CZAR MEETS KAISER.

Swinemünde—Police Precautions.

Emperor Nicholas of Russia arrived in this harbor Saturday morning on the imperial yacht Standart, and was met by Kaiser Wilhelm on the Hohenzollern, which was accompanied by the cruisers Koenigsberg and Slesier, and a flotilla of torpedo boats.

Emperor Nicholas was received by wireless telegraphy of where the Standart was cruising, and the yachts met at sea.

Emperor Nicholas called upon the German Emperor and was invited to remain on board the Hohenzollern and review the German fleet. The Hohenzollern, with its convoy of warships, then returned to Swinemünde and the two Emperors reviewed the German fleet, which consisted of 18 battleships, seven cruisers, a number of auxiliary vessels, a flotilla of torpedo boats and minor craft. A salute was fired in honor of Emperor Nicholas, and the crews of the German vessels manned the yards.

At about the time the review ended, the Standart steamed into the harbor, accompanied by an escort of Russian torpedo boats.

Emperor Nicholas lunched on board the Hohenzollern. The staffs of both sovereigns were present at the luncheon, after which the Emperor returned to the Standart. The German Emperor paid his return call to the Russian sovereign on board the Standart yesterday afternoon. The two sovereigns had a long talk. Prince Vian, chief of the Russian imperial chancery, and W. Jawozky, the Russian Foreign Minister, were present and took part in the conversation.

During the review the Swinemünde harbor was closed by German torpedo boats and special harbor police watched all the boats along the wharf. As a further precaution there was a large detail of Russian police among the crowds that had gathered on the shore to witness the review.

SAILORS' DARING ESCAPE.

Jumped into the Sea When Five Miles From Land.

Moncton, N.B., Aug. 5.—With their ship five miles from the nearest land, two Norwegian sailors jumped from the large Auguste Loffler into the Straits of Northumberland. A little later they were rescued by a passing boat and taken to Shediac, where they have been given employment.

The escape of the two men was dramatic. With another sailor of the same ship, which was at Point Duquesne for several days, they deserted some time ago and ran away. Constable Belyea, Shediac, was sent after the trio, locating them with some difficulty and they put up quite a stubborn resistance before being taken aboard the vessel, which was bound for Preston, England, and sailed from Port Duquesne Saturday morning.

When the ship was some five miles out, the sailors, wearing their heavy boots and usual clothing, jumped overboard and the ship's crew saw them. The ship's boat was promptly lowered by order of the captain, but was swamped by the heavy sea, and the two men were left struggling in the water. A few minutes later a Point Duquesne sailboat picked them up. So far as known, there were no reasons for the daring act, but the sailors are in good condition, and the men were well treated. They were liable to a year's imprisonment for the first desertion, but the expenses involved in capturing them would have been deducted from their salaries.

ARBITRATION ACCEPTED.

Proposals of U.S. Adopted at The Hague Conference.

The Hague, Aug. 5.—The American proposition regarding the establishment of a permanent court of arbitration at The Hague was adopted Saturday by the sub-committee.

The vote on the proposition was as follows:—Germany, Argentina, Brazil, Bulgaria, China, Chile, Colombia, Denmark, Santo Domingo, Ecuador, France, Great Britain, Guatemala, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Montenegro, Norway, Panama, Paraguay, Holland, Peru, Portugal, Russia, Sweden, Venezuela, and the United States.

The following obtained from voting, some of them because they were without instructions: Austria, Belgium, Spain, Greece, Roumania, Serbia, Siam, Switzerland, Turkey, Uruguay, Luxembourg and Salvador.

It is quite probable that Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia and the United States will agree to present to a special committee on Tuesday, a combined scheme for constituting a working permanent court of arbitration. The details already known, a section regarding the expenditures will doubtless be arranged like that of the universal postal union, at Berlin, the various countries being divided into different classes, according to their population and bearing a proportionate share of the costs.

Japs Watched Yankee Gun Drill.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 5.—Upon the return of Battery A from its annual target practice at Camp Eola, Capt. Blasing asserted that the work of his men and guns was closely observed by two Japanese who were robed by the officers.

The Japanese watched the work of the guns from a distance, partly hidden by trees. Battery A is one of the few organizations equipped with the latest field pieces.

RIOTS IN ITALY.

Government Threatens to Impose Martial Law.

Rome, Aug. 5.—The Government is threatening to impose martial law in a number of towns in northwestern Italy, unless the violence in connection with the anti-clerical agitation at once comes to an end.

At Mantua a crowd of manufacturers pillaged some churches and burned several sacred objects, and at Turin a workman attacked and wounded a priest in the street.

At Savona there were violent anti-clerical manifestations, and the guard over the prison, where the Salosian fathers from Varese, who are charged with immoral practices, are locked up, was reinforced to protect them from the mob.

The fire in St. Anthony's Church at Spezia, set by a unruly crowd, was extinguished and the church is now reserved by a detachment of soldiers.

The clerical charge that the free masons are conducting a campaign against them among the masses, was directly refuted by the Salosian fathers who entered suit against the newspapers that published the alleged charges. He has also asked the Government to conduct an investigation of these charges.

Priests Used Revolvers.

Rome, Aug. 5.—At Sampierdarena a crowd attacked the Salosian fathers, who were in the building got together and repaid with revolver shots, whenupon the mob broke down the door and swarmed in.

The situation of the priests was dangerous for a few moments, and they were only rescued by the timely arrival of troops.

Anti-clerical demonstrations were announced for Saturday in a large number of Italian towns.

WAS IT SUICIDE?

Mysterious Message Received From Missing Man, Native of Erie.

Erie, Pa., Aug. 5.—Through the aid of the postoffice officials of Toronto, Canada, the legal police officials have succeeded in clearing up the mystery of the disappearance of a prominent man.

It is now thought that John McCall committed suicide near Toronto, although no clue to his whereabouts was disclosed until Postmaster Sabel of the Erie postoffice, while looking over the records, which bore the words, "Committed suicide if you find it, send word to my mother that I am dead."—McCall, Erie, Pa.

This note was written on the back of a ticket of a Toronto theatre. The card was found on Toronto Island. McCall disappeared some time ago, and the police notified his parents yesterday of his death, although no foundation as to whether the body was found or not has been received.

Fatality at Cobalt.

Cobalt, Ont., Aug. 5.—Alexander Melrose, a machine man on the Temiskaming & Hudson Bay mine, was killed Saturday morning by falling down the shaft.

He had just come to the top in the bucket with another employee, and it is supposed he slipped when stepping out of the bucket. He dropped 10 feet. When picked up by the foreman he spoke, but expired immediately after.

Melrose came from Dartmouth, N.S., where his sister resides. His father and mother are also living at Halifax. He was about 40 years of age, a widower, and belonged to the Cobalt Miners' Union. His son died last spring in Nova Scotia.

Many Injured In Mine.

Homburg, Aug. 5.—An explosion of fire damp Saturday in a mine at Miltobach, six miles from here, resulted in a report that 12 men had been killed. A rescue party found the missing men alive, although unconscious. Many men were injured, but none were killed.

MILLIONS IN CARS

THE G. T. R. WILL SOON HAVE SPENT $7,000,000 THIS YEAR FOR COACHES AND ENGINES.

Montreal, July 24.—With the daily delivery of engines, passenger coaches and freight cars the Grand Trunk Railway is rapidly approaching the day when the cost of nearly $7,000,000 worth of rolling stock will have been received by them during the present year. There were in all about sixty passenger coaches ordered, costing about $12,000 each, laid down in Montreal, which makes a total of $720,000. Thirty of these have already been delivered.

There were 160 engines ordered and of these 60 have been delivered. The average cost is $10,000 each, or an aggregate of $6,000,000.

The tremendous increase in freight traffic may be imagined by the delivery of 1,500 up to date freight cars. The order was for 5,200 and the average cost is $850 each, so that the great sum of $4,420,000 is being spent for freight cars alone. With the daily delivery of many of these the G. T. R. people are hoping to get going on the way to lift the present congestion.—Toronto News, July 21, 1907.

FIVE VAIN ATTEMPTS TO COMMIT SUICIDE

Hard Luck Tale of Sixty-Year-Old New York City Man.

New York, Aug. 3.—According to the Times, August Melbig, 60 years old of East 150th street, turned on the gas in his room early yesterday morning after closing the windows and fastening the bedroom door. Then he sat in a chair to smoke while death came. At six o'clock, three hours later, the gas began to make him sick, so he shut it off and opened the windows to bank it over.

An hour later he decided again to kill himself, so he closed the windows, lighted his pipe and turned on the gas. After an hour's wait Melbig decided to make an examination of the room. He poked under his bed, back of the bureau, and under chairs to find out if there was a leak where fresh air might come in. He found none.

At 9 o'clock he tried again, and although he sat a long time inhaling gas he did not die. He went down stairs and examined the gas jets down there. They were all right so he returned to his room, and after evening up the windows, filled the crevices with paper and the door with paper and old rags and lighting his pipe turned on the gas again.

The hours dragged by, but at noon found August still puffing his pipe. The old man restlessly tapped his bed so he could see if there was a leak, filling in here and there, then he tried again.

About 7:30 p.m. yesterday afternoon his wife smelled gas and calling to get into her husband's room called a policeman. He kicked in the door and found August seated in his chair smoking. The policeman was almost overcome by the gas, but he grabbed the man and hustled him down stairs, where August recounted his experience of the night.

In the hospital court, where Magistrate Butts was sitting, Melbig said he could not get along with his wife. Melbig was held in $500 bail for trial in special sessions for attempting to commit suicide.

CROWNED HEADS MEET.

Elaborate Preparations Made to Ensure Safety of Nicholas.

Berlin, Aug. 3.—Emperor William of Germany and Emperor Nicholas of Russia are to meet today in the Baltic Sea off Swinemünde.

Emperor William will be on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, and the Russian Emperor on his yacht, the Standart.

The German Baltic fleet will be present to give color to the occasion. The German authorities are taking every precaution to ensure the safety of the Russian Emperor. A large number of marine policemen will be sent today from Slesier to Swinemünde to do guard duty on shore.

The Norddeutscher Allgemeine Zeitung publishes a welcome to Emperor Nicholas at the head of its column yesterday evening. It announces that the Russian sovereign is coming for several days of friendly intercourse with Emperor William.

This meeting is presumably personal in character, the paper says, it is dictated by no specific political purpose, and there is therefore no occasion for any one to view it with distrust or suspicion. In conclusion the paper says:

"The German people see in this meeting an expression of the hearty relations existing between the houses of the two rulers and between the two countries, that are bound together by many mutual interests."

THE WEATHER.

Lower lakes and Georgian Bay.—Fresh southeasterly to southwesterly winds; fair today; stationary or a little higher temperature; thunderstorms in some localities during the night and on Tuesday.

"FIFTY YEARS AGO"

"Fifty Years Ago" is the title of a new column which we present to our readers today. The material for this column is selected from the Chronicle fifty years ago and we believe it will be found intensely interesting to all our readers. It is the intention to make the new column a special feature each week and those who are interested in the town's early history and the happenings of those days should not fail to read it.

Next week's column will contain a report of a council meeting which was called specially to discuss the quality of the material which was being placed in the market building.

A PRESENTATION

Grandford Exposition.—A pleasing event took place at the R. T. Whitlock store today when Mr. H. S. Oakley was presented by the firm and his fellow employees with a handsome oak chair and also with an address. Mr. Wes Riddolls read the address and speeches were made by several congratulating Mr. Oakley on the inauguration of his business, which are to take place next week in Toronto. Mr. Oakley is severing his connection with the store as cutter.

Mr. Oakley is a former resident of Ingersoll.

FOR WIFE BEATING

PUBLICLY FLOGGED BY AN ALDERMAN AT HAZELTON, PA.

Hazleton, Pa., Aug. 3.—Louis Sambol, accused of wife beating, was publicly flogged by Alderman D. A. McKelvey, before whom he had been brought for a hearing.

After the testimony had been given Alderman McKelvey seized the man by the collar, dragged him into the street, pulled the coat from his back and then handcuffed him to a tie-post.

The crowd divided his intention and a man took off his belt and gave it to McKelvey. The alderman is young and strong and the flogging was vigorously given. After a few strokes Sambol fell to his knees, crying for mercy, but McKelvey kept it up until he felt that the prisoner had had enough. All during the flogging the wife stood by and seemed to enjoy it.

MONKEY'S HOTEL BILL

KINGSTON HOTEL CHARGES FULL RATE FOR MISSING LINKS.

Kingston, August 3.—With the arrival of one of the big steamboats at Alexandria Bay the other morning there came down the gangway something new in the way of a visitor.

The novelty consisted of a monkey led by a man between whom and the animal, some long silver chain, beyond the monkey came Mrs. H. R. Van Peltier, New York. Following this lady came two maids, one carrying a basket with soft soled garments to protect the missing link from the kinds.

Once the group reached the dock it hastened toward the hotel with a crowd behind them. At the hotel desk there came some discussion as to what to do with the Simian. The clerk affirmed that the animal would not shelter or board a monkey.

The woman expostulated and finally was about to take her departure, taking all her dependents with her, when the proprietor appeared.

"When he heard both sides a settlement was reached on the basis of the woman taking the monkey to her private room and paying full rates for the privilege."
