He had quite a large sum of money on his person when last seen on that day, and was in the company of some persons to enjoy a very questionable reputation in the city, and as they were, at the time, engaged in drinking, it is feared he may have met with foul play. Efforts have been made, by Mrs. Oulton's relations, by both the British Consul and the mate of the vessel, to discover the missing man, but so far, without success, and the mate is now bringing the vessel to this port. Capt. Leary has a wife and only residing on Queen street, to whom the news of his disappearance is a most sad blow.

The hay crop will be very light. Potatoes far, look well, and there is every reason to expect a moderate quantity of this crop. Wheat, in some places, is a deal out with the worm, otherwise there is every appearance of a very good crop. Oats so far look well, and there is every prospect of an average crop. The showers of rain we have had during the ten days, we have been informed, has killed a wide area throughout the country—in it has been the salvation of the crops—

Only one fourth of the Congregational churches of Maine have settled pastors. In the bloody fight in a Missouri harvest field, the other day, one man ran his eye off through the body of another, the blood being his buck, passing through his heart out through his breast.

A naked wild negro has been seen several times near Magnolia and Chatawa, La. was first discovered by a white man, near Magnolia, seated upon a fallen tree, eating coconuts. On being approached he ceased to be troubled to get out of sight. It is believed that he was originally a runaway, and that he has for years lived in the woods and is not aware of the emancipation of his race.

A good story is told by one of the Greek papers. One of the military commanders having offered a reward for each brigand brought in, the supply soon became so excessive that suspicious were aroused. Inquiry was set on foot and disclosed the fact, with an eye to the "main chance," the alleged brigand had made raids into neighboring villages, plundered them and then fled to the hands of their victims to account.

Land on the Mississippi is by no means real estate. A town recently found itself on the other side of the river from its previous day's location, having lived out of a boat in the night, and never finding it there on a small island, or even miles back from the bank, by similar means of the Father of Waters.
