

Closing of Malton campus kills seven Sheridan jobs

Four teachers and three administrative staff will lose their jobs when Sheridan College closes its Malton Manpower centre at the end of this term, college president John Porter confirmed this week.

"The actual physical facility will be closed down but we will be moving most of the courses to the Brampton campus," he said. Porter said students taking fiberglass courses would move into other programs and machine repair students would be transferred to Humber College.

The Malton campus has been in operation for three years.

The Sheridan president said the closing could not be totally attributed to the recent cutback of provincial funds to post secondary school institutions.

He said funding of the manpower centre came through the province but originated with the federal government.

But he pointed out that cutbacks causing Sheridan to halt plans for construction of new facilities at Oakville to house the manpower programs had an effect on the decision.

Girl kidnapped, suspect nabbed

A six-year-old Metro Toronto girl playing in the front yard of her grandmother's home on Lakeshore Road East in Mississauga was kidnapped Friday night.

According to police a man stopped his car, walked over to the girl, picked her up and carried her into his car.

A neighbour witnessed the episode and phoned the girl's grandmother. Together they contacted police, giving a description of the man and the car.

Notified by radio, a Mississauga police officer stopped a car travelling north on Highway 10 at Paisley Boulevard five minutes later.

The girl was recovered unharmed. William Hall, 44 of 349 Royal York Rd. was arrested. He has been charged with kidnapping and abduction of a minor under the age of 14.

Hall appears in court today.

Search of abandoned car uncovers rifle

A search of a car left in a ditch following a Saturday night accident has led to the arrest of two North Service Road residents for possession of a dangerous weapon.

Road about 7:30 p.m.

Police received a call from the driver of the vehicle Marilyn Joyce Davies. In searching for identification a .22 calibre sawed-off rifle was discovered under the front car seat.

Arrested at their residence at 285 North Service Road were Marilyn Davies and Edward Thomas Dodd.

Poirier family jittery

But the phone calls have the family jittery. "I've never been on tranquilizers in my life," Mrs. Poirier said Monday, "but the doctor gave me some on Thursday. Every time there's a noise my husband and I jump.

"She's not taking Mary-Anne though — there's no way. We've only missed 20 hours of her life. We're not giving her up now."

Mrs. Poirier has refused to let three of her other children outside because of the phone calls.

"I don't know what to think. If the calls are real, why doesn't the mother just come forward? If they're not why are these people so persistent? It doesn't make any sense."

The police arrived at the family's doorstep Thursday to check out a complaint that someone was beating the children. After some questions, they left.

"Whoever it is," Mrs. Poirier says, "they want to get me on the bad books with the police."

With the appeal to legal aid and the possible adoption, the Poiriers are hopeful the sleepless nights and tranquilizers can be forgotten.

"All I want," Mrs. Poirier says, "is to stand in front of some judge and hear him say, 'Marilyn and Alex, Mary-Anne is yours.'"

Non-capital murder trial

William Paul Crofts, 34, of Haliburton, charged with non-capital murder, was bound over for trial after a preliminary hearing Friday in Mississauga provincial court.

Crofts, accused of the Sept. 3 shotgun slaying of Richard Smith 29, will appear in the first court of jurisdiction, the hearing decided. This will probably be the spring assizes of county court in June.

Smith, an Oakville resident, was shot in the parking lot of Data Control Limited at Mississauga Road and the 401.
