack of Toronto, took place on July 18 in St. Margaret's R. C. Church, Winthrop, to Mr. Harry R. Stantley. The bride's gown was of white duchess satin with real lace and pearls. Her hair was styled in the latest fashion and she wore a corsage bouquet of American Beauty roses, which was a gift from her sister, Mrs. Stantley. Mr. and Mrs. Baker were presented with a handsome cabinet. The groom's gift to the bride was a large diamond ring.

The lord mayor of Bristol, and lady mayor, with Miss Wills, Mr. J. H. Ristley, Mr. A. J. Hills, Supt. C. N. Railway, have apartments engaged and will arrive in Toronto on the 21st of the month. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sproule Nesbitt and Mr. and Mrs. S. Sproule Nesbitt, at the R. S. Sproule Nesbitt, 411 Keele Street, Toronto.

Mrs. J. Mason, Miss Mason, D. E. Taylor, Mrs. W. A. McNabb, Ernest D. A. Alder, J. C. Castle and C. Morton, all of Toronto, are at the Royal York Hotel.

At the Theatres

ALEXANDRA NEXT WEEK.

"All the Comforts of Home" to Be Shown.

Great credit is due Miss Haswell for her adaptability in choosing the plays she presents at the Alexandra Theatre. This week she takes her patrons back in presenting "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," to the days of Queen Elizabeth. Next week, when she and her company present "All the Comforts of Home," she brings them up to to-day in fashionable London.

Bud Fisher at Shea's

Bud Fisher, the creator of Mutt and Jeff, has been selected as the headliner for Shea's Theatre next week by Manager Shea. Mr. Fisher is known to us through his Mutt and Jeff cartoons, and is a very young man who has attained the success he has in his special field of work, and his success as a monologist has scarcely been secondary.

BABY HURLED TO DEATH

Horror act as he was seen by James Cullen, Earl and Curtis, Three Alex. China and Pickett, Bell and Caron, and the cinematograph.

FEEDING CHILDREN.

As a rule they eat too little. And so many eat the wrong food. Many refuse to wake up until the pastry appears.

THE POPULAR ST. LAWRENCE

The boat trip down the River St. Lawrence and through the Thousand Islands is a pleasant first half of a journey to the beautiful Laurentian Mountains. This exciting ground is the home of innumerable fishing and hunting birds, which include among their number the Canada goose, the golden-winged quail, the Canada warbler, the Canada sparrow, the Canada junco, the Canada chickadee, the Canada titmouse, the Canada nuthatch, the Canada kinglet, the Canada goldfinch, the Canada crow, the Canada raven, the Canada magpie, the Canada jay, the Canada crow, the Canada raven, the Canada magpie, the Canada jay.

ROLLING COLLAR

The low collar is too comfortable to be abolished by creators of styles, and a compromise between the very high and the flat ones is found in the new rolling collar with pointed front flaps.

WORTH KNOWING

When starching Holland pinafores, put a little tea into the starch. It will help them to keep their color.

CHILL THE EGG

When beating an egg, break the egg into a basin, and stand in the basin on the window sill, so that the egg may be chilled by the fresh air. An egg which is chilled in this way is much easier to whip than one which has grown warm by being left about in the hot kitchen.

SWEETS IN STRAW

A gift of candy on a hot day will be doubly appreciated if put in one of the dainty green straw boxes that are being sold to-day. The boxes are about two inches high, and the cover fits over the box just like a hamper.

WHEN THE NEW YORK POLICE ARE STIRRED.

What's the hurry of this big crowd? asked the stranger who was being jostled along toward one of Manhattan's Hudson River ferry-houses during the commuters' rush hour late yesterday afternoon.

With Brown Buttercups.

A pretty hat of cinnamon-brown chip is trimmed with a sheaf of brown buttercups, and a white rice straw veiled with black Chantilly lace with a sheaf of lilies-of-the-valley, the leaves in each case forming a sort of pedestal for the blossoms.

MIKADO'S MEMORABLE REIGN.

LONDON, July 31.—The house of common has passed a resolution of sympathy at the death of Emperor Mutsuhito of Japan.

Back to Mercer.

ST. CATHARINES, July 31.—Magistrate Campbell to-day sentenced to the Mercer Reformatory, Frances Cooper for one year and Ethel Bowman for eight months. They have been behaving in a disorderly manner about the city for some time. Both were served terms before in the Mercer Reformatory, which is colored, being out about a year.

Sailor Hat Chic.

Smart sailor hats have a side plating of gros-grain ribbon around the under-brim. They are oval in shape and are trimmed not only with the ribbon, but with a pair of Gaby wings, which are supplied to the crown, and a handrail at the back trimmed with cherries.

Evy Shoots Mother Fatally.

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 1.—(Can. Press.) Mrs. George Lane, wife of a well-known grain merchant of this district, was accidentally shot and killed by her 10-year-old son.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY HELPS

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN

Mrs. G. Powder covers up but does not correct complexion faults. Use this simple lotion and your skin will assume its former youthful clearness and glow.

Lifeless, itching scalp. To prepare, mix together a pint each alcohol and water, then add one ounce quinine. Rub a little of this mixture well into the scalp, banishing dandruff and putting it in a healthy condition. Continued use restores the former gloss and richness to the hair, as well as insures a luxuriant growth—all your own.

Lillian R.: You can safely recommend my crystals eye-tonic to your friends, for it is quite harmless and has a wonderful soothing and strengthening effect on sore, aching or weak eyes. Here is the recipe: Dissolve 1 ounce crystals in a pint cold water. Two or three drops should be put in the eyes each day. Thousands of my readers have used this simple eye-tonic to bring back the sparkle to dull eyes and very frequently people have been able to discard glasses after using it for a time.

P. X.: The fat around your abdomen will soon disappear once parroti is used. This will also banish your double chin. To make dissolving 4 ounces parroti in 1 1/2 pints hot water, and when it cools take a tablespoonful of each meal. Continue treatment until your weight is where you want it, when you stop the treatment you will have no fear of the fat returning. This method does away with dieting or weak exercises and is the only safe way of which you know to actually reduce the weight.

Dorris: Greasy creams do more harm than good, because of their tendency to close pores; it thus causes the skin to assume a leaden color and grow oily, and skin blemishes, blotches and skin pimples. You will find plain aloe vera cream-jelly just the face cream for you. It is very simple to make and cost very little. It cleanses the skin of impurities and it will keep the complexion clear and bright. To make a cream, mix one ounce aloe vera with one ounce glycerine in a pint cold water. When this is dissolved apply freely to the face, neck and chest daily, and it will cleanse the skin of impurities and it will keep the complexion clear and bright.
