THE HIGH TEA AND THE TEMPLE FAIR

There was another large attendance at the cathedral high tea and sale last night notwithstanding the very stormy weather. About 450 enjoyed an excellent supper, there being a steady rush from about 6 o'clock until long after 8. The City Cornet Band were present and gave delight to the large crowd present with an excellent programme of music. All the games and booths were very well patronized and from present indications it looks as if the fair this year is going to be a much greater success than that of last.

James Whelby was successful in winning both prizes in the beanboard contest, securing a handsome jardiner and silver cake bucket.

The leaders in the voting contest for the most popular lady on the committee in charge are: Mrs. J. V. Holland, 184; Miss Margaret Kennedy, 184; Mrs. Coll. 89; Mrs. Haney, 41; Miss M. Cronin, 36; and Mrs. P. Dolan, 30.

Tonight is the last night of the fair and another large attendance is expected. The St. Joseph's Y. M. A. orchestra will be in attendance. Tomorrow afternoon will be devoted to the children, many of whom will no doubt attend.

The Temple of Honor fair had a larger attendance last evening than at any time since its opening. All the booths were well patronized, the sportsman's booth and the Canadian statesman's booth attracting much attention. The lucky door ticket was held by Frank Bourke, of Main Street, and he received a load of coal as the door prize. St. Mary's Band rendered a fine programme. Friday afternoon has been reserved for the children, when the fair will be open from 2.30 to 6.30 o'clock. There will be special attractions and prizes for the little ones.
