THOUSAND HUN AIRPLANES BROUGHT DOWN BY BRITISH IN THE LAST TWO MONTHS

London, May 21.—An official statement on aerial operations tonight says: "Since the beginning of the German offensive, exactly two months ago, 1,000 German airplanes have been brought down or driven down out of control and more than 1,000 tons of bombs have been dropped over the enemy's lines. During Monday night alone in the neighborhood of Ghent, Tournai and St. Quentin used by the enemy's night bombing machines, were heavily attacked. Thirteen tons of bombs were dropped on these and four and a half tons were dropped on the railway stations at Thionville, Metz and Coblenz. At eight o'clock in the morning of May 21 twenty-two heavy bombs were dropped on the railway stations at Namur and Charleroi. One of our machines has not returned."

HIGH CLASS PROGRAMME; CHURCH HALL CROWDED

St. John the Baptist Church Entertainment a Very Delightful One

The hundreds who crowded St. John the Baptist Sunday school hall, Broad street, last evening to hear what was expected to be an extraordinary church concert, were very agreeably surprised, for they were treated to a superior and very ambitious programme of dramatic and musical numbers. The entertainment was in two parts. First came a two act playlet, "Mrs. Barclay's Rebellion," the story of a wife who stood a lot of crankiness and criticism from her husband for a long time, and then very effectively brought about a cure for him. Mrs. B. P. McCaffery played the leading role with skill and thoroughly well. Miss Genevieve Killen won honors as the fault-finding sister-in-law, and Miss Irene O'Brien was excellent as her ill-trained child. Miss Justina Roderick did fine work as the housekeeper, and Miss Irene O'Brien as the comedienne of talent. She brought many a hearty laugh. Among the men in the cast were Fred Hazel, who as Roger Stuart and Arthur McCloskey as the men in the cast were well as in a manner that would have been creditable to older hands. In part two of the programme, Mrs. Thomas Harris sang in a beautiful voice her excellent voice was heard to good advantage. Songs were also sung by Frank McCaffery, Miss Bernice Mooney, and in the solo in "Ting a Ling," Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connor (maid of all work at the Barclay home).

At Langlands camp 800 wounded British soldiers arrived in the night time and were herded into a large building which had been used for the purpose. The remainder were taken out and left in the open for three days when seven died. Subsequently through neglect and ill-treatment fifty succumbed. The funeral at this camp followed the summer of 1917 to the spring of 1918 were the greatest and the details in the evidence are too revolting for publication.

It was with deep regret that the congregation of St. John the Baptist church, last night accepted the resignation of their rector, Rev. G. F. Scoville, who will go to a larger field of service in the north.

Rev. G. F. Scoville, who has been rector of St. John's for a period of eighteen years, and who has been a member of the church since 1917, was an enthusiastic and devoted minister.
