PEOPLE'S PULPIT If We Deny Him He Will Deny Us Repudiation of Christ Is a Growing Sin A Note of Warning Sounded

Se.mon by Charles T. Russell, Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle

Dellas, Texas, June 8 .- The wide- has been substituted for civilization Dallas, Texas, June 8.—The wide-ly known Pastor C. T. Russell, spoke twice here to-day. We report his discourse from the words of St. Paul, "If we deny Him, He also will deny us." (2 Timothy 2:12.) The address which we are not re-porting was the more jublic one. The Pastor is in the sixties, white-haired, and of kindly, earnest speech which convinces the hearer of his sincerity. He said:

One of old prayed. "Give me neither poverty nor riches; lest I be full, and deny Thee, and of Christianity, and the Apostolic view, the Pastor declared to be his own view. Let us see, he said, to Who is the Lord? or lest I be say, what extent the teachings of Christ and the teachings of the Bible are still believed. poor, and steal, and take the name of the Lord my God is vain." (Proverbs 30:8, 9.) Great riches have come to the world within the past sixty years, especially in Europe and America. Instead of the hearts of the prosperous uplifting with gratitude to God, the tendency gratitude gratitude to God, the tendency seems to be away from God, and especially away from His Son, and away from all special thought of a share in His redemptive work, or a need of it. The pleasures of this life crowd out all pleasure in re-spect to future hopes and prospects. There was a time when miserli-pess and hoarding seemed to have the third day-the majority seemness and hoarding seemed to have control of all business men. But ingly believing that in some way the Bible account is untrue; and that if with the growth of wealth have Jesus arose at all, He experience come saner and more reasonable views of justice. The folly of merethat resurrection on the cross !- Luke ly accumulating money and leaving it to others to squander has impress-24:4; Acts 10:40.

ed men of wealth. The rich of America and Europe are giving themselves more leisure in the prime of life, and giving room for themselves more prime of life, and giving room for others to take their places in the commercial world. However, espec-ially in America, there seems to be instead on the seems to be the set of the set of the set of the the set of the set of the set of the set the set of the set of the set of the set instead on the set of th life, that inactivity spells death. None could wish that our great busi-ness men would become sluggards. Our wish should rather be that their maturer years might be gratuitously devoted to the promotion of philanthropic plans for the aid of the lower classes, along social and economic lines. It is our conviction that millions of money besides their own would flow into such hands for disbursement along broadly economic lines. The motives would be distrusted unless the projects were con-ducted on the highest plane of bee, with open accounts. There is room for such benevo-lences in every land, but nowhere is it more needed than in countries under British and American controlwhere commercialism has absorbed some of the ablest talent, leaving ent life? comparatively little opportunity for the less progressive All over Great Britain and in nearly every state of the Union there are splendid oppor-tunities for such beneficent works. The masses the doctrines of all denominations discredited in pulpit and pew, and especially in the colleges. continually, but without satisfactory results. It seemed to me that I tried every advertised medicine on the market, and got no relief. "On one of the days that I was compelled to absent myself from work, a neighbor came to my house to whom I told of my suffering, and he said to me that all I had to do, if I had Dyspensia, was to take "Fruit-a-tives". They would cure me, He had cured himself. I immediately procured a 50c box and continued taking them until cured. I suppose I took in all, about eleven boxes and I am glad to be able to say that I have been free of Indigestion for nearly two years. They cured the Constipation also. They were worth their weight in gold to me and I will be glad to have you publish this letter, along with my photo, if it will induce another dyspeptic to take the right road to apermanent cure."

The local clergy were astonished, and tried to account world. God is being forgotten by the poorer, as well as by the weal-thier, and the end of the lane is not far off—"a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation" for such wonderful interest in religion. Finally the minister of the Angli can Church remarked to the Pres-

I quite agreed with this, and trust that the ministers in Kineston more that the world-wide anarchy.-Daniel 12:1.
