The Toronto Star reports Brockville Conservatives as saying that Mr A. E. Donovan will be the Conservative can didate in the election necessitated by Hon. Geo. P. Graham entering the Hon. Geo. P. Graham entering the Dominion cabinet. The Star says: Mr Donoyan was the Conservative candidate who opposed Mr Graham for the Legislature and is known as somewhat of a political fighter. His supporters declare that they will place him in the field and support him to the last disch.

The Game Laws

There has been uncertainty in the ninds of some as to the game laws, the rumor having gone abroad that several changes had been made. This not correct, as the law remains practically the same as in other years so far as the dates of open seasons are concerned. Duck shooting is from September 1st to Dec. 16; partridge, Sept. 15th to Dec. 15th; deer, Nov. 1st to 15th; muskrat, Dec. 1st to May 1st. Beaver and otter are not to e killed before 1910.

The hymnal for the Church of Engand in Canada, to be known as the Book of Common Praise (to be in keeping as regards title with the Book of Common Prayer) is now assuming its final shape. The committee, which has now been working steadily on the hymnal for two years, has just finished a ten days' session at Gananoque.
