CORRESPONDENCE.

The Coming Election.

WESTMORLAND COUNTY, - May 17th, 1870. To the Editor of the Chignecto Post : DEAR SIR,-While-the people of Sackville are clamoring for a share in the representation of this County. that matter has been decided elso where, so it is said.

Rumor says, that the first arrange ment was made at Fredericton last ession, when one of our members was intending to vote with the Govwas intending to vote with the Gyvernment on the question about the Clerk of the Legislative Council, and that it was then agreed that the four must stand together in the House and also at the election. Be days ago elected without opposition. On the hustings he announced he was a repealer, but at present was neither an annexationist nor for independence.

A homeomer murder took place at the Cairn, twenty miles from Ottawa, on Friday last. Two brothers named Downing, quarrelled while intoxicated, and one beat the other to death with a fork handle, the murderer, was arrested, but subshow of hands.

the members for the last fifteen or twenty years, and were relied on to The late Grecian Massacre took do so again, but very many of them were dissatisfied with the old French phase under peculiarly sad circumstances. The atrocious act might have been averted had the ransom demanded been paid, but the Government has acted with a weakness and folly almost inconceivable. A late London telegram says:

"Sir Roundell Palmer, asked what the government had done relative to the late massacre in Greece. The Queen's subjects were theoretically entitled to protection aboad, especially leading to the decided of the protection aboad, especially leading to the decided of the control of the protection aboad, especially leading to the leaten as a protection of one man, to be decided to the leaten as a protection of one man, to be decided to the leaten as a protection of one man, to be decided to the leaten as a protection of one man, to be decided to the leaten as a protection of one man, to be decided to the leaten as a protection of one man, to be decided to the leaten as a protection of the leaten as a protection of the leaten as a protection of the leaten as a protection as a

The official despatches so far as received were entirely unsatisfactory, and the correspondence was still incomplete."
