Tenders will be received until Tuesday, the 20th day of September next, at noon, in the office of the Common Clerk, Room 5, City Hall, St. John, N. B. WM. MURDOCH, City Engineer. ADAM P. MACINTYRE, Comptroller.

GRAND TRUNK WILL BUILD NEW HOTEL

Vancouver, Sept. 19.—The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway has closed the deal for the purchase of a site for its hotel, the price paid being about $300,000, and will shortly begin the construction of a fireproof building to cost in the neighborhood of $750,000. The hotel is to be finished in about two years.

San Francisco, Sept. 19.—The Asiatic Exclusion League in a report embodying all communications with the State Department in Washington, yesterday criticized the local immigration bureau and insisted that steps be taken to check the influx of Orientals. The secretary will endeavor to ascertain the views of all political candidates upon exclusion.

Thousands of Votes For Candidates

Many Surprises Will be Sprung During This Week --Many Changes in Position Imminent-- Be Sure Your Name is Not One to be Left Behind

Continued from page 1. Now is the time to again see those friends who, early in the contest, came forward so quickly and aided you with the votes resulting from the six months' subscriptions; get them to complete the payment necessary to carry their subscriptions for a whole year, or, better yet, two years, and thereby secure credit for the remainder of votes that will complete the total given for the longer period. It would be well for some of the ladies to turn in what subscriptions they have received, or, at least, a portion of them, and secure in return the voting coupon which may be held indefinitely. The paper can be sent and the contestant may receive the benefit of the coupons which may be clipped therefrom.

A FEW DONTs. Don't talk; hustle. Don't tell everybody how many votes you have in reserve. Don't believe every fairy tale that you may hear. There are many such in motion. Don't neglect to keep busy. Don't imagine that each subscription that someone else gets will cause you to lose. Don't procrastinate, but work. Don't miss one person, as if he "does not" he "will" take The Standard or New Star. Don't get careless, but put in your votes as you get them—and there are many homes in New Brunswick that neither you nor any other candidate has visited. Get after each one. In short, WORK Keep your own counsel. Tell no one where you stand. "Say nothing, but saw wood." Don't miss the pleasure of being counted in on the finish.

SIDE LIGHTS. The big leaders do seem to have their eyes set on that beautiful "sparling" the beautiful diamond to be given as first prize, for it is a beauty.

CANDIDATES VOTE STANDING District No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9. Lists names and vote counts for various districts.

EVIDENCE IN CRIPPEN TRIAL

London, Sept. 19.—Something of what Ethel Clare LeNeve suffered as half mad with jealousy, she impatiently awaited the fulfillment of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen's promise to make her his wife, was revealed at today's session of the inquest into the death of Belle Elmore with the murder of whom the doctor and his typist are jointly charged. In her distress, Miss LeNeve confided in her landlady, Mrs. Jackson, and the story that the latter told on the witness stand rivalled the most sensational evidence introduced at the murder trial. Mrs. Jackson said that the accused girl gave up the room which she had occupied at the home of the witness on March 12, explaining that she was leaving to be married to Dr. Crippen. Until the first week in February, Miss LeNeve had slept regularly at Mrs. Jackson's. After that she stopped at the house only occasionally. She said that she spent the other nights at the homes of friends. On one occasion, Miss LeNeve mentioned having been at the Hill Drop Crescent home of the Crippens early in February, to help the doctor in a search for a bank book which showed an account of $1,000. She added that a diamond tiara and rings had been found in the house and that the doctor had raised $50 on these. About the middle of February, the witness said, Miss LeNeve appeared miserable and depressed. Such was her state that Mrs. Jackson followed the girl to her room to learn if possible the cause of her trouble. Miss LeNeve, the witness said, was in a terrific state of agitation. Her eyes seemed fairly starting out of her head. The landlady insisted on an explanation telling the girl that she must have something awful on her mind to be in such a condition. The witness testified that the other replied: "Would you be surprised if I told you that it was the doctor and Miss Elmore? He was the cause of my trouble when you first knew me. She is his wife and when I see them go away together it makes me realize my position; as to what she is and what I am." Mrs. Jackson asked: "What is the use of you worrying about another woman's husband?" To this Miss LeNeve answered: "Miss Elmore has been threatening to go away with another man. Dr. Crippen has been waiting for her to do so when he would divorce her." Solicitor Newton, who is looking out for the interests of Dr. Crippen and Miss LeNeve, closely cross-examined the witness suggested that her lodger's excitement was due to the landlady having resurrected a "trouble" which the girl experienced during her earlier association with Dr. Crippen but the witness maintained the correctness of her evidence as given.

Austrian Women Evening Gowns

Through a decree of the Minister of Public Works opening the state trade and technical schools to both sexes alike, Austrian women will enjoy a greatly enlarged choice of occupations. Among the chief new trades and industries which they can now enter upon are artistic leather work and bookbinding, photography, watchmaking, engraving, ornamental woodworking, as well as some branches of the electrical and chemical trades. Hitherto women have been rigidly excluded from these trade schools and those who desired to obtain such training were compelled either to go abroad or else attend expensive private institutions at home. But while the women are rejoicing at the new opportunities of work afforded them, their male relatives do not share their enthusiasm, pointing out that even under the old conditions of every 1000 wage-earners in Austria 430 were women.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Now is the time to think of the new evening gown that must be made for the coming season. Here are a few things that Paris tells us: The best materials are to be brocades, gold and silver threaded, and velvet brocaded chiffons with a high raised figure; brocaded satins and plain-colored marquisette and chiffons. It is to be a "stiff" season in one sense at least; we have nearly got back to "the dress that stood alone" of which our grandmothers were so proud. The waist lines are higher than normal, and every gown has a sash or girde of some sort. These sashes are edged with fringing or trimmed with laced embroidery in cut steel, gold, silver or jet beads, very small in size. Colored and white rubber beads are also permissible. Sleeves are all short, they are wide in bell or kimono shape, to match the peasant cut, so popular for the house.

"Ideal" Metal Bed beauty is much more than surface-deep. The smooth, glossy, snowy finish lasts. It keeps its looks in the home; not merely looks pretty in the store. Thus "Ideal" Metal Beds do not become shabby; they wear well; and you get far more satisfaction for the price you pay than you could from an ordinary bedstead.

Pay as little as three dollars, or much more, for your "Ideal" Metal Bed; and whatever you do pay, you buy identical quality. There is but one grade of "Ideal" excellence. That is why we guarantee every "Ideal" Metal Bed. You will find the Guarantee label on the footrail. Look for it. It is worth your while to look for it. So it is to send for "The Philosophy of Sleep," an attractive little book that is mailed free if you ask for Booklet No. 155. THE IDEAL BEDDING CO. LIMITED MONTREAL - TORONTO - WINNIPEG

TWO GATHERINGS IN KINGS COUNTY

Agricultural Society Will Hold Fair at Hampton Oct. 11th and 12th—S. S. Convention at Havelock Next Week.

Hampton, Sept. 19.—The Hampton and Central North Agricultural Society will hold a fair and exhibition in agricultural hall, and adjacent grounds on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 11th and 12th for which they have sent out the prize catalogues. The exhibits cover ten classes, including cattle, horses, sheep, swine, poultry, horticulture, agricultural products, woolen goods, fancy work and miscellaneous. The annual convention of the Kings Co. Sunday school association will be held this year with the Baptist church, at Havelock, on Tuesday and Wednesday, of next week, Sept. 27th and 28th. There will be four sessions, the first on Tuesday evening at 7.30, when besides a devotional service led by the Rev. J. B. Ganong, the various committees will be appointed and an address delivered by the field secretary. On Wednesday morning devotions will be led by John Branscombe and reports from parish secretaries and superintendents of departments will be read and discussed. The afternoon session will be opened by the Rev. J. M. Dawson and the report of the county secretary and treasurer will be presented. An address on the organized class will also be delivered by Gordon Mills and a model Sunday school arranged by the Rev. J. B. Ganong. The closing session on Wednesday evening will be led by the Rev. H. H. Saunders, the reports of nominating committees will be presented for action and addresses delivered by the Rev. Geo. Farquhar, and Rev. J. L. Dawson, the former on The Work of the Sabbath School, and the latter on The Scholar as an Individual. Appropriate music will be furnished at each session.
