 (whom I trust you will be able to meet) been able as yet to undertake the reading of the volume but a rapid glance at its contents shows the trend and I am confident it will be a factor of high importance in the reconstructive work now commencing in Canada I shall have the greatest pleasure in reading it both because of the subject & because of the admiration my dear Mackenzie King I must thank you

 sincerely for the copy kindly forwarded from the publishers of some volume Industry and Humanity. I have of course seen several notices of the book, all wholly complimentary, and have ordered copies for the Dept. I have not yet, between work & time
