

WHAT IT IS AND WHAT IT DOES.

St. Leon Water is a combination of mineral agents prepared in the womb of the earth, inimitable and unapproachable by art. An antidote quenching, absorbing, and carrying through every channel and pore from the system blood poisons and disease-feeding secretions. Even that dreaded Bright's disease and diabetes are quenched as water quenches fire, if St. Leon is drunk freely and rubbed into the skin.

Doctors say, "impossible to say to much in its praise." For proof see to-day's advertisement—testimony of J. F. Holden.

"JUST THE BOY THAT'S WANTED," or the qualities which insure success in leading professions, will be published in the coming volume of The Youth's Companion. General Nelson A. Miles will write of the army, Admiral Lucie of the navy, Judge Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr., of the bar, Dr. Austin Flint of the medical profession, and E. L. Godkin of journalism.

THE SAD RESULT OF ENVY.

Envy is a weak passion, and I can give you an example of the sad effects of indulging it.

In London in 1846, Hayden, the great painter of historical subjects had on exhibition his celebrated picture of the Banishment of Aristides. He was greatly in debt, and hoped to get out of it from the profits of this exhibition.

Just at the time, there came to the city, Thomas Thumb, the pigmy general, generally called Tom Thumb and began exhibiting in the same building, the Egyptian Hall. Many thousands went to see Tom Thumb, while only a few hundred to see the great paintings.

This so enraged the artist, that he put an end to his life out of envy and disappointment. This was very weak and silly in Hayden, and very wicked. And it only shows how evil it is to give way to our inferior passion of any sort. God means us to restrain them and to keep them in their proper place. Happy is he who can do so. If we feel envy, let us try to put the feeling aside.—We should love and not be jealous of the good fortune of others. We are all his children, and one is as much entitled to success as another if he be right in what he does.

FOR THE BABIES.—It is not necessary to buy corn cures. Men and women should remember that Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is the only safe, sure, and painless corn remover extant. It does its work quickly and with certainty. See that the signature N. C. Polson & Co. appears on each bottle. Beware of poisonous imitations.

HAVE YOU NASAL CATARRH?

Use Dr. James' three preparations of East India Hemp; they will prevent the Catarrh entering the Bronchial tubes or lungs, thereby warding off Consumption, and keep the disease locked until positively cured. Put yourself fully under the influence of these remedies, and as sure as the sun shines upon you a complete cure will be made of that loathsome disease.

N.B.—This remedy speaks for itself. A single bottle will satisfy the most skeptical, and will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours. Ask your druggist for Dr. JAMES' CANNABIS INDICA, and if they fail you, send to us direct, $2.50 per bottle, or three bottles for $6.50. Pills and Ointment, $1.25 each. Address CREADDOCK & CO., 1032 Race St., Philadelphia, Pa.

A SPECIAL OFFER ON THE Century Magazine.

BACK NUMBERS TO BEGIN THE SIBERIAN PAPERS.

The Siberian papers, by George Kennan, now appearing in THE CENTURY, have been an enormous success, and they will attract many new readers to the magazine with the beginning of the new volume. We make the following special offer:

New subscribers, beginning with November, 1888, can have the twelve back numbers from November, 1887 (in which the Siberian papers began), and a year's subscription, for $6.00; or a year's subscription and the twelve back numbers bound in two handsome volumes, for $7.50. The regular price of the first offer is $8.00, and of the second, $10.00.

These papers on "Siberia and the Exile System" are the result of a journey through Siberia made by Mr. Kennan, accompanied by Mr. Frost, artist and photographer, during which he made the acquaintance of hundreds of political exiles, and examined every important mine and prison in Siberia. Four years spent in that country in the service of the Russian Overland Telegraph Company had fitted him for his task, and as his opinions were known to be favorable to Russia, he was granted unusual facilities by the Government for the researches which he is now describing in THE CENTURY. The result of this investigation was to change completely his views as to the Exile System, and to prove to him that the system had not been misrepresented by such writers as Stepaniak and Prince Kropotkin, and that the horrors of exile life had not been too strongly pictured. As is already well known, Mr. Kennan has been "blacklisted" by the Russian Government, and copies of THE CENTURY have his articles torn out of them by customs officials on the frontier of the Tsar's dominions.
