POPULAR FEELING WITH ROOSEVELT

"Man on Street" in Chicago Thinks Colonel Will Yet Win.

HUGHES NOT POPULAR

Belief That He is Dodging Issue Steadily Being Strengthened.

Special to The Toronto World.
CHICAGO, June 8.—Theodore Roosevelt is going to be the next president of the United States. That is the opinion of the majority of the out of a hundred of the city of Chicago to-night. What puzzles the man on the street is the sudden opposition to the straight-rope convention.

That if Roosevelt is nominated by the Republicans he would be endorsed by the Progressives, and that Woodrow Wilson at the polls is nowhere seriously disputed. That Mr. Justice Hughes, his chief rival, is by no means certain that Roosevelt would secure the Republican nomination. The Republican leaders profess themselves willing to name almost any candidate acceptable to the colony, and to adopt any amendment to their platform that he may suggest. The bulk, however, at nominating the colony himself for president.

Delegates Chafing.
The bulk of the delegates are being held in line for the present, but they are evidently dissatisfied with the situation. If the colony came here in perso of the govern-he would probably means certain that the Republican nomi-

willing to name him-
acceptable to the col-any amendment to their platform that he may suggest. The at nominating the colony himself for
president.

Meanwhile the Progressive convention is marking time. It will undoubtedly place Roosevelt in the field as a presidential candidate if Justice Hughes is the nominee of the straight-rope convention. The Progressives are especially bitter against the supreme court judge.

Glimpses Approaches.
Something should break tomorrow.
There may be a stampede for the colony. The feeling in his favor is running strong and he has struck a responsive chord by his appeal to "Americanism." Indeed he has been able to voice the dissatisfaction of the country with President Wilson's weak and wobbly foreign policy without committing himself either to a jingo policy or a declaration for or against the belligerents. He has a platform on which even patriotic German-Americans can stand and he has the enthusiastic support of Anglo-

Saxon Americans. The belief that Mr.
Justice Hughes is dodging the issues of the day has created a painful impression and his support in the convention, the numerically strong, lacks spirit and enthusiasm.

SOCIETY

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips.

His Honor the Lieut.-Governor and

and Lady Gibson at Ravenscliffe, Hamilton, after the Mountbarnet-Wood marriage on Wednesday.

The Queen's Royal, Niagara-on-the-Lake, will open for the season on Sat-morning very quietly at the residence of Mr. Edwin L. Thomas, Anderson street, Buffalo, N.Y., of Elizabeth Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thomas, of General G. Sterling Ryerson of Toronto.

The bride wore a smart frock of brown Georgette crepe and tulle, with shoes and stockings to match, and a veil of waterfall tulle with a cascade of the same shade. There were no attendants and only the members of the families and a few intimate friends were present. General and Mrs. Ryerson left on a short trip to the eastern states.

Mrs. H. D. Warren has taken Col. and Mrs. Charles Neill's house on the River large bouquets of yellow and purple iris and of a host of other flowers. A band of the 48th Highlanders played, and beautiful and the day was a very pleas-

GERMANS ADMIT LOSS OF LUTZOW

Sinking of Cruisers Rostock
