Three Stores

The Buying of Diamonds

The buying of diamonds or precious stones is very largely a matter of confidence. The average person cannot judge for himself as to the real value of precious stones.

It is altogether important that you make your purchase from a dealer in whom you have absolute confidence, whose guarantee means something.

We have been selling diamonds for nearly three quarters of a Century, we know diamond values and through our facilities for buying we can sell at exceptional prices.

Fur Coats at Unheard of Prices at M. R. A. Ltd.

January sales disclose startling values now to be had in the balance of the Fur Coats stocks at this store. Now is your chance for an enormous bargain. If you have the slightest need for a Fur Coat, Neck Piece or Muff—no better opportunity than is offered you here just now will be forthcoming for you to buy it.

For some weeks, coats have been selling at cost prices at this store. We have only 32 left, all in fashionable shapes and of reliable pelts and excellent workmanship; they are in every way desirable and reliable and for this final clearance these coats have been marked at prices that bring them way below their cost prices.

The wonderful values shown in our advertisement will be in effect tomorrow.

RECENT DEATHS

Frederick D. Collins.
Many friends in the city will learn with regret of the death of Frederick Duncan Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Collins, which occurred last night at his late residence, 31 Goodrich street. Mr. Collins had been in failing health for some time, but the news of his death will come as a shock to his friends. He leaves to mourn his parents; also three sisters, Mrs. F. N. Robertson, Mrs. R. J. Schofield and Miss Sarah Collins, and one brother, J. Sidney Collins. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2.30 from his late residence.

Mrs. John R. Cormier.
A large circle of friends will with regret learn of the death of Mrs. John R. Cormier, which occurred on Saturday morning at her home in Centerville, N. B., after a long illness, borne with great patience and Christian fortitude. Mrs. Cormier was the daughter of the late Benjamin and Annie Jordan and was borne in Woodstock seventy-three years ago. She leaves to mourn her husband, three sons, Gordon H. Blamark, North Dakota; Rex R., St. John, and Samuel H., at home; and four daughters, Mrs. J. D. McLean and Mrs. D. W. Perkins, Centerville; Mrs. J. C. Burt and Mrs. E. J. Fulton, Bridgewater, N. B. The deceased was interred in the Centerville Baptist cemetery on Monday afternoon at two o'clock. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Miller and the Rev. Mr. Bell.

Dr. W. V. Coffyn, a well-known physician, of Fredericton, died at his home last night, following a few days' illness with pneumonia. He was 86 years of age. During the war Dr. Coffyn served with the imperial army and was given a commission in the R. A. M. C. He saw service in Mesopotamia with Sir Percy Lake's column. He is survived by his wife and one child.

ANNUAL MEETING OF GERMAIN ST. BAPTIST CHURCH

The annual meeting of the Germain street Baptist church was held last evening, and it was announced that the mortgage had been reduced by $2,000, and now was $12,000. It was also decided to raise the salary of the pastor, Rev. S. S. Poole, by the amount of $300. F. C. Fisher, church accountant, reported an increase over last year in the amount received by duplex envelopes. Mrs. Hunt, in her report for the Willing Workers, announced that several garments had been made for the Protestant Orphan Asylum and the Children's Aid Society.

The treasurer, W. C. Cross, reported the total receipts from all sources to be $24,085.92, including $2,638.92 for the mortgage fund and $3,140.55 for the forward movement.

The church clerk, S. E. Fisher, reported the present membership as follows: Resident 470, non-resident 72, supplemental 178; a total of 720. There were received during the last year by baptism twenty-three, by letter sixteen and by experience one, a total of forty. The resident membership figures showed an increase of twenty-three over the previous year.

The finance committee reported a successful year and recommended an increase in the pastor's salary of $300. This was unanimously passed. The Women's Missionary Aid Society reported a busy year. It was shown that interest in missions were increasing. The total amount raised was $810.92, which was given entirely for missions. The officers of the society for this year are: President, Mrs. S. S. Poole; first vice-president, Mrs. N. C. Scott; secretary, Mrs. G. W. Parker; treasurer, Mrs. E. L. Rising.

The report of the Ladies' Association showed that it had done a large amount of visiting and also supervised the cleaning of the church property. The officers are as follows: President, Mrs. N. C. Scott; first vice-president, Mrs. S. S. Poole; second vice-president, Mrs. W. C. Cross; third vice-president, Mrs. Mabel
