The organ recital in the presbyterian church last Friday evening was well attended and was listened to very attentively. The organ is a new one recently purchased and this the first time the public had of hearing it. Prof. Bristowe o Frederictor, gave several selections that were finely rendered and called forth many pleasant comments. There was singing by several ladies and gentlemen who usually sing at amateur, concerts, and the concert was unusually good in every respect.

NEWCASTLE.

JAN. 3,—The weather has been unusually severe for several days past, New Year's day being especially so. The day passed very quietly, the few who wentured out driving being torced to return home after a few rounds. It seems a pity that the lovely old custom of calling on New Year's has so entirely died out, and I think that if the "Lords of Creation" realized how their lasses friends appreciated the yearly visit, they would endeavour to make amends. As everything in the way of anti-

Creation" realized how their lasses friends appreciated the yearly visit, they would endeavour to make amends. As everything in the way of antiquity is in vogue, perhaps next year may see a reviral of this pretisets of all old customs.

On Friday evening a number of our young people had a pleasant seleighing party, leaving to we about half past seven o'clock and driving to the handsome residence of Mrs. Robert Loggle of Lorgieville. The party consisted of Mrs. Manny, Mrs. Charles Sarçeaut, Miss Slacistr. Miss Mainhead, Miss Aitken, Miss Slacistr. Miss Murhead, Miss Aitken, Miss Sargeaut, Æiss Layton, Miss Troy, Miss Jones, Miss Fish, and Messra. Harrison, Sargeaut, Aitken, Crocker, Wilson, Lyster, Mulrhead and Tweedle.

Mrs. Loggle's beautiful home was prettily arranged. The drawing rooms were thrown open for dancing, while numerous cosy nooks and corners were easyrly sought for by those who preferred sitting out. About twelve o'clock a dainty supper was served, shortly after which the party broke up all expressing themselves delighted with the charming evening the host and hostess had given them. Among the guests were Mrs. Frank Loggle of Loggleville and Miss Loggle of New York.

On Wednesday afternoon the "Opportunity circle of King's Daughters" held a Christmas tree and treat at the Mission hall to which forty children were invited. The tree was beautifully decorated and glistened and glittered and radiated joy and the magical spirit of Xmss. The tea-table was laden with all sorts of confections dear to children and there was not any doubt of their enjoyment of the bountiful repast. It was a great pleasure to see their happy faces, when the tree showered its bounty into their eager hands and the bright warm decrease shuffs medical spire mitted.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Allau Ritchie gave a very delightful little party to the young prople of the town it being for Masters Allan and tharold before their return to Rothesay. It was supposed to be a "donkey party," though dancing and games were among the amuse ments of the evening. There was much merriment while the poor old animal was being persecuted, but finally Miss Alice Burchill managed to pin the all in the proper place, thus winning the first p ise while Miss Bessie Ferguson came second. The consolation prize was most des-rvediy awarded to Master Roy Morrison. The dining room was very tastefully decorated with evergreens and house plants, and the young people did ample justice to the good things provided for them Among those present were, Misses Alice and Edith Burchill, Miss Ridred Fish, Miss Bessie Ferguson, Miss Anbrey Street, Miss Whit ck, Miss Kate Troy,
