LIBRARIANS' REPORT.

In submitting our report for the year 1895, we regret that the Library is not in as flourishing a condition as we would like to see it. Many of the books have been in the Library for years; and consequently are being read and reread with lessening interest. During the year 44 volumes have been added, chiefly through the grant from the Jesse Ketchum trust. Fifteen volumes have been discarded, leaving 725 volumes now in the Library.

The Librarians hope that the Congregation will consider the refurnishing of the Library, otherwise it will be impossible for us to give the satisfaction that we wish.
