Leromancal Brystan.—The following circular letter is about to be issued to the clergy of the Churchof England.

—'The public mind has of late been much directed to the quastion whether the Book of Common Prayer does or does not require revision. The subject has been brought before Farliament in the House of Lorda, but has not are yet received that consideration which his importance dua ands. Less than half of the clergy have recently signed a declaration which his importance dua ands. Less than half of the clergy have received the leaving it to be fairly inferred they are necessarily averse to the principle of revision generally: at the came time off-refing a presumptive evidence that the undeclared majority are either favourable to the measure, or have hitherto arrived at no collarable shilling from both clergy and laity have appear of within the last two years, strongly adventing the Church of England, and having for its aim the collecting of apinions on this matter, and the diffusion of information having of a present product of presenting of premoting such character having the present circular is sent forth, and an expression of opinions solicited from yourself and any of your friends flavorable to the graced about of revision, as to the Church of England, and having for its aim the collecting of apinions on this matter, and the diffusion of information having the present circular is sent forth, and an expression of opinions solicited from yourself and any of your friends flavorable to the graced and believe or revision, as the present circular is sent forth, and an expression of principles of the control of the present circular is sent forth, and an expression of opinions solicited from yourself and any of your friends flavorable to the graced for the control of the provent of the control of the present of the provent of the control of the provent of the control of the provent of the cont

British Parliamentary Grants for the Clerky of British for the House of Commons lately a member objected to the vote of £6,628 for the elergy of British Borth America. He said that it was absurd, when Clanada was spending £100,000 to receive the Prince of Wales, to vote it at country the paltry sum of £6,628 for the Grant which the congregation, on their Machanish to wote tract country the paltry aum of £6,628 and impressive manner on the duties of his office Wales, to vote tract country the paltry aum of £6,628 and impressive manner on the duties of his office Wales, to vote tract country the paltry aum of £6,628 and impressive manner on the duties of his office was a beautiful and impressive manner on the duties of his office was a being followed in both English and Gaelic; After which the congregation was dismissed, and as retiring have a hearty welcome to their first pastor. The Presbytery and in the congregation was dismissed, and as retiring have a hearty welcome to their first pastor. The Presbytery will be reflected by a staffactory, and were custained, and Mr Morrison's ordination appointed to take place at Strathalban or the next day.

On the 20th the Presbytery met at Strathalban accord-clare their constitutional right to participate in the general joy of the whole people on the arrival of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in such mode and manner as to them may appear most desirable, and they are determined to assert their right without compromise or abridgement."
