Art Club Plans for Season Announced

The federal elections caused the postponement of the conversation, with which the Saint John Art Club was to have opened its new season's programme. It will take place about the middle of the present month. A feature of the evening will be an illustrated lecture by Prof. E. L. Harvey, of U. N. B., on "The Discoverers of Canada." The council of the club hopes to be able to have on exhibition a unique collection of the Medici Society's reproductions of the works of old masters. For the six lecture meetings of the season the club has a very inviting programme. Ven. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot, president, will give an illustrated lecture on "Classic Painting"; Mrs. Silas Alward will deal with the "Pre-Raphaelites" and James F. Browne will provide an evening on song. Musical illustrations will be given with Mr. Browne's address.

The Art Class students will have charge of the programme of the April meeting and at the final meeting Miss Cale will give an address on "Canadian Art, its Aims and Accomplishments."

Sold Potatoes Cheap, Man Shoots Himself

HOULTON, Me., Nov. 6.—F. H. Smith, a Littleton farmer, is in the hospital here with a self-inflicted bullet wound in the hip. It is believed that Smith, who is a potato grower, has been dependent about the potato market, having contracted for much of his crop at $2 a barrel and the price has now gone over $8 and he has been a victim of worry and disappointment.
