

Failed To Deposit And Went To Jail

Thomas Ramsay Had Liquor
in Possession — Dispute
Over a Dog

Thomas Ramsay pleaded not guilty in the police court yesterday afternoon to the charge of having liquor in his possession other than in his private dwelling. He requested time to secure counsel and the case was postponed to this morning. Failing the required deposit of $500, the defendant was remanded to jail.

A case arising from a dispute over the ownership of a dog in which the principals, was postponed to Tuesday at 11 o'clock. The "thousand witnesses" who were to prove one of the parties' claim to the dog did not materialize at yesterday's hearing.

Pat Daley, "A native of Denmark," was before the court for being drunk and having liquor in his possession. He was fined $300 or eight months in jail, and remanded.

John A. Simmonds was fined $50 for driving over the bridge at the reversing falls at a speed in excess of that allowed by the law. The carmaker, Samuel Shanker, stated Mr. Simmonds' car went across the bridge at a speed of twenty-five miles an hour. The limit allowed by law is six miles per hour.

Dr. Robert Pendergich, an internist at the General Public Hospital, Sergeant Detective Powers, and Detective Bidgescombe, gave evidence in the case of Daniel Sullivan charged with a serious offense against a fifteen year old girl. The accused was sent up for trial.

$6,666 Fee For Collecting $20,000

Lawyer Says This is Quite Reasonable—Average Earnings $1,000 Per Day.

New York, June 24.—One-third the total amount collected for a client is not an exorbitant fee, according to Max D. Steiner, a trial lawyer, in an affidavit submitted to Supreme Court Justice Whitaker, which states that for several years "my services have commanded a very high compensation, or an average of $1,000 a day for 300 days a year."

The court heard the application of Mrs. Amelia Hamburger, widow of Louis J. Hamburger, to compel Mr. Steiner to return two notes, each for $10,000 of the Coastwise Lumber and Supply Company on the ground that he is unlawfully withholding them and claiming $6,666 for services not worth more than $2,500.

Mrs. Hamburger said she engaged

ROTARIANS IN LONDON

Their Majesties and the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary shook hands with the visitors and expressed pleasure on meeting them.

Today's programme for the Rotarians included a garden party given by the government at Hampton Court Palace this afternoon. All visiting Rotarians were invited and elaborate arrangements were made for their entertainment.

HALF MILLION DOLLAR FIRE. Dundee, June 24.—A large warehouse was burned here last night, the damage being estimated at about $500,000.

Mr. Steiner to collect commissions and profits due to her husband's estate from the lumber company, and Mr. Steiner said nothing about the amount of his fee until a few days before the trial, when he told her he would expect to get one-third of what she recovered. Previously, she said, Mr. Steiner told her he would charge a "reasonable" fee, because her husband left only the claim against the Coastwise Lumber and Supply Company and $5,000 life insurance for the support of her and three children.

Cement Sidewalk At Sussex Corner

Will Connect Two Centres—
Over Half-Mile Long —
Cost $2,000.

Owing to the commendable enterprise of the residents of Sussex Corner and the liberal-hearted generosity of the citizens of the town of Sussex itself, a fine cement sidewalk will soon connect the two centres. The new walk will be over a half mile long, and is to cost upwards of $2,000. Over 600 feet of it has already been laid, and a sum of $1,300 has been raised for the work.

The women of Sussex Corner have been prime movers in the enterprise, and through their industrious efforts raised $150 with a pie social, and have hopes of adding to the sum by means of a supper they intend holding next Tuesday. In addition to the good work of the women, a number of liberal donations have been received and the citizens of Sussex town have been most generous in contributing to the fund.

ESSEX

Do You Buy a Motor Car "Sight Unseen?"

You see the vital aspect of a car only by the way long, hard service affects it.

Will it become loose and noisy? Grow wasteful of oil and fuel? Lose efficiency? Require replacements, frequent repairs and adjustments?

Or will it remain free of these disabilities?

There is a Simple Way to Tell

Not by a mere salesroom examination. That cannot show the differences which make some cars continue to serve reliably and economically for years. It cannot show superiorities of mechanical design, nor the painstaking workmanship on details that in all likelihood you will never see.

And even a demonstration tells nothing of how a car will wear in steady service. But it is easy to find and examine the real proofs:

What have cars of the same make shown over a period of several years?

What is the future expectancy of good service from such cars after twenty or thirty thousand miles?

You have the all-important advantage of being able to ask owners. Make use of it. Find out how the car you are thinking of buying has served other owners. Learn what mileage they get on gasoline, oil and tires. Is the second or the third 10,000 miles more costly than the first? Is it just as satisfactory in performance? Would that owner buy another car of the same make?

Of course there are basic reasons why Essex differs from other light cars—why owners compare it to costly cars.

And we will be glad of an early opportunity to explain the many points of advantage that only costly cars share with Essex.
