VICTORY LOAN IS BOOMING; MADAWASKA AFTER THE GUN

Chairman Stevens Not Satisfied With Establishing Record of Being First District Over the Top—St. John Coming Along in Fine Shape—Whirlwind Canvass Tomorrow and Mass Meeting in Evening.

Edmonton, N. B., Nov. 8, 1919.

T. H. Estabrooks, Chairman, Provincial Victory Loan Committee, St. John, N. B.

Re German Field Gun Trophy Madawaska County defies all competition. It flew over the top on Thursday in a Molaughin Buick automobile with G. Fred Dayton in charge, hatless, hungry and going strong. Its active canvassers are racing around like aeroplanes, perambulating over the country at record speed in search for the gun, and stopping only for Victory Bonds, large or small, and getting them too, and the best is yet to come. We hear the employees of Fraser Companies Limited have set their objective at $10,000, and are planning an agreeable surprise for us. Madawaska County issues a most cordial invitation to the Chairman, Captains, Canvassers and Committee men, with their wives and sweethearts from all other Counties, to come and witness the dedication ceremonies. Supt. Atkinson of the C. O. R. will arrange excursion rates to meet points with hasn't slept for a week, but he sets a lot. In future, you will please write MADAWASKA on the Provincial map in capital letters.

J. M. STEVENS, Chairman Victory Loan, 1919.

The above telegram was received by Chairman Estabrooks yesterday morning and shows that Madawaska is not satisfied with establishing the record of being the first provincial district over the top in the 1919 Victory Loan campaign, but is going to make every other place hustle if they want to get the German gun trophy.

St. John, however, is coming along in the style and should make its objective early this week, with quite a surplus to the credit of the coveted German gun. Up to Friday night the subscriptions received amounted to $2,018,550 and this did not include a majority of the excellent sums promised at the great rally in the Union Club Armistice day will be fittingly celebrated tomorrow, by a whirlwind canvass on the part of the $10,000 club, with Chairman Robinson in the lead; and in the evening Chairman Schofield has arranged for a monster mass meeting in the Imperial Theatre, starting at nine o'clock. The Great War Veterans' Band will be in attendance and besides Lieut. Governor Pugsley and Mayor Hayes several other important speakers have been invited from outside localities to address the meeting. All classes will be represented on the platform and it is expected that the theatre will be filled to capacity.

It is suggested, both in honor of the momentous day, and for the success of the present drive, which will in part make a return to the war veterans for the glorious peace they have won, that all homes and places of business will fly their flags and bunting to the breeze.

Honor Flags Won

Up to Friday night, honor flags have been won by Madawaska, the first county flag; Dufferin, a parish flag with one crest; Beauséjour, Harcourt, Sag with four crests; Shefford, Repulseville, Coverdale, Sag and three crests; Plaster Rock, Sag and two

SPECIAL SERVICE HELD YESTERDAY

Opening of Winter's Work of Young Men's Association of Germain Street Baptist Church—An Interesting Programme.

Special services were held at Centenary Church yesterday both morning and evening in observance of the 50th anniversary. The music was of a special character and anthems being sung at both services.

The preacher was the Rev. W. H. Barralough, B. A., of the Central Methodist Church, Moncton, formerly pastor of Centenary. An address was given in the afternoon to the teachers and scholars of the Sunday School by Mr. Barralough.

The text of the evening sermon was taken from St. Matthew's Gospel, Chapter Sixteen, verse eighteen: "Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it," and the preacher pointed out that these reassuring words are needed in the time of sorrow in which we are living. It is our inconquerable faith that the Church which has braved all storms will stand until the end. The basis of hope for the future is the organized church as we know it truly representing God as we know Him and carrying on His work.

The popular criticism made is that the church has failed. In a sense the church has failed in that it could not prevent the war and has not saved the world but neither could any other organization prevent war and no other organization has saved the world.

The failure consists in not being able to complete the programme which is to bring the world to the knowledge of God. There are dangerous foes in our own household and every step ahead is judged upon by circumstances. The indifference and lack of enthusiasm of those who should have supported the great project of world regeneration, if certain gates of Hell are trying to prevail against the Church her friends should rally to her support and help to rebuild the walls of Zion.

There are men who live in the great past and are impatient of those who are progressive and would go forward with new methods. The whole organization of the Church is after all an imperfect thing and soon after its foundation was the subject of the arraignment made in the message to the Rev. Churches in Revelations. It has, however, moved to the world come, quest because of its vital foundation, upon the principles of truth, devotion and self-sacrifice. So long as we live up to these eternal principles the gates of Hell cannot prevail.

The Church truly represents Christ's programme. If it does not measure up to that standard, let us endeavor to measure up and make this our great task. The Church means you and I and Jesus. There can be no blame laid on the Servant if the Church has

Bad Railway Wreck Happened Sunday

Locomotive and Two Cars of Grain Left Rails on Courtenay Bay Loop—One Car Nearly Plunged Over the Bank—Wreck Being Cleared.

A bad railway wreck occurred yesterday afternoon on the Canadian National Railways line near the foot of Clarence street, as it is a miracle that Driver Michael Howard and his fireman were not injured.

The large shunting engine No. 45, with Driver Howard at the throttle, was hauling a train of twenty-six cars of grain from the main line round the Courtenay Bay loop to the Ballast wharf, the grain being consigned to the C. N. R. elevator at Reed's Point. To assist 558 another shunter, #22, at the rear of the train. It was about 4:30 o'clock and the heavy train was making good headway; it just passed the Clarence street crossing, which is nearly opposite the York (Gorton Mill) at Courtenay Bay when Driver Howard felt a jar, and looking back saw a box car with grain next to the engine toppling. He immediately applied the brakes and about the same time the car toppled over on its side. The engine tender was slowed down and the train was stopped on the right side driving wheels sunk so deeply in the road bed as the side of the track that the engine went over at an angle of about forty-five degrees. The driver and fireman jumped to safety. The car that toppled over left its trucks on the torn up track, and when it stopped about a third of it was left hanging over the embankment. The car next jumped the rails while the rest of the train remained on the rails.

The news of the accident spread quickly and there was soon a great crowd of people on the scene, while a number of people who resided near the wharf and the Ballast wharf, a large quantity of grain that poured from the side of the overturned car.

A gang of men was put to work last evening clearing the track, and with the assistance of a large crane it is expected that some time today the overturned car will be lifted on the side and the road will be cleared again. Until this work is completed freight cannot be taken to the elevator or ships at the Ballast wharf, or other docks in that vicinity.

It is thought the accident was caused by a broken rail.
