

SDU 39 - DAL 25

Another winless season high hopes for next season

By IRV SHERMAN

In seven previous games this season, the Dal Tigers scored only 14 points. Last Saturday, in Prince Edward Island, the Dal team scored 25 points in a losing bid to the Saint Dunstan's Saints. The Saints took advantage of two early pass interceptions which led to two touchdowns and this 14 pt. margin was all they needed in handing Dal a 39-25 defeat. This marked the second consecutive year that the Bengals went through an AFC season without a victory.

The Dal team, kept inactive for two weeks and forced to practise indoors due to rainy weather, didn't quite have it in the first quarter and allowed the Saints to take a 19-0 lead. In the next 45 minutes, the Bengals recovered and blasted the Saints for 25 pts. while yielding only 20. Throughout the game, former Dal weaknesses disappeared and the Bengals showed much potential, drive and determination.

GAVE GAME AWAY

In the first quarter, the Tiger offense often failed to chalk up enough yardage and the Bengals were forced to punt. The defense didn't do much better, Saint half-back, Mike O'Brien, scampered 25 yards around left end for the first TD of the game. A few moments later, a potential Dal scoring opportunity was ruined, as Saint tackle, Frank Garrity, recovered a Dal fumble on his 7 yard line and four plays later, QB Fred Ripley scampered 67 yards for another Saint major. The convert attempt was good. Dal, upon receipt of the ball was forced to punt, and the Saints went 34 yards in 4 plays to take a 19-0 lead. Every time the Saints took possession of the ball in this quarter they scored.

The Tigers took over from here. Dave Precious, playing the whole game at quarterback, threw many fine passes and punted well. Jamie Wright played a brilliant 60 minutes. He plunged from the one-yard line for the first Dal major of the game. Remember those five attempts to get one yard against UNB? Wright's pass to Gordie Marler was good for the point after. Later, Dave Precious combined with Marler for a 72 yard pass-run play. Precious then scampered 10 yards for a first and goal situation on the Saint 9 yard line. A quick pass determination coach Joe Rutigliano had instilled in his charges. It was late in the third quarter of the last game of the year, the Dal Tigers were trailing by 14 points and had nothing to lose if the Saints scored again. The Tiger line threw off the Saint challenge. Lady Luck combined with QB Fred Ripley to give the Island squad their final TD in the fourth quarter. The Dal pass defense knocked down Ripley's pass. The ball, instead of falling to the ground, was grabbed in mid-air by Des Roches, the intended receiver, in the Dal end zone. The convert was wide and Dal trailed 39-19.

Late in the game, Dal QB, Precious completed four of five pass attempts and Dal was on the Saint 10 yard line. Glenn Cristoff took the handoff and scampered around left end for the final points of the game. For this TD, the Tigers played with professional assurance and finesse coupled with the determination of the "old College try."

through the middle to end Brian Coleman pulled the Tigers to within six points of the Saints, 19-13. Here was a fine example of the fine field leadership Dal lacked earlier in the year. The Tigers allowed two passes to be intercepted late in the second quarter for two Saint majors. The half ended 33-13 for the host squad.

REJUVENATED TIGERS

The Dal team looked like a new squad in the final half. Their offensive team was eating up yardage and the halves were finding the holes made for them by the linemen. The defense was holding the Saint offensive at bay. Alert co-captain, Wally Clements, stole a Saint lateral behind the line of scrimmage and raced 41 yards for a TD, the only points scored in this quarter. Dal now trailed by 14 points, 33-19.

Towards the end of this quarter, the Saints had first and goal on the Dal two yard line. Two plays up the middle got nowhere. On third down, Len Ellis was nailed at the line of scrimmage. This illustrated the desire and

SCIENCE UPSETS MED AS FOOTBALL LOOP CLOSES

By JACK YABLON

The 1962 season of the Interfaculty Football League came to an end last week in much the same fashion as it started. Only 2 out of the 6 games scheduled were played. Despite the defaults, the standings remained the same in both the "A" and "B" sections.

It was the Pharmacy team that was responsible for wrecking the final week's play as they defaulted on Nov. 5, 6, 7 and 10 to Commerce, Engineers, Med and Law respectively. To this writer, to say the least, it was very un-sportsmanship-like conduct; it was the Pharmacy team that caused one of the biggest changes in the schedule, protesting the fact that they had been left off the schedule. They were put into the schedule. Where was the team?

Dent 20 Commerce 0

An under-manned Com team lost to revitalized Dentistry on Nov. 7, to the tune of 20-0. In the first quarter, John Robertson hit paydirt and this was added to by Brian Weeks point-after. In the next period, Jim Cleary broke into the Com end zone for an unconverted TD. The half-time score read 13-0. The game saw-sawed back and forth with neither team scoring until in the fourth quarter when one of Dent's highest scorers, Brock Rondeau, burst through the Com line for a major and Weeks made his second convert attempt of the day good.

Upset . . . Science 13 Med 6

In the final game of the season on Nov. 10, underdog Science pulled the biggest upset of the season as they defeated Med 13-6. Granted: Med was short on man-power but all credit must go to Science. In the first quarter Pete Hawk wasted no time for Med getting unconverted TD. However all other Med attempts were thwarted by the smaller Science team.

In the second quarter, Science's Mike Knight scored his first TD of the year and followed this up by converting his own 6-pointer. The game struggled on until late in the final frame when Bill Owen broke loose for the game's final major. Once again the upset score was Science 13 and Med 6.

TWO SECTIONS

Looking back over the year's play it's not difficult to see that there were actually two leagues. One a "Pro" or "A" section composed of league-winners Law, and Med and Dent. In the "Amateur" or "B" section, which was by far the more exciting group, the teams were Com, Science, Engineers, Arts and Pharmacy. Com and Science both had 4 and 3 records but by "points for" and "against" Com led the "B" section.

FINAL STANDINGS

	W	L	PF	PA	PTS
Law	7	0	174	38	14
Med	5	2	90	52	10
Dents	4	3	77	59	8
Commerce	4	3	74	84	8
Science	4	3	25	70	8
Engineers	3	4	37	93	6
Arts	1	6	74	104	2
Pharmacy	0	7	0	51	0

D. McDougall SCORING CHAMP

In the individual point race the superiority of the "A" section boys was apparent. Out of the first ten in the individual standings, eight are from the pro ranks. Double-threat Don McDougall led the race with 66 points and proved himself one of the speediest runners and the league's best passer. Team mate Bruce Alexander carried a lot of the mail for law as he chalked up 42 points. A "B" section man Don Bauld was the spearhead of the Com attack and was capable throughout the year of reeling off fine passes, carrying the ball long runs or kicking. He finished second with 43 points.

Whatever became of:

G. Fawkes,

CLASS OF '08?

Voted the student likely to rise highest in his class, Guy will be remembered for his major thesis "The Raising and Lowering of Buildings by a Revolutionary Method". Cognizance was taken of this project by Parliament. Always keenly interested in problems of rapid movement of mass, Mr. Fawkes became attached to an early space programme which failed due to non-ignition of the propellant. Results of some of his earlier experimental space work are clouded due to excessive blast-off. However—who knows?—due to good old Guy, this college might well have been the first to put a man on the moon. Conclusive evidence must await more sophisticated lunar exploration.
