

bro. of the preceding, was b. at Port Stanley, Ont. Ed. at Trinity Coll. Sch., Port Hope, in preparation for the ministry, he was the leading soprano for 2 yrs. of the boy choir at the sch., which was at that time considered the best boy choir in Can. On leaving at 17, he sang for the Toronto Philharmonic Soc., under the leadership of F. H. Torrington, and soon after, as the representative Can. tenor, at the reception concert given in Toronto to the Princess Louise and the Marquis of Lorne. Mr. Torrington was his first teacher. He afterwards studied with W. L. Tomlins, conductor of the Apollo Club, Chicago, and with A. Randegger, in London. Engaged by the Carl Rosa Eng. Opera Co., for leading rôles, he sang in London and through the provinces with this co., returning to Am., 1834. Here he confined himself principally to oratorio and concerts, and sang at the Worcester Festival. In Eng., whither he went a second time, 1893, he attracted much attention and won distinction under the leadership of Sir Joseph Barnby, and others. His interpretation of the aria, "Be thou faithful," at the Cardiff Musical Festival, 1895, was spoken of by the Eng. press as "one of the finest things in the entire performance." He has on several occasions sang at Kensington Palace, before the Princess Louise and other mems. of the Royal Family. In Sept., 1897, he joined the Carl Rosa Co. for the London season.—56 St. Alban St., Toronto.

MOMENT, Rev. Alfred Harrison (Presb.), is the son of Edward Trueman Moment, a native of Hull, Eng., by his wife, Mary Cawon, formerly of Castlemaine, Irel. B. in the Tp. of Clarke, Durham, Ont., Jan. 22, 1844, he obtained a part only of his coll. education in his native country, being compelled to leave there owing to ill-health. He subsequently proceeded to Hanover Coll., Ind., where he graduated, 1872. He obtained his M.A. degree, 1876, and, in 1887, the same institution gave him the degree of D.D. He pursued his theol. studies at Princeton, N.J. Ordained to the ministry by the Presby. of N. Y., 1876, he became pastor of the Spring St. Presb. Ch. of that city. In 1885 he was called to the pastorate of the Westminster Presb. Ch., Brooklyn. In Feb., 1894, Dr. M. went abroad for a protracted period of travel and study in Bible Lands. The spring and summer of that year were spent in Egypt and the Holy Land, especially making himself familiar with the latter country on both sides of the Jordan. He is one of the few modern travellers who have been to the sites of the "Seven Churches of Asia;" and also to the Troad, the scene of Homer's "Iliad." Two mths. were spent in Constantinople, and, in all, he was in the Turkish Empire nearly 10 mths. He also travelled in Macedonia and Greece; during the winter of '95, he was in Italy, in Rome giving 3 mths. of close study to Roman and Christian antiquities, having the previous year given special attention to this subject in the other 3 great historic cities, Jerusalem, Constantinople and Athens. Dr. M. also travelled in northern Africa and through all the countries of Europe, except Norway, Sweden and Russia. In Oxford he attended lectures on Theol. in Mansfield Coll.; and became, in his travels through Gt. Brit., personally acquainted with many of her eminent divines and scholars. During 2 yrs. he visited 20 countries, making himself familiar not only with the antiquities of the Old World, but also with the life and ways of the people of those foreign lands. For 20 yrs. Dr. M. has held 2 most important pastorates, and to-day he stands among the foremost preachers and Bible-scholars of the great Am. metropolis. He is now diligently working on his travels abroad, and expects soon to issue a book on "The Seven Churches of Asia." He m. 1st, 1879, Miss Magdalena Wüst, N. Y. (she d. 1880); and 2ndly, 1884, Miss Julia Wilson,