

B I L L.

An Act to consolidate such of the provisions of the several Acts relative to the Great Western Railroad Company, as are now in force.

WHEREAS the Great Western Railroad Company hath prayed that the provisions of the several Acts relative to the said Company which are now in force should be consolidated in one Act and re-enacted, and it is expedient to grant the said prayer: Be it therefore declared and enacted, &c. Preamble.

That all such provisions of the former Acts, relative to the said Great Western Railroad Company, as may be inconsistent with those of this Act, shall be and are hereby repealed. Inconsistent enactments repealed.

II. And be it declared and enacted, That Sir Allan Napier MacNab Who shall constitute the Corporation.

with all such other persons as are or shall become Stockholders in the Great Western Railroad Company are and shall continue to be a body corporate and politic, in fact by and under the name and style of "The Great Western Railroad Company," and by that name they and their successors shall and may have continued succession; and by such name are and shall be capable of contracting and being contracted with, of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto, in all Courts and places whatsoever, in all manner of actions, suits, complaints, matters and concerns whatsoever; and they and their successors may and shall have a common seal, and may change and alter the same at their will and pleasure; and also that they and their successors, by the same name of "The Great Western Railroad Company," are and shall be, by law, capable of purchasing, having and holding to them and their successors any estate, real, personal or mixed, to and for the use of the said Company, and of letting, conveying, and otherwise departing therewith, for the benefit, and on account of the said Company, from time to time as