Wm. McKinley Stricken While Talking to Friend Early Sunday Evening. HAD NOT COMPLAINED. Wife Crazy With Grief—Was Out Visiting and Saw Crowd Around Body, But Had No Idea It Was Her Husband—Deceased Was Well Known in City.

Monday, Jan. 2. While talking with a friend about 9 o'clock last night William McKinley, of Brussels street, fell dead. The deceased, who was well known about the city as a teamster, was in his usual good health yesterday, and after supper took a walk up town. About 8:20 o'clock he was walking down Brussels street, and when in front of Doherty's saloon met the proprietor, with whom he stopped to talk. The two chatted for about half an hour, and McKinley was buttoning up his coat to go home when he was suddenly stricken. Without any warning, or without making a sound, he fell back into the alleyway dead. Mr. Doherty thought that he had taken a fit, and called to a few men who were passing, for assistance. On examining the body, however, it was found that life was extinct. The body was taken into the alley and Dr. Berryman was summoned. The coroner ordered the body removed to the deceased's home at 87 St. Patrick street.

The sad part of the story is that Mrs. McKinley was out visiting friends at the time of her husband's death and knew nothing of it until she returned home early this morning. She went to the door and seeing the crowd, asked what was the matter. She was informed that a man had dropped dead, and that his body was lying in the alleyway nearby. Not thinking for a moment that it was her husband whom she had left at supper time in good health and spirits, she proceeded on her way home. Soon after she was told that her husband had been taken ill in Brussels street, and was very low. Recalling what she had heard on the way home about the man dropping dead, Mrs. McKinley at once hurried to the scene. Her husband, frantic with grief, rushed from the house screaming at the top of his voice, "Oh, my poor husband!" Her cries were heard by the neighbors, and she was persuaded by the neighbors to return to her home until the body arrived.

The deceased was the only son of James McKinley, of 87 St. Patrick street, and was thirty-seven years of age. For many years he was engaged in the teaming business with his father. He did most of the heavy hauling for the Street Railway Company, and had many other occupations in the city. On Saturday he had about his work as usual and did not complain of being ill. Yesterday he was working as usual, but was apparently in good health. Death was caused by heart trouble, and it is not likely that an inquest will be held.

Besides his wife, who was Miss Ramsey, he was survived by two daughters, a father, mother and two sisters. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

A MAN'S DUTY. (The Argonaut). When Chief Justice Chase chose to unbend himself he could be as witty as well as wise. At a social gathering in his home when he was secretary of war, the subject of taxation having been mooted, a distinguished naval officer present said he had paid all his taxes except the income tax. "I have a little property," said he, "which brings me in a yearly rental, but the tax-payers have not spotted it. I do not know whether I ought to let the thing go on that way or not. What would you do if you were in my place, Mr. Chase?" There was a merry twinkle in the eyes of Mr. Chase as he answered: "I think it is the duty of every man to live unspotted as long as he can."

R. S. LOW PLACED UNDER ARREST. Said to be in Serious Financial Difficulties AMOUNT LARGE.

Dr. L. A. Currey, K. C., Acting for Parties in St. John and Boston—Arrest Took Place in Sewell Street—Bail Surrendered—Prisoner Agent for Hassam Paving Company. Saturday, Dec. 31. Robert S. Low, local agent for the Hassam Paving Company, was arrested yesterday in a house in Sewell street, ostensibly for debts aggregating $10,000. It is understood that the arrest was made by the police of Boston, acting for parties in St. John and Boston. Dr. Currey, K. C., who is acting for the parties in St. John, said last night that he did not feel at liberty to say just what would come out of it, but he intimated that more serious charges might be brought against the prisoner. It is understood that when Mr. Low came to this city first to begin work on a contract for the Hassam people, he owed money in Fredericton and that A. R. Clark, his local partner, went his bail. The surrender of this bail by Mr. Clark is said to be one of the causes of the arrest.

It is known that on Thursday night Dr. Currey accompanied by a number of the board of aldermen, who is said to be a creditor, was watching the late train on the supposition that Mr. Low might try to get out of the city. They were disappointed, however, as he did not put in an appearance and during the day yesterday various constables were looking for him about the town. His wife and child boarded the Clifton train but, as asserted, he did not go near there on Thursday night and he was not arrested till Wednesday 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday in the houses in Sewell street. Dr. Currey said that after Mr. Low had been lodged in jail, he made an unsuccessful attempt to obtain his liberty on bail. The claims against him, the lawyer added, were embodied in three writs of capias for money lent by people in Boston and St. John. He intimated, however, that more serious charges might be brought later.

Monday, Jan. 2. Robert S. Low was released from jail Saturday evening by the order of Sheriff Ritchie, W. E. Raymond and A. H. John W. Vanwart entered bail bonds for him. The amount of this is not known, but it is understood that in such cases the bail is fixed at double the amount of the judgments issued.

Dr. L. A. Currey, K. C., who is acting for creditors, when communicated with last night, stated that this did not mean that proceedings were ended against Mr. Low. He intimated that he was simply waiting for some affidavits to issue writs in other cases. He had heard of others which might be expected to issue shortly. He had seen one paper in which Albert Gregory of Fredericton was the plaintiff. It is said there are quite a number of creditors in the city, among whom are Ald. McDermid. The amount of his claim is given as $200.
