

UNIVERSITY REGISTRY
OXFORD

23 Oct. 1923.

DEAR SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that the Hebdomadal Council has resolved to propose to the Convocation of the University that the Degree of Doctor of Civil Law, honoris causa, be conferred upon you.

The ceremony of the conferring of the Degree takes place at a meeting of Convocation. It will be necessary for you to attend in person, within ~~two months~~^{three Terms} from the present date, in order to receive the Degree. Meetings of Convocation are held regularly during Term, on Tuesday at 2 p.m.; a list of such meetings falling within the ~~two~~^{three Terms} ~~months~~ is enclosed herewith. When you have selected a day convenient to yourself, it will be necessary for me to give due notice, in accordance with University Regulations, in the University Gazette, and also to make arrangements with the Professor whose duty it is to present you.

In order to allow time for this, please be so kind as to send me early notice—not less than ten days in any case—of the day on which you propose to attend.

Yours faithfully,

C 72314

Registrar of the University.
