

"That we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God."—II. Cor. 1, 4.

---

"Remember what he was with thankful heart,
The bright, the brave, the tender and the true;
Remember where he is, from sin apart,
Present with God—yet not estranged from you.
But never doubt that Love—and Love alone
Removed thy loved one from this trial scene;
Nor idly dream, since he to God has gone,
Of what, had he been left, he might have been."
