

ONE STRANDED VESSEL OFF

The Danish barque Rognegild, stranded with the Danmark and Inger at Langalde was towed off the rocks yesterday, by the French tug Jean D. Arc and brought to St. Pierre. She is not badly damaged. The other two are yet ashore but it is hoped to have two or three steamers there soon to pluck them off when the water becomes smooth.

A MILITARY MASS

On Sunday next a Military Mass will be celebrated at 11 o'clock in the R. C. Cathedral by Rev. Thos. Nangle. Rev. Dr. Carter will be preacher and the Catholic volunteers will be present. We learn that Rev. Fr. Nangle will be leaving here shortly for England and it is not unlikely will see active duty at the front.

VERY SUDDEN DEATH

Mr. James Aylward, well known in St. John's, was taken suddenly ill on Mudge's premises, Southside, at noon and was conveyed to his home on Job's Street. A priest was called from the Deanery and administered the last sacraments, shortly after which the man died. Mr. Aylward in his youthful days was years in the American Navy and travelled all over the world.

TWO CLERGYMEN VISITORS

By the Florizel yesterday there arrived here Rt. Rev. Monsignor Tobin from Little Rock, Arkansas, U.S.A.; and Rev. John Tobin from San Francisco. Both clergymen are cousins of Mr. J. J. Tobin, the Beach, and of Mrs. Arthur Hiscock. One of them, Monsignor Tobin, is not a stranger to St. John's, as for some years he was in the employ of his uncle, the late Mr. Tobin, the well-known merchant. Both gentlemen are of Irish birth.

SPLENDID COPPER ORE

Mr. W. A. MacKay yesterday received a report from Cardiff as to samples of copper ore treated at his smelter and sent there to be assayed. The experts declare that the samples contain 96 per cent of pure copper, a splendid showing for the ore Mr. MacKay handles.

Yesterday evening a young man was arrested for breaking up the furniture in his home while intoxicated. His wife appeared against him in court today and he had to find sureties to keep the peace or go down for five days.

ONLY THREE OFFICERS LEFT

Yesterday Mr. Peter Power had a message from his son, Lieut. Herb. Power of Ours. It said that he is p.o.k. in France. C. Co. received a pretty severe cutting up as only three of its officers are left. These are Capt. Donnelly, the hero of Caribou Hill; and Lieuts. Jeans and Power. The impression is that we have heard pretty nearly all of the casualties and that our regiment is now in London for a rest and to be reorganized.

BANKER IN COLLISION.

The banker "Gigantic," of La Have N.S. arrived in port last night in a very damaged state. She had been in collision with a large sailing vessel off Cape Race Wednesday night during a dense fog. The banker was cut down by the other amidstships to the water's edge and a few more inches would have caused her to sink instantly. The colliding vessel vanished in the gloom and with her the possibility of discovering her name or nationality. The banker, in command of Capt. Daniel A. Parks, had the pumps going ever since. She had baited at Caplin Bay, and was making for the grand banks when the collision occurred.

THE KYLE'S PASSENGERS.

The Kyle arrived at Port aux Basques at 8.35 this a.m., bringing E. H. and Mrs. Finn, Geo. Down, Mrs. A. Hutchings, W. Marshall, W. S. Warren, R. H. Griffiths, H. A. Myrick, Mrs. L. Moore, Mrs. A. Piercey, A. and Mrs. Allison, Mrs. E. Hatcher, Miss E. Curtiss, Rev. Dr. S. Simpson, Miss E. Melhosen, Mrs. W. B. Nicholson, Mrs. A. Nellwaet, Mrs. J. F. Moulton, R. A. and Mrs. Straw, A. A. ## FRED S. CAMERON

HOME FROM U. S. A. AMHERST, N.S., July 5.—Fred S. Cameron, the well known runner, is spending a month at his home at Advocate. He arrived in Amherst from Chicago where he has been holding forth for the past few years. Although still interested in the athletic game, Fred is following up the advertising end of a big business in Chicago. Nevertheless he still circles the track occasionally to keep in form. The little athlete was kept busy shaking hands to-day with his many friends in town. He left on No. 18 for Parrsboro.

No Desire to Encourage Migration From Britain

Sir Henry Haggard Discusses His Mission

VANCOUVER, July 8.—Making definitely known the fact that there was no desire to encourage migration from the British Isles, the wish rather being the other way, Sir H. Rider Haggard, novelist and representative of the British Colonial Institute, told a large audience at the Canadian club luncheon yesterday of the objects that had led him to undertake a world-wide tour which was, briefly, to ascertain how different parts of the world would receive disbanded soldiers who wished to travel to other lands, but still remain beneath the old flag.

Coming straight to the main issue of his mission, Sir Henry said that what the British Colonial Institute wants and asks is that wherever a servant of the crown-in-arms may wander within British realms, he will be greeted as a Britisher and given a welcome equal to that given one born within the land itself.

He then stated that the desired end had been achieved—that the doors of Australia are now wide open to that event, and that every state will welcome such servants of the crown, some by specific gifts—but everywhere a soldier would welcome a returning one of its own. He said that the happiest moment of his life was when he was enabled to cable to London: "The door is now open throughout Australia."

New Zealand also, he said, is most friendly, and will bear her part of the desired end to every Britisher. Sir Henry then detailed his first glimpse of the Homestead act, subsequent to his arrival in British Columbia, and said that he found that it absolutely barred any subjects of the crown from the slightest advantage, unless British born or a subject of British Columbia. Endeavoring to correct this, the speaker said he had attained even more success than he had hoped, a letter from Premier Bowser, dated Monday, being read, and stating that the government is prepared to extend to all United Kingdom ex-soldiers and families similar advantages to those which British Columbia will give returning Canadian soldiers.

Serious Unrest Prevails
Among People of Germany

Prominent Socialist Predicts Revolution, As Cries of Distress and Discontent
Are Increasing Daily and Action Is Demanded.

LONDON, July 8. (New York Times cable)—A despatch to the Morning Post from Berne, says:

"What is happening in Germany?" is the question placed at the head of numerous articles in the Swiss newspapers during the last few days and the fact that the question is so frequently put shows that the feeling which prevails among the population of Germany is one of serious disquiet. Speaking at a meeting of the Leopold City Council on Wednesday last a Socialist councillor said:

"The people are being bled so mercilessly, they must not only be impoverished, but also ruined in health. Muller-Meiningen has threatened that the people will rise in force and that will happen. There is an end to all patience."

According to The Gotha Zeitung, Muller-Meiningen is a well known leader of the Radical Party, in the Reichstag and has written to Von Batocki a letter in which the following passages occur:

"I am continually hearing cries of distress from the whole of Thuringia about the lack of sugar. The discontent increases daily to a most serious extent and only actions will help now. Fine words and visits by high officials are unless unless improvements, is quickly made. Noisy gatherings will be heard of also outside the large towns, for the whole German people are of the opinion, and rightly so, that the limit of endurance has been reached. The bureaucracy is utterly bankrupt, and the people already are rising against it and will finally do so with force."

The condemnation of Liebknecht has undoubtedly aggravated the situation. A Socialist manifesto, distributed in thousands, in the industrial districts of Germany before the trial was concluded, contains the following:

"Workingmen: The cause of Liebknecht is your cause. In hitting Liebknecht it is you that they wish to hit and reduce to silence in order that this carnage may continue. Will you tolerate it? Let your voice be heard. Prove that there are behind Liebknecht hundreds of thousands of people who think and feel as he does."

ST. BON'S OLD REUNION

The Reunion of St. Bon's Old Boys took place this morning in the Aula Maxima of the College and never before were so many present as on this occasion. Besides His Grace Archbishop Power and His Lordship Bishop Power of St. George's there were many priests present, including Monsignor, a large gathering of old boys of city and outposts and quite a number of old pupils, brave boys dressed in khaki uniforms who are going forward to the stern task of facing the German legions. A Requiem Missa Cantata was sung by Mr. Rev. Monsignor Reardon at 8 a.m. for the repose of the souls of departed old boys and especially those who have died in the war.

At 8.35 a.m. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was imposed by His Grace, the assistant priests being, Revs. Fathers Renouf and Pippy; Master of Ceremonies Rev. Dr. Greene; Assistant Master of Ceremonies Rev. Mr. Liddy. A very capable choir under the leadership of Rev. Brother Fennessey rendered the music. At 8.45 His Grace unveiled a beautiful portrait of his distinguished predecessor, the late Archbishop Howley. The oration was delivered by His Lordship, the Bishop of St. George's, and seldom has such a discourse been listened to at St. Bon's. It was a masterpiece in the presentation of sublime ideas and in the use of chase and beautiful English and we only regret that space forbids even synopses reference to it. The breakfast was a splendid one, the menu being of a variety and excellence which drew encomium from all who participated. The Reunion of 1916 will be ever pleasantly remembered by the Old Boys of the College.

ANOTHER "GET RICH QUICK"

Rumour has it that a hematite iron deposit near Snow's Pond, North River, has been sold to an American corporation. The ore samples, it is said, are of the very best and the new purchasers are delighted with the property.

TOOK SPLENDID GROUPS

Mr. Will Parsons, the well-known and capable photographer, took splendid groups of the Church of England Synod a few days ago, and this morning another fine group of the ecclesiastics and others who attended the reunion at St. Bon's College this morning.

A PLUCKY NEWFOUNDLAND SOLDIER.

Mr. Jas. Ashley, 9 Atlantic Ave. whose son John left here 12 years ago for the United States and who had not heard from him for over 5 years, was agreeably surprised to get a letter from him a few days ago. He says that he recently joined the Canadian forces and would be leaving for England by the time the letter was received here. He was formerly in the American Army, served 3 years in the Philippines and saw plenty of active service. He was formerly foreman with Mr. Chas. Muir in his marble works and was a pioneer member of the C.C.C. His regimental number is 210,042, Coy B, 98th Battalion C. E. F.

CELEBRATING SILVER JUBILEE

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Pike, of LeMarchant Road, will celebrate the 25th anniversary of their wedding on tomorrow, Saturday, July 15th. Mr. Pike is the genial foreman of the grocery store of Steer Bros and is a man who is highly esteemed both by his employers, their staff and hundreds of citizens. His estimable wife is also highly esteemed and respected in the city and we extend to them our heartfelt felicitations.
