Ottawa, June 29, 1911.

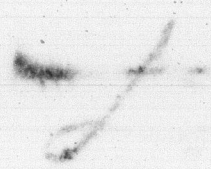

Rev. Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 21st instant giving a list of the schools visited by you between January 1st and June 30th, 1911, and also submitting an outline of your work for the next six months.

In reply I beg to say that your 1911 itinerary for the next six months is approved. The Department wishes you to give particular attention to the teaching of callisthenics and hygiene in the schools.

In reference to the attendance of pupils the different Agents will be communicated with and, if necessary, the regulations relating to compulsory attendance will be enforced.

Your obedient servant,

 Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
