HALLOWE'EN DULY CELEBRATED BY ALL AT M'KEOUGH SCHOOL

Delightful Occasion Greeted by Scores of Visitors—Exquisite Decorations and Exhibits—Presentation of Medals and Stirring Addresses

The eloquent young member for West Kent, Arch. B. McCoig, M. P., put in a nutshell. "We are all rightly proud of our schools," he declared, "and it is occasions such as this—and exhibits such as these—which demonstrate to the Province at large the splendid work they are doing."

The McKeough School Halloween celebration, distribution of medals,

The presentation of the medals was conducted by Chairman W. N. Morley, of the Public School Board, who acted as chairman of the evening. This function was held in the band room, which was found to be too small to accommodate all who sought admission. It was taxed to its utmost capacity, showing the great interest taken by the parents in the splendid work of the school.

The program was opened with a selection from the orchestra, which was followed by a short chairman's address.

The presentation of the John McCorvie medal, to the pupil most proficient in English, was made by S. B. Arnold. This prize was won by Master George W. Way.

H. S. Clements, M. P., was to have presented this medal, but he was unavoidably absent, being called out of the city. A letter was read from him in which he sincerely regretted his absence, and wished Miss Abram and her capable staff of assistants continued success in their work.

The boys' chorus, "The Holy City," was especially enjoyable, the solo parts being taken by W. Stewart McKeough, the talented young son of ex-Mayor W. E. McKeough.

A medal donated by an ex-principal, James Brackin, to the champion athlete of the school for 1905, was duly presented by the young son of the donor to Master Lloyd Johnson.

Lloyd is a strapping little fellow and a wideawake boy on the field of sport. The medal was won by him at the annual school picnic, when a number of athletic games were held in which the scholars of the school competed.

After another selection from the orchestra the presentation of the William McKeough memorial medals was made by A. B. McCoig, M. P., to the following successful candidates: Sr. IV, Norman Bell; Jr. IV, W. Stewart McKeough; Sr. III, Helen Wells; Jr. III, Wesley J. Keesch; Sr. II, Grace McKnight; Jr. II, Ethel P. Wright; Sr. I, (a), Madeline Winter; Sr. I, (a), Fred C. Robinson.

Mr. McCoig made a capital address and in spite of the noise made by the visitors and children in the hall, he succeeded in making himself heard. He referred to his own Public school days at the McKeough school and also recalled the names of some of the scholars who attended at that time. He paid a glowing tribute to the McKeough family, who have always taken an active interest in the affairs of the school, and also complimented Miss Abram, the present principal, on the excellent work she is accomplishing. This is the only school in the Province presided over by a lady principal.

Mr. McCoig also referred generally to educational matters in the Maple City. He spoke of the recent splendid success of the Chatham Fair and dwelt at some length upon the enterprise shown by The Planet Junior in conducting prize essay competitions among the Public school scholars in the city and county.

"This journal," he said, "is to be highly commended upon their educational efforts among the Public school pupils. They have shown great enterprise along a line which is calculated to raise the standard of literature among the children, and I am pleased to know that they intend to continue this work."

One of the prettiest features of the evening was the unexpected presentation of a beautiful brooch and a well worded address to Miss Abram by the graduating class.

Miss Abram has shown remarkably good work with this class, with whom she has always been a popular teacher. She made a very fitting reply, thanking the graduates for their gift.

The following was the address: Dear Miss Abram:

The graduating class of 1905 of McKeough school takes advantage of this important occasion to express to you our appreciation of your kindness towards us, and your efforts in our behalf, during our last year of Public school life. The year spent in the entrance class with you as our teacher, was one of pleasure, mingled with hard work, and your painstaking and careful instruction was rewarded in the success of your pupils at the last midsummer examination. In a way we are sorry to leave behind us the McKeough school and its teachers, but we are boys and girls who desire to grow, not only in size, but in intellect, and our promotion from the Public school to the Collegiate Institute is one step in advance.

As a small token of our love and esteem, we ask you to accept this brooch, accompanied by our best wishes for the old school, its principal, and her assisting teachers. We all wish you continued prosperity.

In behalf of the graduating class of 1905.

CHRISTIE PRITCHARD,
RHODA CONIBEAR,
BYRON BURN.

NORMAL CLASS

A Good Meeting of Sunday School Teachers Held in the First Presbyterian Church

The Sunday School Teachers Normal Class met last evening with a good attendance.

Wilson Taylor, who was to have conducted the lesson, was unable to be present owing to an injury to his knee which he received in an accident; so this part of the evening's program was cancelled.

Rev. Dr. Battisby gave a very interesting and profitable talk on the Holy Land. The doctor has travelled all through this land and has a very interesting manner in describing his experiences.

Miss McGeorge, one of Chatham's talented young sopranos, favored the meeting with an excellently rendered solo.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks in the Victoria avenue Methodist Sunday school hall. The executive committee will, in the meantime, arrange a program for that evening.
