NOBEL PRIZES

By Special Wire to the Courier. Stockholm, via London, Aug. 14.—The amount available for the Nobel prizes this year is 144,000 kroner ($38,000) each, but it is possible that the distribution will be postponed. Next year the amount will be reduced by 20,000 kroner, this sum representing the amount of the new Swedish defense tax.

NONE UNUSUALLY ACTIVE

By Special Wire to the Courier. Rome, Aug. 14.—Except for a period of activity by Mount Etna of a nature exclusively interesting to volcanic experts, none of the great volcanoes in southern Italy is unusually active. Neither Vesuvius, Etna nor Stromboli is now in eruption.

NEW WAR LOAN

By Special Wire to the Courier. Berlin, via London, Aug. 14.—The central banks and bankers have sent a circular to their members calling attention to the forthcoming third war loan and declaring that it is the duty of the bankers to work against the tendency towards speculative investments and market speculation. The circular suggests that the bankers refuse to accept commissions to buy stocks on margins, and give clients no tips or advice regarding the purchase of stocks or otherwise encourage speculative dealings.

Lieut. F. E. Keating, in charge of South London Salvation Army barracks, was drowned while bathing in the Thames.

To assist in the harvest the Education committee of the county of Kent, Eng., have released nearly 1,500 school children.

The three hundredth anniversary of the celebration of the first Mass in Ontario was observed at Lafontaine, near Penetanguishene.

Alimony awarded Mrs. Deborah Van Ivers in 1867, and never paid, will be given to her daughter, Mrs. Alvie Parsons, of New York; it now totals $28,800.

GRADUATED TAX

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, Aug. 14.—A despatch to Reuters' Telegram Company from Petrograd says that the finance committee of the Duma has approved a government bill for the imposition of a graduated tax on incomes. The tax proposed is 6 roubles ($3.25) on incomes of 1000 roubles ($500) 25 on 10,000 roubles, 6,000 on 100,000 and a super tax on each 10,000 roubles over 100,000.

TRANSPORT TRUCKS SENT OVER AT LAST

Ottawa, Aug. 14.—After delay in shipment which Major Thomas, who purchased it, had a hard time explaining to the Davidson Commission into war contracts a month ago, the first part of the mechanical transport for the second contingent has arrived in England from Canada. There are 15 motor trucks in the mechanical transport allotted to the second contingent. Major Thomas, who supervised their purchase, bought them six months ago, but considerable delay ensued, as purchase of bodies for the trucks which were afterwards found too narrow and for other reasons. Major Thomas declared before the commission that the trucks would not be needed all the second division went to the front and that they would be sent straight to France instead of to England. It was urged on the other hand that the delay in shipping the trucks would place the sending of the second contingent to the front. It is learned, however, that they are now being sent to England.

It was stated at the Militia Department last night that the first contingent trucks which were purchased by Russell and were shipped in twenty days, have, on the whole, given a good account of themselves very hard wear commission. They had to be replaced in the mud and water of Salisbury Plain before being sent to France at all.

THE DISASTROUS TREATY

By Special Wire to the Courier. Sofia, Bulgaria, Aug. 14.—The newspaper Echo de Bulgarie, in an editorial on the anniversary of the treaty of Bucharest (August 10th, 1913), which the paper says has been disastrous not only to Bulgaria, but to all the Balkan states, declares that "until that stumbling block is removed from the path of the Balkan peace, there will neither be peace, tranquility or security in the peninsula." The paper, speaking of the conditions for joining the entente allies, holds that a Balkan entente is impossible unless this treaty, which it assails as the blood of the rights of the interested nations, is annulled.
