death under a carload of horses. His body has been recovered. Fireman Murphy, in jumping, suffered a badly injured leg which it was feared was broken. Few other particulars of the wreck has been received by the C. N. R. management. In addition to the engines being badly smashed up, some seven cars were derailed and more or less broken up. The car containing the horses turned completely over and 14 were killed.

464 visits, establishing a new high record for this home visitation. Their report submitted at the monthly meeting of the society yesterday afternoon called forth special commendation. A.
M. Peters, the newly elected president, was in the chair. Special reference was made to the co-operation of the Board of Health which is greatly aiding the society in its present campaign of protection for the children. In the campaign all contact cases are examined in
