

Presbyterian Ladies' College TORONTO.

LOCATION :

ON BLOOR STREET, OPPOSITE THE QUEEN'S PARK.

This Institution, participating in the Educational facilities afforded by the City of Toronto, provides a thorough, practical and liberal education in Literature, Art, Music, Elocution, and Domestic Science.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT—Under the charge of Specialists.

SCIENCE—Embracing an extensive and thorough course in Hygiene, under the charge of Miss Susanna Boyle, M.D., C.M., Professor in the Ontario Medical College for Women, Toronto.

ART—Students have special advantages in Art under the able and efficient teaching of T. Mower-Martin, R.C.A., Director.

ELOCUTION DEPARTMENT Thoroughly equipped under charge of Miss Edith Murray B.O. of the Neff College of Oratory, Philadelphia.

THE HOME AND SOCIAL LIFE—Receives careful supervision.

THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT—Is in connection with the TORONTO CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC, Mr. Edward Fisher, Musical Director. Young ladies who come to the city especially for music are here provided with the comforts and safeguards of home, have all the privileges of the Conservatory, and may take up some literary subjects at a very nominal expense. The advantages arising from these associations are of immense importance.

10th year begins September 8th, 1898. Students may enter at any time.

Classes for Matriculation and First Year University Work.

Early application necessary. Numbers limited. New Calendar.

REV. J. A. MACDONALD, Principal.

J

Y.M

FRED.

M

E. R.

ter

EDWA

M

Free p

Telep