STIRRING WORDS TO THE YOUNG

At the Young People's Convention in Queen Square Church.

OPENING SERVICES.

Between 300 and 400 Delegates Present from All Parts of the Provinces -- Rev. Clarence McKinnon on Christian Citizenship; Rev. Dr. McLeod on Bad Citizens.

The first session of the first joint convention of the Young People's Societies of the Maritime Provinces met Tuesday in Queen Square Methodist church. The pulpit and pulpit rail were tastefully decorated with bouquets of sweet peas, asters and several magnificent pot ferns, while the pillars of the church, depended small white banners with the word "Welcome" in red letters.

Long before the time of opening the body of the church and the side aisles were well filled with the delegates, who had registered in the vestry on arrival, and with citizens. The presiding officer of the evening, D. A. Morrison, took the chair precisely at 8 o'clock and with him on the platform were Rev. H. H. Roach, St. John; Rev. Clarence McKinnon, Sydney (C. B.); and Rev. Dr. McLeod, Fredericton.

The exercises opened by singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" by the audience, led by the choir; the reading of the Psalm by D. A. Morrison; and prayer by Rev. G. M. Campbell, of Centenary.

Owing to the unavoidable absence through illness of his Worship Mayor White, the presiding officer called on Rev. H. H. Roach for an address of welcome to the visiting delegates. During the course of his remarks the reverend gentleman said he welcomed the visitors, not only in his own behalf but also in behalf of all the Christian workers in the city. He felt he should not say too much, but he could not help reminding them that the object of their meeting was not to discuss their differences but their similarities; to try to awaken greater interest in that in which they were all engaged--the work of the Master. He did not doubt they were themselves glad to be there, and he had much pleasure in again extending to all a hearty welcome to St. John.

D. A. Morrison, replying briefly, thank-which great stress was laid on the need of cultivating a stronger type of character, with a greater degree of consecration of the life to the service of the Master. The meeting was brought to a close with prayer by Rev. Dr. Fotheringham.

ATTENDANCE GOOD AT SUSSEX FAIR.

List of Prize Winners in Various Classes Given -- Parade of the Prize Animals Today.

Sussex, N. B., Sept. 30 (Special).--A very large crowd attended the exhibition today and the fair will prove very successful. The race track had the largest crowd that has attended a race since the track was built. Every train from east and west brought large numbers here. A special of seven cars arrived from St. John about noon, bringing a large number of people from St. John and points along the line. This train left on the return trip at 11:45 o'clock tonight. Every car was crowded.

At the evening mass meeting the church was filled. The speakers were Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison, Rev. James McKinnon, of Halifax, and Rev. Clarence McKinnon, of Sydney, each of whom was listened to with great attention as he pleaded for greater consecration in the work of the Master.

The vigilante H. Y. P. U. held its 20th anniversary rally in the Brunswick street church, President Rev. H. H. Roach in the chair. The secretary-treasurer's report showed that the public opinion of the city, and in behalf of the delegates he felt sure he could say that no effort would be spared to make the convention a success, so that when the time came for them to part they could look back over a time not only pleasantly but profitably spent.

The following committees were then appointed by the president:

Revs. M. H. Roach, A. S. Morrison, A. B. Higgins, Messrs. T. E. Clay and E. R. Machum, a committee to consider the advisability of holding future conventions of this kind.

Revs. C. Munro, J. C. B. Appel, W. J. Kirby, on resolutions.

Rev. W. L. Parker and Messrs. R. D. Smith, J. H. McKinnon, on business.

Rev. Clarence McKinnon, Sydney (C. B.) then delivered a very earnest and eloquent address on "Christian Citizenship," which was frequently punctuated with hearty applause. The reverend gentleman, in his address, spoke in enthusiastic terms of the limitless resources and possibilities of Canada. But, he continued, great results are not enough to lay the foundations of a great nation. We must nourish a manhood that is capable of holding hold of those great resources and putting them to their best and legitimate uses. The problem before us is a vast one, no less a one than taking the great streams of humanity that are now pouring into our country from every quarter and stripping each of his individuality and anglicity, lay the foundations of a race that will be greater than any the sun has yet looked upon. Now, how is this to be accomplished? We some times lay the blame of social failures on the church, alleging that that institution has failed to do its duty; and sometimes on the lay, and those who are charged with administering it, when the only way in which any progress in the right direction can be made is by a strong, unanimous effort of the people themselves.

Rev. Dr. McLeod, of Fredericton, was then called upon. He remarked at the outset that so much had been said by the previous speaker about good citizenship that now he would like to say a few words about bad citizenship. Not the ordinary bad citizen, the thief, the drunkard, the gambler and the rascal. These we expected nothing from, but he would speak of the good man who was yet a bad citizen. Such a man is the most dangerous kind of a bad citizen. The man who would live the life of a Christian and yet who would do nothing to help the work of the Master, who alleges that religion cannot have anything in common with politics, who tries to entirely divorce things sacred from things secular--such a man has no conception of the true nature of religion. If D. A. Morrison, replying briefly, thank-
