

THE FARMERSVILLE REPORTER.

NEWS OF THE WORLD.

All the important events of the week ending on Tuesday evening.

The Prince of Wales' eldest son has joined the Masonic Order.

Fully 19,000 miners in the Pittsburg coal district are now out on strike.

There were 231 failures in the United States during the past week.

There were five executions by hanging in the United States on Friday.

The Paris Matin reports that Germany will mediate between France and China.

The lodger-keeper in a bank in St. Catharines has eloped with the manager's wife.

The supreme Court of Iowa has unanimously affirmed the constitutionality of the prohibition law.

Sir Stafford Northcote will withdraw from the Conservative leadership in the British House of Commons at the close of the present session.

The licensed victuallers of Kingston, are raising money to oppose the passage of the Scott Act.

The writ for the West Northumberland election has been issued. Polling takes place on April 7th.

Mrs. Coatsworth, of Princeton, Ont., died on the 20th inst., at the advanced age of 112 years. For 27 years she has been an indigent.

The Fairbanks canning company of Chicago, has received orders from the British Government for four million pounds of canned beef, intended for the army in the Soudan.

Arabi is getting somewhat restive in exile. A French interviewer represents him as saying Mr. Gladstone will yet have to send him to keep order in the streets of Cairo.

It is rumored that the Prince of Wales while in Ireland will announce that the Duke of Connaught and family, after their return from India, will reside in Dublin, the Duke succeeding Earl Spencer as Lord Lieutenant.

The first party of 100 boys from the Guthrie Home, Glasgow, will arrive in Belleville about the 12th of April. These boys are a great help to the farmers who take them, as they are able to do most of the little chores around the farm which take up so much of a man's time during the busy season. Their ages will vary from 6 to 14, stout, sturdy lads, some of them young enough to adopt by those who have no families of their own, and some old enough to hire for small wages. Particulars may be had on application to Miss Bilbrough, Marchmont Home, Belleville.

General Grant is dying. So the papers tell us, and all agree that the excessive use of tobacco is the sole and only cause of his early demise. This is a painful fact and ought to be a lesson to the young men of the country, some of whom are trying so hard to learn to be smokers. Had General Grant never learned to be a smoker, he would not be to-day on the verge of an untimely grave. Few men have ever stood out before the world as has General Grant.

HARNESSES.

The Old Reliable Harness Shop is still doing business one door west of the Gamble House, where you will find Harness cheaper than ever. THE STEVENSON PIANO.

The following is an unsolicited testimonial as to the merits of this excellent Piano:

To Stevenson & Co.:
Dear Sirs,—As a matter of justice I wish to give my unsolicited recommendation of the Stevenson Piano. The Stevenson Company warranted the Piano for a term of years. They have thus far more than fulfilled their contract. The Piano in our Parlor in Albert College delights all musicians who test its fine qualities. After the instrument had been in use a few weeks, I gave a willing testimony to its many excellencies. Now, after nearly two years of constant use, my opinion has not changed, except for the better. The true test of a piano is in using it one or two years. The Stevenson Piano has borne that test. I am more than satisfied.
