

HOW TO GET STRENGTH

after any sickness is purely a matter of nourishment, whether the attack was an ordinary cold or severe illness; the weakened forces cannot repulse disease germs, and this is why a relapse is so often fatal or why chronic weakness often follows sickness.

Restoring strength to millions of people for forty years has proven the real need for taking Scott's Emulsion after any sickness; nothing equals it—nothing compares with it. Its pure, medicinal nourishment, free from alcohol or opiates, promptly creates rich blood, strengthens the nerves and lungs to avert tuberculosis.

VOL. 6 AUGUST 20, 1914 No. 10

HAPPILY DEFEATED

Says the Woodstock Press: "Under the Liberal policy as propounded by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and supported by F. B. Carvell, Canada would have had a navy." This is certainly a frank admission for The Press to make, but it also says in a muddled paragraph that is not quite clear, that the navy would have been in Hudson's Bay where it would be of no use. That might be true if the Tory government was controlling it. Had the Liberals not been defeated Canada's navy would today be doing valuable service guarding our ports.

The Press also says that if the Borden Naval Aid Bill had not been defeated "Canada would be able to see her three battleships alongside New Zealand's in the North Sea." Canada would surely have to possess good eyesight to see three battleships built, manned and in service inside of 15 months.

The Tories would do well to drop the "if" in the Naval Aid Bill and rejoice with the rest of Canada that because of its defeat Canada can go into her coffers thirty-five million dollars deeper at this time of need.

"CHEEK BY JOWL"

When F. B. Carvell went to Calais to try to induce W. H. Berry to return to the province and give evidence in the timber charges the St. John Standard printed in large black letters that Carvell was "cheek by jowl" with Berry. A few days ago Messrs. Fleming and George F. Burt were also visitors of Berry, the voluntary exile, but the Standard sees nothing in the visit of news value. The conversation between the three was of course private—very private, but a curious public would like to know what took place among them when Fleming was "cheek by jowl" with Berry.

The Standard would be eagerly sought for if it would give the story. A portrait of the purty Premier might also accompany the article, for its "a long time no see 'em."

HOSPITAL SHIP CONTRIBUTIONS

Last week The Observer editorially urged Hartland and other women to contribute to the hospital ship fund. It was later that the editor learned casually that Hartland women had already contributed the sum of $40. Mrs. I. B. Curtis had the matter in hand at the start, and she appointed two collectors who seem to have hastened unduly with the work of soliciting. Six women were asked in succession by The Observer if they had contributed and all confessed they had not been asked and knew nothing of the effort. Some of them seemed to think the solicitors rather scorned "the widow's mite," as it were, and called only on the "exclusive set." Otherwise Hartland's contribution might have compared more favorably with other villages of less population. Centreville donated $267.79,

Perth and Andover $215, Grand Falls $215, Plaster Rock 203, and Victoria county in all more than $1000.

At Glasville Mrs. D. H. Lamont is treasurer of a fund exceeding $50.

A large crew are working on the railroad, grading up to the end of the station yard which will be about three-quarters of a mile above the village. The station house, a very nice building, is nearing completion.

C. F. West and wife visited his parents Sunday, coming from Grand Falls by auto.

Miss Frances Simonson and girl friend are here from Boston on a vacation.

Miss Helen Cody is here for a long visit.

Miss Henderson of St. John is visiting here.

Mrs. S. W. Niles spent a few days in Woodstock attending the Rebekah Assembly.

G. E. Wilson has started house keeping in the upper flat of the camp-meeting house.

Miss Hall Bathurst, is clerking for G. E. Wilson.

The Commissioners arrived here Tuesday afternoon by special train over the Valley Road.

They were accompanied by Engineers Taylor and Maxwell and left Wednesday morning by auto.

Everyone is talking war and the daily papers are eagerly sought after.

Business in our vicinity is good. Prices on staples have advanced in some cases much more than the market warranted.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gantley from Presque have been visiting at W. E. Gantley's.

Dr. D. W. Perkins has purchased a Ford automobile. With his beautiful up-to-date barn recently completed and his new auto our genial doctor presents a very prosperous appearance.

Mrs. Elizabeth Belyea of Rockland is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frances West. Mrs. Belyea is 83 years old, but in spite of her advanced years is still real smart and cheerful.

Miss Annie West is home on a visit from Boston.

Mrs. Bessie Campbell and daughter, Marguerite, are visiting in Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. White are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl.

Mrs. Belle Nicholson, who was operated on recently is improving in health.

Rex Cormier is home from St. John for a few days vacation.

Our railroad is still progressing. A crew is now working about a mile above the village. Nobody seems to know whether it is going right along or is about to come to a full stop. It is now expected that the road from Centreville to Gagetown will be completed by October 1 and then operated by the I. C. R.

A crew of men are painting the railway bridge below the village.

One thing we need very badly in our village is water works, both for ordinary purposes and fire protection. Some of our energetic citizens ought to take the matter up at once. A fire now would wipe out the whole village as there is no water in the cisterns and the wells are all very low.

C. M. Sherwood, Ltd., have a private fire fighting apparatus consisting of a very large tank in their capacious cellar, a gasoline engine and enough hose to protect their own property. Of course they cannot be expected to use this for the public benefit. Better get busy before a fire wipes us out of existence.

George Taylor, a British Reservist, left for Quebec on Wednesday, getting word from England to report there. He is forced to leave his wife and family of small children. There the army officials expect to exist on 60c per day.

Mrs. Fred Cheney and child of Portland are visiting her parents here.

Fred Hannington of Esdraleon is at the Centreville Hotel being treated for blood poisoning in his hand. Dr. Brown is attending him. Mr. Hannington on Sunday, August 9, stuck a rusty nail in the palm of his hand and poison developed at once. His condition is as good as could be expected and is expected to pull through and have the use of his hand. His sister, Mrs. D. E. Barr, of Bridgewater is nursing him.

Hubert Shaw of Bristol is hostler at the Centreville hotel stable.

P. Gorey has finished drilling a well for R. W. Balloch and has moved his machine down to York Co.

A little daughter has arrived at the home of Robert White.

Dr. Chase is No Stranger

In This Home—Receipt Book and Medicines Kept at Hand All the Time

There is no better safeguard against disease and suffering than a good cathartic medicine. In the great majority of homes Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are constantly kept at hand, because they quickly awaken the action of liver, kidneys and bowels, and cure the most common ills of life.

Mrs. Thos. Smith, Jamestown, Ont., writes:—"Dr. Chase is no stranger in our home, for we have two of his Receipt Books in the house. My father and my husband's father each had one, and I have been familiar with it ever since I can remember. It was only natural that we should use the Kidney-Liver Pills, and we found them so satisfactory in regulating the digestive system and curing the common ills of life that we always keep them on hand. Many a time these pills have saved me much suffering and prevented serious disease. We also keep the Ointment in the house all the time."
