

Society

Sackville

Sackville, Aug. 13.—Mr. Wilfred Smith of the Royal Bank staff, St. John, is spending his vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Smith.

Hostesses at the golf tea on Saturday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bennett and Mrs. Walker.

Miss Greta Ogden who is doing vocational work in Fredericton, is spending her vacation in town guest of friends.

Miss Margaret Weldon leaves this week for Springfield, N. B., where she will be the guest of her friend, Miss McLean.

Mrs. Laura Fawcett, Mrs. S. A. Green and son, Karl, of Boston, Mass., are visiting in town, guests of Mrs. L. W. Daman.

Mrs. Geo. E. Ford is visiting at Cape Tormentine guest of Mrs. C. W. Fawcett.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Campbell and family have returned from a motor trip through the Annapolis Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin of Truro were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner.

Mr. Charles Stewart of Dalhousie is visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Woodworth.

Capt. and Mrs. Hanson, Miss Alice Hanson and Miss Ivy Richardson, spent the week-end at Barachois.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bell and family of Moncton spent Monday in town, guests of friends.

Mrs. G. Bliss Sears and Miss Annie Wheaton of Moncton are spending some time at the Seaside Hotel, Cape Tormentine.

Mrs. Fillmore of the Staff of the Kentville Sanatorium is spending her holidays in Sackville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ross of Quebec, were in Sackville the last of the week. Mrs. Ross is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Tait of Shediac.

Mrs. R. A. Borden and Miss Borden of Moncton are visiting in town, guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Borden.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Woollett and son George, who have been visiting friends at Port Elgin, left Saturday for their home in Toronto.

Miss Edith Plimore and Miss Lila Dobson leave Saturday on a two-weeks' vacation up the St. John river.

Mrs. Ford McCready is visiting relatives at Point de Bute.

Mrs. Carter of Amherst, is visiting in town, guest of Mrs. Mariner Hicks, Squire street.

Mrs. R. D. Innes entertained a number of the younger children at a very delightful birthday party in honor of her daughter, Betty.

A large number of Sackville people attended the garden party which was held last Thursday afternoon on the grounds of Walter J. Allison, Bale Verts by the ladies of the Episcopal church. A dainty supper was served from 5 to 8 o'clock, and was well patronized. There were numerous attractions on the grounds all of which invited a good deal of attention and were much enjoyed. The net receipts amounted to $160.

Mrs. Dove and daughter of Toronto and Mrs. Talbot-Croby of Yorktown, Sask., who have been here on a visit to their parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Morton, left Saturday enroute to their respective homes.

Mrs. Beveridge, of Dryden, Ont., and Mrs. Moir of Vancouver, who are spending the summer at the home of their parents, Col. and Mrs. Bedford Harper, went to Campbellton on Thursday for a short visit.

Mrs. James Young of Somerville, Mass., is visiting in Sackville, guest of her sister, Mrs. F. A. Dixon.

Miss Eleanor Wood, of Wolfville, N. S., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. Fred Avar.

Mrs. A. H. Lamy who has been visiting her father, Mr. Alex. Ford at Cape Tormentine, has returned to her home in Amherst.

Mr. Sherman, Dobson of Moncton spent the week-end at his home here.

Mr. Earl D. MacPhos, M. A., who recently graduated from Edinburgh University, Scotland, spent a short time with friends in town on Monday. He left for his home in Tryon, P. E. Island, to spend a few weeks. Mr. MacPhos is engaged as teacher of psychology at Acadia College for the coming year.

Miss Martha Davis, left on Monday for Biggar, Sask., where she has accepted a lucrative position as principal of the school there.

Miss Myra Freeman of Amherst, and Miss Marjorie Hoeg, of Cambridge Mass., spent a few days here last week, with their cousin, Miss Hazel Tingler.

Miss Georgina Trenholm, R. N., of Cambridge, Mass., who has been visiting friends in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, returned to her home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Oedergreen and little daughter, Dorothy, of Brockton, Mass., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Oedergreen's mother, Mrs. J. Frank Phinney.

Mr. W. A. Gass returned Tuesday from an auto trip to Black's Harbor, N. B. Mr. Roy Gass who has been in Sackville on a short visit, returned to Black's Harbor with his father.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowser, Mr. and Mrs. G. MacMillan and Mrs. Sands, arrived in Sackville last week on a motor trip from Boston. They expect to make the return trip in a few days via Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cadman of Sunny Brook, N. B., announce the engagement of their daughter, Nell Avar, to Mr. Harlow T. Judson, of Phoenix, Arizona. The wedding to take place early in September.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dryden, were in town Friday and Saturday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre. They were on a return motor trip to St. John and Sussex.

Rev. W. M. Ryan, pastor of the Sackville Methodist church, is spending part of his vacation at the summer school, Northfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ehrhardt and children of North Sydney, N. S., are here on a visit to the former's father Mr. T. R. Ehrhardt.

Mrs. Thomas Lund and little daughter, Dorothy, who have been visiting friends and relatives in Sackville and Silver Hebert, left Saturday for their home in Norwood, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ehrhardt and children of North Sydney, N. S., are here on a visit to the former's father Mr. T. R. Ehrhardt.

Mrs. Thomas Lund and little daughter, Dorothy, who have been visiting friends and relatives in Sackville and Silver Hebert, left Saturday for their home in Norwood, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ehrhardt and children of North Sydney, N. S., are here on a visit to the former's father Mr. T. R. Ehrhardt.

Mrs. Thomas Lund and little daughter, Dorothy, who have been visiting friends and relatives in Sackville and Silver Hebert, left Saturday for their home in Norwood, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ehrhardt and children of North Sydney, N. S., are here on a visit to the former's father Mr. T. R. Ehrhardt.

Mrs. Thomas Lund and little daughter, Dorothy, who have been visiting friends and relatives in Sackville and Silver Hebert, left Saturday for their home in Norwood, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ehrhardt and children of North Sydney, N. S., are here on a visit to the former's father Mr. T. R. Ehrhardt.

Mrs. Thomas Lund and little daughter, Dorothy, who have been visiting friends and relatives in Sackville and Silver Hebert, left Saturday for their home in Norwood, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ehrhardt and children of North Sydney, N. S., are here on a visit to the former's father Mr. T. R. Ehrhardt.

Mrs. Thomas Lund and little daughter, Dorothy, who have been visiting friends and relatives in Sackville and Silver Hebert, left Saturday for their home in Norwood, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ehrhardt and children of North Sydney, N. S., are here on a visit to the former's father Mr. T. R. Ehrhardt.

Mrs. Thomas Lund and little daughter, Dorothy, who have been visiting friends and relatives in Sackville and Silver Hebert, left Saturday for their home in Norwood, Mass.

St. George

St. George, Aug. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. L. Ralph Sherman arrived here from Toronto on Saturday and will spend a few weeks at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Abigail Gillmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brine and two children returned on Monday after a very pleasant visit with relatives in Boston.

Mrs. Albert K. Stearns of Houston, Me., is spending a few days at the Victoria.

Miss Nellie Murray has concluded a visit and returned to Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. Nellie Murray and Miss Curran Lynch were in Sackville last week to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. James P. Dunn.

Miss Jane and Edith Feeney and Mr. Beverly Feeney arrived from Boston on Thursday to spend a few weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Feeney.

Reverend and Mrs. H. E. DeWolfe and two children left on Tuesday for Margaretville, N. S., where they will remain until the first week in September, the guests of her mother, Mrs. J. J. McIntyre.

Miss Rebecca Dewar is visiting relatives in Milltown.

Mr. John McRae of Rolling Dam, is visiting at the home of his daughter, Almeda McLeod.

Miss Laura Kirkpatrick of Milltown, is the guest of Mrs. James Gray.

Mr. Hazen Alexander of Fredericton Junction, is spending a few weeks at the home of his uncle, Dr. C. C. Alexander.

Mrs. Arthur W. Stewart was a recent visitor to the Border Towns.

Miss Margaret Duffy left on Monday to spend a couple of weeks with friends in Bowdoin, Maine.

Miss Annie Brown arrived home from St. John last week to spend a vacation.

Mrs. R. A. Cross recently returned from St. John.

Mrs. J. N. Weimore of St. George, is visiting at the home of Mrs. John G. Leonard.

Mr. W. Davies Gilmore arrived from Montreal this week to spend several weeks.

At the regular meeting of the Town Council on Monday evening, Aldermen James Watt and Hector McKenzie were appointed reeve for the town of St. George for the ensuing year.

Mr. James Bogue has concluded a fortnight's vacation and returned to work on Wednesday.

Mrs. Joseph A. Jackson of St. John, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Samuel Dods.

Addresses in behalf of the Maritime Home for Girls were delivered on Sunday, 8th inst., by the Rev. V. M. Purdy in the St. George Baptist Church at 11 a. m. in Bocabec Presbyterian Church at 3 p. m. and St. George Presbyterian Church at 7 p. m.

During the week Mr. Purdy solicited subscriptions in St. George and vicinity and met with great success.

After a short illness Mrs. John MacPhos passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Fisher, Bocabec, on Thursday, 5th inst., at the age of 87 years. Funeral services were conducted at the house by Rev. J. C. Mortimer, after which the body was taken to Rolling Dam for interment.

Reverend and Mrs. H. T. Lynds and daughter, Dorothy, arrived here from Bradford, Penn., on Monday evening to spend a vacation.

Mrs. Flood and daughter of St. John, are guests of Mrs. A. J. O'Connor at the Victoria.

Mrs. Clotilda Hickey of Waverly, Mass., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. O. V. Kennedy.

Miss Phoebe Moran is spending a week in Back Bay with friends.

Mr. Henry Klutz and sister, Mrs. A. C. Jordan, returned to Boston on Wednesday.

Mr. Vernon McAdam of Montreal, is spending a vacation at the home of his mother, Mrs. Wm. McPeters.

Mr. Archibald Graham leaves on Thursday for the harvest fields.

Miss Jessie Dewar of Milltown, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Eliza Dewar.

Monday was the hottest day of the season, the mercury rising to 95 in the shade. Two cases of prostration in St. George are recorded.

The St. George Roman Catholic Sunday School held a picnic to Anderson's Beach on Monday afternoon. The children met at the church at 1 o'clock, where hayracks were provided for their conveyance to the beach. The usual games and races were held, prizes being won by Edward Hennessey, 1 pound box of chocolates; Sherman Murphy, 1-2 pound box of chocolates; Miss Alice McCarty, canteen; Miss Annie O'Halloran, book; and little Miss Mary O'Malley, "Alice in Wonderland," story book. The children enjoyed bathing on the beach before the lunch was served. For the kiddies it was the event of the season and they are eagerly looking forward to another next year.

Sch. Frederick H. sailed on Wednesday for Norway.

Miss Winifred Fullerton has concluded a very pleasant visit at the home of Mrs. Wm. McPeters and returned to Amherst.

Mr. Joseph Gillespie, who has been relieving Mr. James Rague at the C. P. R. Station, returned to his home in Madras today.

Goose Fannie Spear is visiting at the home of Mrs. W. B. Newman on Partridge Island, St. John.

Sch. Frederick H. sailed on Wednesday for Norway.

Miss Winifred Fullerton has concluded a very pleasant visit at the home of Mrs. Wm. McPeters and returned to Amherst.

Mr. Joseph Gillespie, who has been relieving Mr. James Rague at the C. P. R. Station, returned to his home in Madras today.

Goose Fannie Spear is visiting at the home of Mrs. W. B. Newman on Partridge Island, St. John.

Sch. Frederick H. sailed on Wednesday for Norway.

Miss Winifred Fullerton has concluded a very pleasant visit at the home of Mrs. Wm. McPeters and returned to Amherst.

Mr. Joseph Gillespie, who has been relieving Mr. James Rague at the C. P. R. Station, returned to his home in Madras today.

Goose Fannie Spear is visiting at the home of Mrs. W. B. Newman on Partridge Island, St. John.

Sch. Frederick H. sailed on Wednesday for Norway.

Miss Winifred Fullerton has concluded a very pleasant visit at the home of Mrs. Wm. McPeters and returned to Amherst.

Mr. Joseph Gillespie, who has been relieving Mr. James Rague at the C. P. R. Station, returned to his home in Madras today.

Goose Fannie Spear is visiting at the home of Mrs. W. B. Newman on Partridge Island, St. John.

Sch. Frederick H. sailed on Wednesday for Norway.

Miss Winifred Fullerton has concluded a very pleasant visit at the home of Mrs. Wm. McPeters and returned to Amherst.

Mr. Joseph Gillespie, who has been relieving Mr. James Rague at the C. P. R. Station, returned to his home in Madras today.

Goose Fannie Spear is visiting at the home of Mrs. W. B. Newman on Partridge Island, St. John.

Sch. Frederick H. sailed on Wednesday for Norway.

Shediac

Shediac, N. B., Aug. 12.—Beautiful weather, fine and warm with a few showers of late has been the order of the day, at the season, for some weeks and the summer has been a delightful one, for the many strangers within our gates, and at the popular resorts in the vicinity.

Hundreds of Monctonians are availing themselves of the opportunity of taking the Sunday train, which arrive at Point du Chene early in the afternoon and returns to the city about 8 p. m. The visiting guests in town and the shore places in the vicinity. Guests came from Moncton, Sackville and Dorchester to be present on those pleasant occasions. A charming dance was held during the week, when the hostesses were Mrs. Robert Jardine and Mrs. E. A. Smith, Bellevue.

The event took place at Mrs. Smith's home, number of those present being from the American yacht, "Navigator," now in port. A program of splendid music was rendered by two of our own talented young musicians, Messrs. C. Doherty and Orel Bourque, who played their respective parts on the piano and violin.

Mrs. G. N. Pearson left town Wednesday to spend a short time in Moncton, before her return to Sussex.

While here, Mrs. Pearson was the guest of Mrs. H. W. Murray, Bellevue. In honor of her visitor, Mrs. Murray gave a delightful picnic to a few friends who were conveyed to their destination at Cape Brule, by Mr. O. P. Wilbur in his pleasure motor yacht, the Unity.

Mr. Albert Murray, Moncton, after some time spent on P. E. Island, has been a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. Dr. Sornay.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner, following a visit to Mr. and Mrs. De Pasturel, have returned to Boston.

L'Assomption Band favored the citizens to an out-door performance in front of the Weldon, on Monday evening. The music was much appreciated.

Among many people to occupy their summer homes, this season, are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hannah and Prof. and Mrs. Ross, Moncton, who are living on Gallagher Avenue.

Mrs. Gould, Sussex; and Mrs. H. H. Reid, Sussex, are spending a few weeks at Shediac Cape.

Some of the guests at the Weldon, include Mrs. Orlington and Miss McAffee, Woodstock and Mrs. Hasen Adair and family of Sussex.

Miss Allice Bourque is the guest of her uncle, Dr. Alphonse Bourque, West Sussex.

Miss Margaret Belliveau is the guest of friends in Madras, Mass.

Our citizens are welcoming to our midst, Mr. Maurice O'Connor, a former very popular young resident of the town, who enlisted for overseas duty early in the war. Since the armistice Mr. O'Connor has been taking a medical course in London and he has come back to see his old friends here on a months' vacation.

Numerous dances have taken place in honor of the younger element of the town and their guests in town and at the shore places in the vicinity. Guests came from Moncton, Sackville and Dorchester to be present on those pleasant occasions. A charming dance was held during the week, when the hostesses were Mrs. Robert Jardine and Mrs. E. A. Smith, Bellevue.

The event took place at Mrs. Smith's home, number of those present being from the American yacht, "Navigator," now in port. A program of splendid music was rendered by two of our own talented young musicians, Messrs. C. Doherty and Orel Bourque, who played their respective parts on the piano and violin.

Mrs. G. N. Pearson left town Wednesday to spend a short time in Moncton, before her return to Sussex.

While here, Mrs. Pearson was the guest of Mrs. H. W. Murray, Bellevue. In honor of her visitor, Mrs. Murray gave a delightful picnic to a few friends who were conveyed to their destination at Cape Brule, by Mr. O. P. Wilbur in his pleasure motor yacht, the Unity.

Mr. Albert Murray, Moncton, after some time spent on P. E. Island, has been a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. Dr. Sornay.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner, following a visit to Mr. and Mrs. De Pasturel, have returned to Boston.

L'Assomption Band favored the citizens to an out-door performance in front of the Weldon, on Monday evening. The music was much appreciated.

Among many people to occupy their summer homes, this season, are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hannah and Prof. and Mrs. Ross, Moncton, who are living on Gallagher Avenue.

Mrs. Gould, Sussex; and Mrs. H. H. Reid, Sussex, are spending a few weeks at Shediac Cape.

Some of the guests at the Weldon, include Mrs. Orlington and Miss McAffee, Woodstock and Mrs. Hasen Adair and family of Sussex.

Miss Allice Bourque is the guest of her uncle, Dr. Alphonse Bourque, West Sussex.

Miss Margaret Belliveau is the guest of friends in Madras, Mass.

Our citizens are welcoming to our midst, Mr. Maurice O'Connor, a former very popular young resident of the town, who enlisted for overseas duty early in the war. Since the armistice Mr. O'Connor has been taking a medical course in London and he has come back to see his old friends here on a months' vacation.

Numerous dances have taken place in honor of the younger element of the town and their guests in town and at the shore places in the vicinity. Guests came from Moncton, Sackville and Dorchester to be present on those pleasant occasions. A charming dance was held during the week, when the hostesses were Mrs. Robert Jardine and Mrs. E. A. Smith, Bellevue.

The event took place at Mrs. Smith's home, number of those present being from the American yacht, "Navigator," now in port. A program of splendid music was rendered by two of our own talented young musicians, Messrs. C. Doherty and Orel Bourque, who played their respective parts on the piano and violin.

Mrs. G. N. Pearson left town Wednesday to spend a short time in Moncton, before her return to Sussex.

While here, Mrs. Pearson was the guest of Mrs. H. W. Murray, Bellevue. In honor of her visitor, Mrs. Murray gave a delightful picnic to a few friends who were conveyed to their destination at Cape Brule, by Mr. O. P. Wilbur in his pleasure motor yacht, the Unity.

Mr. Albert Murray, Moncton, after some time spent on P. E. Island, has been a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. Dr. Sornay.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner, following a visit to Mr. and Mrs. De Pasturel, have returned to Boston.

L'Assomption Band favored the citizens to an out-door performance in front of the Weldon, on Monday evening. The music was much appreciated.

Among many people to occupy their summer homes, this season, are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hannah and Prof. and Mrs. Ross, Moncton, who are living on Gallagher Avenue.

Mrs. Gould, Sussex; and Mrs. H. H. Reid, Sussex, are spending a few weeks at Shediac Cape.

Some of the guests at the Weldon, include Mrs. Orlington and Miss McAffee, Woodstock and Mrs. Hasen Adair and family of Sussex.

Miss Allice Bourque is the guest of her uncle, Dr. Alphonse Bourque, West Sussex.

Miss Margaret Belliveau is the guest of friends in Madras, Mass.

Our citizens are welcoming to our midst, Mr. Maurice O'Connor, a former very popular young resident of the town, who enlisted for overseas duty early in the war. Since the armistice Mr. O'Connor has been taking a medical course in London and he has come back to see his old friends here on a months' vacation.

Numerous dances have taken place in honor of the younger element of the town and their guests in town and at the shore places in the vicinity. Guests came from Moncton, Sackville and Dorchester to be present on those pleasant occasions. A charming dance was held during the week, when the hostesses were Mrs. Robert Jardine and Mrs. E. A. Smith, Bellevue.

The event took place at Mrs. Smith's home, number of those present being from the American yacht, "Navigator," now in port. A program of splendid music was rendered by two of our own talented young musicians, Messrs. C. Doherty and Orel Bourque, who played their respective parts on the piano and violin.

Mrs. G. N. Pearson left town Wednesday to spend a short time in Moncton, before her return to Sussex.

While here, Mrs. Pearson was the guest of Mrs. H. W. Murray, Bellevue. In honor of her visitor, Mrs. Murray gave a delightful picnic to a few friends who were conveyed to their destination at Cape Brule, by Mr. O. P. Wilbur in his pleasure motor yacht, the Unity.

Mr. Albert Murray, Moncton, after some time spent on P. E. Island, has been a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. Dr. Sornay.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner, following a visit to Mr. and Mrs. De Pasturel, have returned to Boston.

L'Assomption Band favored the citizens to an out-door performance in front of the Weldon, on Monday evening. The music was much appreciated.

Among many people to occupy their summer homes, this season, are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hannah and Prof. and Mrs. Ross, Moncton, who are living on Gallagher Avenue.

Mrs. Gould, Sussex; and Mrs. H. H. Reid, Sussex, are spending a few weeks at Shediac Cape.

Some of the guests at the Weldon, include Mrs. Orlington and Miss McAffee, Woodstock and Mrs. Hasen Adair and family of Sussex.

Miss Allice Bourque is the guest of her uncle, Dr. Alphonse Bourque, West Sussex.

Miss Margaret Belliveau is the guest of friends in Madras, Mass.

Our citizens are welcoming to our midst, Mr. Maurice O'Connor, a former very popular young resident of the town, who enlisted for overseas duty early in the war. Since the armistice Mr. O'Connor has been taking a medical course in London and he has come back to see his old friends here on a months' vacation.

Numerous dances have taken place in honor of the younger element of the town and their guests in town and at the shore places in the vicinity. Guests came from Moncton, Sackville and Dorchester to be present on those pleasant occasions. A charming dance was held during the week, when the hostesses were Mrs. Robert Jardine and Mrs. E. A. Smith, Bellevue.

Alma

Alma, Aug. 11.—The regular meeting of the local G. W. V. A. was held here on Monday evening. Six new members were initiated and many interesting items of business were discussed. A warm welcome was accorded an announcement from Comrade Dr. E. Rommel, saying that he would give the members of the branch and their families a 25 per cent. reduction on all medical fees. In reply to a vote of thanks tendered him, the doctor said that he was very anxious to make the local branch a success, and that he was glad to be in a position to render the members this service. A cordial invitation was extended to the ladies of the village to organize a Ladies Auxiliary in connection with the G. W. V. A. and the hearty co-operation of the branch was offered for this purpose.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Conner were the recipients of many useful articles of tinware on the occasion of their 5th wedding anniversary. After the guests had rendered a variety of instrumental selections on their "tin band" refreshments were served and all spent a very enjoyable evening.

Whilst working in a saw mill on Tuesday afternoon James Butland, an employee of Chas. T. White & Son, Ltd., met with a very painful accident. Whilst guiding a slab to the saw his hand came into contact with the saw partly severing the thumb and badly cutting the hand. Fortunately a doctor was available and complications were thereby prevented.

Another painful accident occurred on Tuesday afternoon, when Teilmann Kenada whilst helping to load a ship with lumber, was struck on the foot by a plank falling from a sling resulting in a badly crushed foot.

CASTORIA