April, 1912, and previous correspondence, and should be made under the provisions of the Act. The property consists of land in the state of natural state, in a part of the Province, and as to the value of a lot price, being in the possession of the Government of settlement conditions, in order to have the land surveyed, and placed into a state of settlement, and as there settlement will have not been performed by the Dept. of Indian Affairs, the land has not been surveyed very thoroughly in some places, but is now surveyed by the
