The work of the Subordinate Granges has two stages or periods.

First, we organize the Granges and study to become familiar with the work of the Lodge Room. We study to take in the essence and spirit of our beautiful and elevating ritual. We also get acquainted with each other. As a people we pay too little regard to the social and fraternal element in society. There are perhaps reasons why this is so, growing out of our earnest practical life, but it is none the less true that our happiness and well-being would be better promoted by cultivating more fully our social nature.

After the organizing period has passed we come to the business or material phase of our
