XVI.—ON THE SUPERANNUATION OF CLERGYMEN.

A committee of seven clergymen of fifteen years in Priest's Orders shall be appointed by the Bishop, to whom shall be referred the case of Clergymen who, from age or infirmity, require to be superannuated. Whenever it shall appear to the Bishop, or to any member of the said committee that the interest of the Church requires that any Clergymen of the Diocese should be superannuated, the committee shall, with the sanction of the Bishop, have full power to investigate such case, and if it shall appear to them that such Clergyman ought to be superannuated, they shall report the case to the standing committee, and recommend what annual grant should in their opinion be made to such Clergyman.

In case any Clergyman who shall be placed on the superannuated list is dissatisfied with the action of the standing committee in his case he shall have the right of appeal against such decision to the Synod.
