the unshakableness of our faith and the sternness of our determination. We have gone thru a great test, and we have not failed. Great Britain has never in the course of her long history shown herself better possessed of all those qualities which preserve an Empire and guarantee its salvation. And let us not forget that there came great crises in the lives of individuals and of State in which it is good to be alive. The sacrifice may be heavy but the privilege is greater still—the privilege of showing ourselves men the sacred trust which is put into our
