FOREST HOME FARM

CLYDESDALES, SHORTHORNS, YORKSHIRES and B. P. ROCKS

A couple of one-year-old Clydesdale stallions—good ones; four yearling bulls and a dozen bull calves; cows and heifers all ages. Boars and sows, old and young. Prices of cattle are down, and we will quote accordingly. We need the room, and can use the money. A choice lot of Scotch collie pups, collie, for registration.

ANDREW GRAHAM, Carman and Roland Stns. POMEROY P. O.

Ans.—Any rank smelling or tasting vegetable is liable to taint the milk although we have never had experience with artichokes. 2. Hen manure is one of our most concentrated of fertilizers and consequently must be applied very sparingly. Its effects are most noticeable on soils deplete of nitrogen or lacking in vegetable matter. Because of the usual limited quantities about a farm it is generally applied to gardens and orchards, the crops and trees of which respond readily to it.

Miscellaneous.

LAWFUL FENCES.

Please state what constitutes a lawful fence in Saskatchewan. A. S.

Ans.—Lawful fences are described in chapter 28 (1903) N.-W. T., as follows: Sec. 3.—Any of the fences in this section described shall be deemed a lawful fence: 1. Any substantial fence not less than four feet in height, if it consists: (a) Of rails or boards, not less than four in number, the lower one not more than eighteen inches from the ground, and each panel not exceeding twelve feet in length. (b) Of upright posts, boards or palings, not more than six inches apart. (c) Of barbed wire and a substantial top-rail, the wires to be not less than two in number, and the lower one not more than twenty inches from the ground, posts to be not more than sixteen and a half feet apart. (d) Of three or more barbed wires, the lower one not more than twenty inches from the ground, posts to be not more than sixteen and a half feet apart. (e) Of not less than three barbed wires on posts not more than fifty feet apart; the wires being fastened to droppers, not less than two inches in width and one inch in thickness or willow or other poles not less than one inch in diameter at the small end, or wire dropper; the said dropper or poles being placed at regular intervals of not more than seven feet apart. (f) Of two posts spiked together at the top and resting on the ground in the shape of an A, which shall be joined by a brace firmly nailed near the base, with three rails firmly secured on the one side of the A, the top rail not less than four feet, and the bottom rail not less than eighteen inches from the ground; there being also firmly secured on the other side of the A one rail not more than twenty inches from the ground. (g) Of woven wire secured to posts not more than 35 feet apart.

2. Any river bank or other natural boundary sufficient to keep domestic animals out of any land. There has been no change in this law since the new Provinces have been formed.

PILE DRIVER.

Would you give me a cut of a pile driver to put down fence posts and also instructions how to make it in your next issue? Man.

Ans.—You would need to get the hammar (Valcan Ironworks, Winnipeg, can supply it) then erect two pieces of timber for a derrick. They would need to be high enough to give the weight sufficient force when it fell and close enough together to guide it in its fall. At the top you would need a pulley through which would run a rope from the weight to the revolving wooden spindle below driven by horse power or small engine. The rope is given a couple of turns around the spindle and the weight is raised by holding the loose end tight, then by letting go the rope the weight is dropped.

A CROP IN DISPUTE.

In the spring of 1903, A. made a verbal agreement to break some land for B. In payment of which A. was to use the land for three years. Now B. has sold the said land and refuses to pay anything contending that the three years are up this spring. A. contends that he had no use of the land the first year and consequently expected another year's crop off it. A. has witnesses that take the same view of it. If A. has right what can he do to collect for the last year's crop? Sask.

Ans.—Sue B. for value of crop. A. F.
