ATTEMPTING TO END PAPER MILLS STRIKE

GLEN'S FALLS, Sept. 2.—Officials of the International Paper Company announced tonight that several mills which have been shut down for four weeks, will be started within a few days. The plants were closed because the men refused to accept a reduction of wages of ten per cent.

Joseph Slater, superintendent of the local mill, stated tonight that when operations are resumed, the men must accept a cut. The International Brotherhood of Stationary Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers, it is stated, have alienated contacts with the company by which a revised schedule of wages is established for a period of eleven months from September 12. The reduction in wages brought about by the new schedule is approximately five per cent, and the company has agreed to revise the scale on August 1, 1909. The agreement affects about 10,000 employees in the thirty-two plants operated by the company.

William J. Burns, of Tricordero, vice-president of the International Brotherhood of Paper Makers, said tonight that the members of this organization would not return to work until the old wage scale was placed in effect.

KINGS-ALBERT FIGHT OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY

NO ONE who was present at the big Liberal picnic held yesterday at Rotheray could doubt that a great notable wave of enthusiasm for the cause of the Laurier administration had begun to sweep over the country, and would speak to the gathering of thousands of persons gathered at Rotheray to hear addresses delivered by Hon. William Pugsley, Minister of Public Works; Hon. Charles Maclellan, Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons; Frank B. Carvell, M. P. for Carleton, and Dr. D. H. McAllister, Liberal nominee for Kings-Albert. All the speakers received most hearty receptions from the assembled throng.

The gathering was most representative, including not only persons from all over the two counties forming the constituency, but also from St. John city. The arrangements for handling the crowd were in the hands of E. S. Carleton, who was in charge of the picnic. Senator Domville, the first speaker, the chairman explained that Dr. Pugsley was a loyal Kings County boy (cheers) and would speak to the gathering on the questions of the day. As for himself, said the senator, he was in the upper house and was not supposed to take part in politics.

"And I don't," added the senator, amid laughter.

A few nights ago, said the speaker, the Conservatives of St. John city and county had nominated a man to oppose him in the coming election. His name was A. W. MacRae. He would not say the Conservatives had not made a wise choice nor that Dr. MacRae would not be defeated. He had always noticed that men when they could say nothing in their own favor attacked their opponents. Mr. MacRae had done that, but the statements that he had made concerning the speaker were false. Mr. MacRae had said that while a member of the provincial government he (the speaker) had taken money from the provincial funds, saying that the province had owed it to him.

"Ladies and gentlemen," said Dr. Pugsley, "I never received from the provincial treasury a cent for which I did not honestly work." (Applause.)

When he had left the government of the province New Brunswick was in as good a financial position as any other in Canada and made it possible for this present government to make better provision for the roads than they are making.

Dr. Pugsley, in closing his speech, referred to the aid the government had given the port of St. John and to its intentions regarding this city.

But a greater future was promised St. John. The results of the borings made in Courtenay Bay party at the cost of the government, had shown that the bay was absolutely free from rocks and that the bottom consisted entirely of mud and sand. This material it was possible to dredge to a depth of thirty-two feet at low water and there was every prospect of docks being built in that locality for the accommodation of vessels drawing thirty feet of water.

No man could take too bright a view of the future. Some said he was too optimistic, but when one looked at the great advances of the Northwest who could fail to be optimistic? For his own part he was prepared to advance along the path of progress as a member of the Laurier administration. (Applause.)

HON. CHARLES MARCELL.

Hon. Charles Marcell followed Dr. Pugsley and was most enthusiastically received. He thanked his hearers for their kindly welcome, saying that although Irish upon his mother's side, adequate words failed him to express his gratitude. (Laughter.)

He had come from Bonaventure if for nothing else than for the purpose of extending to the constituency the good fellowship of his own constituents. (Applause.) As deputy speaker he had scrutinized all that had been said in parliament by the Hon. Mr. Pugsley and by his opponents. He could tell his hearers and also the electors of St. John city and county that there was at Ottawa no harder fighter or better parliamentarian than Mr. Pugsley. (Applause.) He occupied a most important position, that of Minister of Public Works, who was the head of a department which expended $20,000,000 a year, although a few years before its expenditure had been but $4,000,000. Mr. Pugsley worthily filled the position and had been a most able representative of the Province of New Brunswick.

DR. MCALLISTER.

Senator Domville at the close of Mr. Marcell's address introduced the future representative of Kings County. Dr. McAllister received an ovation when he arose.

He had been defeated on provincial issues. Now that was all past. The Highway Act had defeated him, but the provincial government had given the country a worse act. The Central Railway was also an issue of the campaign, but nothing had been done concerning it except to hold a costly investigation which had proven nothing. Dr. McAllister then dealt with Dominion issues, criticizing the policy of the Conservative government.

It had been asked why Kings' Liberals did not take Dr. Pugsley as their candidate. The reason was that they could not get him. St. John city had taken him, and he congratulated that constituency on its choice.

FRANK B. CARVELL.

Frank B. Carvell, M. P. for Carleton, was next introduced by the chairman. He regretted, he said, that it had been left to him to deal with practical politics. Dr. McAllister should have continued, as he was on the right track. The doctor was always on the right track. (Applause.)

FOSTER, NOT BORDEN.

"The real leader of the Conservative party is not R. L. Borden," said Mr. Carvell. "He is George E. Foster. Do you know him?"

"Will you put him back into power?" (No, no.)

"Well, if you put back the Conservative party you put back Foster."

"Concerned with Mr. Foster in certain manipulations of the Canadian funds," continued Mr. Carvell, "was a gentleman named Fowler. I think you know him. He was a member of Mr. Carvell then told how Mr. Foster and his associates had manipulated the request of the directors to authorize an issue of $50,000,000 additional common stock. This will bring the total authorized issue up to $200,000,000. Of common stock $150,000,000 previously authorized having been about used up. It is not stated in the official announcement that it is the intention to issue any part of the additional $50,000,000 at the present time, but issue will be made from time to time as the directors deem circumstances necessary.

On October 19 the C. P. R. will have $146,010,000 common stock outstanding. At the present rate, dividend requirements for this purpose will involve $5,700,000 each year. The usual 1 per cent. paid annually on land sales will add $1,400,000 annually.

Besides common stock the C. P. R. has outstanding $43,938,668 preferred and $106,045,411 consolidated debenture stock, each of these receive 4 per cent. annually.

NEW PICTURES AND SONGS AT THE UNIQUE TODAY.

The Unique Theatre is again to the front with an excellent programme of high class pictures and illustrated songs. Beginning tonight and continuing every night for the balance of the week Miss Power will be heard in Vesta Victoria's great song hit, Poor John. At the afternoon matinee she will sing an illustrated song. The pictures today are above the average. The leader, Two Little Shoes, is a very interesting story. A young married man who was unable to obtain employment left one night for the western gold fields while his family was asleep, taking with him one of the baby's shoes. In after years he returned and that little shoe was the means of proving his relationship to his daughter, who had heard the story of her father's departure from her mother, now dead years. The other pictures are 'The Kindhearted Policeman, a story of a guardian of the peace who dealt out more justice than law, and The Dog and the Pipe, an excellent comedy. We wish to remind the mothers that they need not be afraid to send their little ones to this pleasure resort, as no objectionable pictures are ever shown. St. John's best tenor, Wm. Lanyon, will sing Katie, Darling, I am Waiting. In the afternoon Miss Power will sing When the Evening Breeze is Singing Home Sweet Home.

SEKY MAKES A HIT AT THE PRINCESS.

Hundreds of persons were mystified at the Princess Theatre yesterday afternoon when Seky, the famous lady vaudeville artist, was seen for the first time in the best act ever presented to the St. John public.

She is the first lady magician that has ever appeared on a St. John stage and her work of mystery is equal to any that has ever been seen here. This high priced Vaudeville act has been secured at a high figure and after her engagement in St. John Seky will proceed to the States where she will join the regular circuit. In addition to Seky's big act, there is being shown a lengthy programme of pictures.

A Laundry Scene is an instructive film showing how the washing was done twenty years ago and how it is done now in one of the biggest steam laundries in the world. It is a most interesting picture. A Calamitous Misadventure is the title of a picture of rare comedy, while the picture entitled "The Hypnotic Table" is one that causes laughter from start to finish.

Harry Newcombe is heard in a new and pretty illustrated song, and Madam Demby is also rendering a late solo that is attracting considerable attention.

The Princess show is the best in the city and is given at the usual price.

GOOD SHOW AT BIJOU YESTERDAY.

Everybody delighted! Said "Best show yet!" Enjoyed the pictures, enjoyed the singing immensely! Miss Ade Smith, the English soprano, was certainly in great voice last night and her singing of "Down the Vale," that beautiful song written by Gundy Haddath, whose name all "Old Country Folks" are familiar with, was a splendid rendition. David Higgins sang "With You in Eternity" with much feeling and beautiful illustrations. The pictures shown had somewhat of a tendency to the comic, but in "Gaston's Visit to the Museum of Arts" and "The Peaceful Inn," there is some truly fine scenery that gives relief to the little bits of comedy contained in them. "Rent's Due" is a comedy all through, good heavy comedy, and you can't help but laugh, as is likewise "The Magic Bag." In the picture called "The Magician" the Bijou have one of those interesting transformations that cause much wonder. A visit to the Bijou this afternoon or evening would most surely repay any lover of real good pictures.

"A COUNT OF NO ACCOUNT" AT THE NICKEL.

If ever there was a screaming farce for public entertainment it is the picture-play, "A Count of No Account," to be presented by the Humanova Co. at the Nickel today and the remainder of the week. This is another long picture, consuming about eighteen minutes of the programme and every minute is a continuous burst of merriment. Needless to state the "count" in this play is one of those Wary Wilkes immortalized by the funny papers and such actors as Nat Wills, the famous "Happy Tramp." In addition to the Humanova production the pictures Japanese Butterflies, The Miller, His Son and His Donkey, In the Nick of Time, Not Yet But Soon and Jim is Fond of Garlic, will soon be shown. Miss Felix's brand new song is "You'll Always Be Sweet Sixteen to Me," and Mr. Weston has a charming semi-classic, "The Last Voyage."

Let Lyons, the Advertiser, boom your business. Phone 2990.

FOUR OF THE VERY BEST AT THE CEDAR.

This house never has had a better set of pictures than this lot. Those who miss them will miss a treat. The Tyrant Lord is one of the cleverest moving pictures ever presented. Percy Sayce sings Fare Thee Well, My Own Kentucky. Admission 5 cents.

A SPECTACULAR SHOW AT HAPPY HALF HOUR.

S. R. O. crowds enjoyed the new programme at the Happy Half Hour yesterday. Holmes and Buchanan sang The Butterfly and the Rose, a very catchy conversational duet from Fun-abash, and judging by the encores demanded the audience could not get enough of it. The pictures are splendid. The Foreman's Hatred is a powerful dramatic story and was generously applauded. The Hedgehog Coat and The Cheese Race are both comedy pictures and are very funny, particularly the latter, which kept the audience laughing from start to finish. Coast Towns of North Devon is a beautiful and interesting travel picture. The order of pictures are panorama of Bideford with views of river and shipping, a close view of the bridges in which there are no two arches alike, unique among the bridges of the world, the light railway to Lynton, a steamer ground on the coast, Barnstable bridge, light railway from Bideford to Westward Ho! Charles Kingsley's house at Clovelly, scenes on the beach, the street of steps, and many other quaint views. Last time for this show today. Prof. Titus sings What Might Have Been and Harry LeRoy sings The Girl of the Prairie, both late "hits."

"A WIFE'S SECRET" MADE A BIG HIT.

An unmistakable hit was made by the Selma company last night in "A Wife's Secret." The uncommon talent of Mr. Selman and the fidelity with which the rest of the cast delineated their roles made manifest before the first act was ended that this company is above the usual-artists of all of them. There must be no hesitation on the part of theatre goers in regard to the Selma company, the name is a pass word that will make happy evenings while their engagement lasts and brush away cob-webs which too often veil the merriment that should brighten the dullness of life. It is a drama with a moral, a carefully dealt with as it was last night's none of the charm was lost. Mr. Selman was excellent as John Madson, the minister. Bernetta Callahan, of 4, Brussels street was very pleasing and made a charming Marie Madson. Messrs. Townsend and Bryce scored splendid hits. Miss Du Bois took attention captive from the start, and the others who carrying the interesting plot its happy ending helped the illusion so successfully that it approached the real Dorothy Lee was screamingly funny as Dilsey Lee; Marianne French typified with unusual fidelity the character of Friedella. But why review all the cast when all were equally worthy of commendation? In short the whole company works harmoniously and attained success so deftly that the fall of the curtain left a feeling of delightful wonderment at being privileged at seeing dramatic work, so well done, and it is but rarely that St. John is treated to so good a feast as these players provide. The specialties between the acts are alone worth the price of admission. Tonight this thrilling melodrama will be repeated. This will also be offered at the Saturday Matinee as it is exceptionally attractive to women and children. If you did not see it you have missed one of the best melodramas of its kind. Secure seats now. Friday evening A Night Off a roaring farce comedy.

GAS FUMES GIVE THIS HOTEL GUEST BAD SCARE

Barbados Planter Blows Out the Gas in His Room and House is Aroused

A rather humorous story is told of a prominent Barbados planter who stopped at a leading city hotel. Tuesday night and whose ignorance of gas is a caution.

The gentleman in question turned on the gas early in the evening and later, after extinguishing it, went out for a walk. He returned about midnight and discovered that his room was full of gas. He became greatly alarmed and told his troubles to the clerk. On investigation it was found that the gentleman on extinguishing the gas had blown it out instead of turning it off. It took quite a time to convince him that nothing else was wrong, and he would not go asleep until he awoke the rest of his party and saw that they were not in the same predicament. He, however, felt a little easier when one of his lady friends, who was new to Barbados, gas, assured him that everything was all right. He went to sleep with the windows and doors of his room wide open.
