WOLFVILLE, NOVA SCOTIA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1920.

$1.50, payable in advance.

Port Williams Notes

Sometime since THE ACADIAN has been favored with notes from this place, just a few now.

Miss Annie Hibbert, a former resident, but now of Haverhill, Mass., is spending some time in the village and has her late father's property advertised for sale in the local papers, also some furniture. This home is centrally located and a modern house, good home for a business or professional man.

Mr. and Mrs. Tobin Lockwood have returned to their home here, accompanied by the former's mother. They spent the summer in Halifax, where Mrs. Lockwood junior, was taking treatment. Mr. Mrs. and Miss Davison, of the city, who occupied Mr. Lockwood's residence during the summer have returned to their home.

The schools here reopened with a good attendance in both departments. Miss Graham has the advanced department and Miss Dickey the primary department.

Mr. Aubrey Rand is on a business trip to St. John's week.

Mr. Grant Murphy, of this place, who is assistant to the Station Agent, is now on vacation.

Master Emery Gates we are sorry to report is still confined to his bed. Emery has been ill all summer and is much missed among his schoolmates.

What proved a narrow escape from a fatal drowning accident took place here on Saturday. Four boys were on the wharf and in some way one of the little boys, Master Lloyd Gates, second son of Mr. George Gates, fell off into the water, the tide being in full. Roy Franklin, one of the larger boys at once climbed down the wharf into the water, and although being unable to swim much, he managed to catch the little fellow as he was sinking the third time and got him ashore or back onto the wharf and carried him to his home, where the little boy after a time was apparently not much the worse of his narrow escape from death by drowning. Much credit is due to the prompt and quick action of the rescuer. We trust in future our small boys will be more careful in being around our wharves.

Our village is certainly well lighted with electricity and thoroughly enjoyed. Another improvement is a nice new piazza on the Baptist parsonage, running across the end and one side.

Miss Evelyn Chipman, has gone to Wolfville to resume her duties as teacher of book-keeping at the Acadia Collegiate

Acadia Seminary

The Seminary opened last Thursday, registration beginning at nine o'clock. Already one hundred and forty girls are in residence and there is a long list of day pupils. The total registration of resident pupils will exceed one hundred and fifty.

Several changes are noted in the Teaching Staff. Mr. Frank Marsh, Jr. has become director of the Conservatory; Miss Muriel Thompson, of England, assumes charge of the Art Department; Miss Marie Underhill, Gold Medalist of Toronto Conservatory, is added to the Vocal Staff; Miss Holt, of the School of Expression, Boston, succeeds Miss Key; Mrs. Connoughton, of Wolfville, takes charge of the work in Physical Culture.

Miss Muriel Thompson has displayed in Alumnae Hall, Seminary, a fine exhibit of Etchings and Water Color Sketches, etc. Any desirous of inspecting them may do so between 3 and 5 Saturday afternoon.

The Halifax "Chronicle" has the following to say concerning the play, "39 EAST", a comedy in three acts of a boarding house and Central Park, which the Majestic Players will present at the Opera House on Saturday evening:

"Considerable charm the piece possesses and also considerable mawkishness; but the freshness of the humor atones for the banality of the sentimental passages. The chief fault lies in the heroine, a damsel quite as irritating as Pollyanna, exuding innocence rather than optimism. Indeed, she is so spotlessly pure that before the last act you rather hope that she will trip in a mud puddle. Still there are many other characters that are interesting, albeit a trifle along rubber stamp lines, scenes that are amusing, and a few moments of genuine pathos. The audience liked it hugely."

and Business Academy.

The two services in the Baptist church Sunday which were enjoyed by large audiences, were by two former and well known pastors, Rev. Mr. Prosser in the morning and Rev. Mr. Beals in the evening. The choir is giving excellent music under the direction of the new leader, Mr. Ibbon, of Church Street, a Halifax man.

Miss Irene Gates is visiting relatives and friends in Massachusetts, and Miss Thelma Gates is visiting a cousin in the West, near Calgary.

At Hymen's Altar

September Weddings in Which We Are All Interested

SANFORD-SLEEP

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon when Miss Daisy Elizabeth Sleep, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sleep, became the bride of Malcom Alonzo Sanford, of Boston, Mass. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Simeon Spidle, assisted by Dr. J. H. MacDonald, the double ring service being used. The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very charming in a gown of cream duchess satin with overdress of filet lace. She wore the conventional veil and carried a bouquet of white asters and pink roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Violet Sleep, dressed in apricot satin with Nile green beaded chiffon draperies and picture hat. Her bouquet was of sweet peas. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Elliot Sanford. The wedding march was played by Prof. Marsh, of the Acadia Conservatory of Music. The ushers were Messrs. Harry Sleep and A. Littlefield, of Boston.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful gifts, testifying to the esteem in which she is held by her many friends.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford will reside in Boston. THE ACADIAN joins a host of friends in wishing them every happiness.

MOSHER-CHASE

A very interesting event took place in the Old Church, Grand Pre, on Wednesday morning, at 10.30 o'clock, when Jean Hanna Chase, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Chase, Port Williams, and Paul D. Mosher, of Windsor, were united in marriage by Rev. G. W. Miller. The church, which was very prettily decorated with ferns, vines, Goldenglow and Golden Rod, was well filled with friends of the bride and groom. The bride was given away by her father. She looked very attractive in a tailored suit of navy blue. Her two little nieces, Stuart Lydiard, Kentville, and Donald Harvey, Port Williams, acted as flower girls. The wedding march was played by Miss Jean Foote. The happy couple, showered with good wishes, rice, etc., left on the Bluenose for a trip around the South Shore, after which they will reside at North Sydney. The many useful gifts received testified to the bride's popularity.

Greenwich Notes

Our school is now in good progress with Miss Bowers, of Newport, Hants Co., in charge, and Miss Joyce Harvey, of this community, as assistant.

Mr. Cutler Forsythe returned home one day last week from a visit of a few weeks to Massachusetts.

Miss Esther Pearson returned home last Monday from a three weeks visit with friends in Cambridge, N. B., and has resumed her work at our postoffice. Mr. Stewart Butler, of Massachusetts, a student at the Academy, Wolfville, last year, visited several days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Pearson.

Rev. F. H. Beals, of Lawrencetown, Annapolis Co., a former pastor of Canard and Port Williams Baptist churches, who is on vacation, has been calling upon his friends in this place during the last week. Mr. Beals preached in the Baptist Church, Port Williams, last Sunday evening and Rev. A. J. Prosser, of Upper Canard, another former pastor, preached in the morning. Several from this community enjoyed both services.

Mrs. H. H. Marshall had as her guests for the week-end, her two sisters, Mrs. McQueen and Miss Roy, of Musquodoboit, Halifax Co.

The friends of Mrs. Lewis Forsythe are sorry to hear of her recent illness. Mrs. Forsythe will undergo an operation one day this week, which it is hoped will be of much benefit towards improvement in her health.

Mr. James E. Forsythe, we are sorry to hear, is again in very poor health.

Mr. Maurice Bishop has resumed his studies at Acadia Collegiate and Business Academy, Wolfville.

Mrs. Eliza Wellener, of Aylesford, who has been spending the summer among friends in this community, returns to her home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neary, who spent some time visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Charles Bishop, at the home of Mr. Dexter Forsythe, recently returned to their home in Montreal, accompanied by Mrs. Bishop, who is an aged lady of over 80 years, but remarkably smart. She plans on an extended visit.

Mr. W. J. Boates, foreman at Wright's Woodworking Mill, is now a resident of Wolfville, having moved from Grand Pre to the dwelling which he purchased last spring on Central avenue. Mr. Boates has secured a nice property and will be a good citizen.

The School Exhibition

Good Prospects for Successful Show Next Week.

Wolfville's second annual School Exhibition takes place on Thursday of next week. Extensive preparations have been made for the fair which will be held in Ecangeline Rink during the afternoon and evening. The exhibition will be preceded during the morning by sports on the Campus, participated in by school children and which promises to be very entertaining. The Exhibits will include garden products and school work and we understand that many entries have been received. Addresses will be delivered by Prof. W. S. Blair, of Kentville, and Prof. DeWolfe, of the Normal School.

These shows which are now held throughout the Dominion, are most helpful in creating an interest among the school children in things of a practical character. It is hoped that citizens generally will show their appreciation of the good work being done and evidence their interest by their presence at the exhibition. The young people will be encouraged thereby to greater efforts.

"No More Sleepless Nights" — Bathes Internally.

Mr. J. B. Burrows, 271 West North Street, Decatur, L.L., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:

"I am still using the 'J. B. L. Cascade' once a week, and find it most efficient for keeping me in fine condition. It acts as a sedative for tired nerves and has been a great help for sleeplessness. I have frequently arisen from bed and used it in the middle of the night with satisfactory results."

The reason for this remarkable result is because the functions cannot work properly when there is accumulation of waste in the lower intestine.

The "J. B. L. Cascade" by the simple process of properly applying warm water, eliminates all this waste and causes the functions to work smoothly and properly.

Over half a million intelligent Canadians and Americans are now using the Cascade with similar results.

It is the invention of Charles A. Tyrrell, M.D., of New York, a noted specialist on internal bathing for 25 years.

It will be shown and explained to you by A. V. Rand, Wolfville, Drug Store, who will be glad to give you an interesting booklet by Dr. Tyrrell called "Why Man of To-day Is Only 50% Efficient." This booklet is free upon request. Ask for it to-day while you think of it.
