

a. more liberal subscription than that of last year, inasmuch as some of the settlements then under his charge have formed themselves into a separate Association, and subscribed through Mr. Breading.

MAHONE BAY.—£9.

At WALLACE—An auxiliary branch has been formed by Rev. R. Avery, lately appointed to that mission, and £7 16 7 remitted as their first tribute to the good cause.

NEW DUBLIN.—The Rev. Mr. Brine has been appointed to this Mission during the past year, organized a Branch, and remitted the handsome sum of £13 5 10½.

MANCHESTER.—In this District lately separated from Guysboro' and made a distinct mission, the Rev. W. T. Morris has organized a branch, and sent forward as a first remittance £6 0 2.

From AMHERST.—Where the burden of building a handsome and expensive brick Church is still in some measure pressing on the people, has been received £10.

ANTIGONISHE.—This Parish now under the charge of the Rev. A. W. Millidge, has resumed its former missionary attitude, and remitted for the present year £17 6 7½.

FALKLAND.—From this place the Ven. the Archdeacon reports a subscription of £18 14 1, to be paid in half yearly instalments; £9 7 0½ of which has been already paid.

From SALMON RIVER, BEAVER HARBOUR, AND NOODY QUODDY, the Rev. Mr. Breading has remitted £6 4 6½.

From BARRINGTON, WESTPORT AND SANDY COVE, the Rev. Mr. Forsyth has handed in £8 13 5½.

HALIFAX—Subscriptions 193 8 10½

Amount Sermons—St. Paul's,	£60 8 3}
St. George's,	23 11 6 }
Masonic Hall,	26 13 0—	110 12 9

£304 1 7½.

The Subscriptions and Contributions above enumerated amount to £798 3 3½.