Margaret Long Acquitted Of Murder of Babe

Fredericton, May 4—The jury hearing the case of Margaret Long, charged with infanticide in strangling her babe on March 29, last, at McAdam, returned a verdict of not guilty because of temporary insanity after deliberating one hour and forty minutes when the verdict was given a crowd of women representing various women's councils, gathered about the girl and showered her with congratulations. An application has been made to the Attorney-General to order the girl's release from jail where she was taken after the verdict.

At the opening of court this afternoon, Judge Crockett retired the jury and referred to some statements which had been published regarding the position of men and women as to law, and rules of evidence relating to them. He also said that, on the eve of the trial he received a resolution passed by an organization of women complaining of inequality as far as they referred to women. His Honor stated this action had been taken for the purpose of affecting the course of trial judge and was, as such, a most grave offense and a contempt of court. In such case the effect would be to prejudice the free and untrammelled course of justice.

DARLING BABY BRIGHTENS HOME

Children's Laughter a Pleasing Sound

Altoona, Pa.—"I am writing to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. We had six children die almost at birth. From one hour to nineteen days is all they have lived. Before my next one was born I took a dozen bottles of your Vegetable Compound, and I can say that it is the greatest medicine on earth for this baby is now four months old, and a healthier baby you would not want. I am sending you a picture of her. Everybody says 'That is a very healthy looking baby.' You have my consent to show these few lines to anybody."—Mrs. C. W. BENT, 131 3rd Avenue, Altoona, Pa.

Mrs. Janssen's experience of interest to childless wives.

Millston, Wis.—"I want to give you a word of praise for your wonderful medicine. We are fond of children, and for a considerable time after we were married I feared I would not have any. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it strengthened me so I now have a nice, strong, healthy baby girl. I suffered very little at childbirth, and I give all the credit to your medicine, and shall always recommend it highly."—Mrs. H. H. JANSSEN, Millston, Wis.

Mrs. Held of Marinette Wis., adds her testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She says:

Marinette, Wis.—"I was in a nervous condition and very irregular. My doctor advised an operation. My husband brought me one of your booklets and asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It overcame my weakness so that I now have a healthy baby girl after having been married nine years. I am glad to recommend your medicine, and you may use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. H. B. HELD, 330 Jefferson St., Marinette, Wis.

There are many, many such homes that were once childless, and are now blessed with healthy, happy children because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored the mother to a strong and healthy condition, as it acts as a natural restorative for ailments as indicated by backache, irregularities, displacements, weakness and nervousness.

Women everywhere should remember that most of the commoner ailments of women are not the surgical ones—they are not caused by serious displacements or growths, although the symptoms may be the same, and that is why so many apparently serious ailments readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it acts as a natural restorative. It can be taken with perfect safety and often prevents serious troubles.

Therefore if you know of any woman who is suffering and has been unable to secure relief and is regretfully looking forward to a childless old age, ask her to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it has brought health and happiness into so many homes once darkened by illness and despair.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

Mother And Daughter Take Novel Voyage

When the big five-masted schooner "Hjeltenas" sailed for Queenstown on Saturday afternoon she carried two Chatham ladies, mother and daughter, who are taking a novel ocean voyage. The two were anxious to visit friends in the old land so they were signed on as members of the crew of the Norwegian vessel and sailed away on a schooner carrying the largest deck load of lumber that ever left the port. For the next twenty days or so they will have nothing to do but sit on the lumber pile and enjoy the ocean.

WELCOME RELIEF FROM ECZEMA

Complete Treatment That Gives Gratifying Results

WASING, ONT.

"I had an attack of Weeping Eczema so bad that my clothes would be wet through at times. For four months, I suffered terribly, I could get no relief until I tried 'Fruit-a-lives' and 'Sootha-Salva'. Altogether, I have used three boxes of 'Sootha-Salva' and two of 'Fruit-a-lives', and am entirely well."

Both these favorite remedies are sold by dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

"Fruit-a-lives" is also put up in a trial size which sells for 25c.

Queenstown they will go ashore and proceed to their friends in the usual way. Then the "Hjeltenas" will continue her voyage to some continental port to unload. She is to make a second trip to St. John this summer, and on the return she will pick up the two ladies at Queenstown and bring them home.

The schooner carried 1,135 standards of timber, 2,200,000 feet and had a deck load of fourteen feet, or about 800,000 feet. She made a fine picture as she spread her sails beyond the island and started off on her ocean trip.

IN MEMORIAM

By Michael Whelan

Our John Vanderbeck is dead, Lying in his lowly bed, Cold the clay above his brow, His sweet Harp is silent now, And his tuneful violin

Whose sweet tones all hearts could win

Where the leaf and climbing vine, Round the walls and windows twine, In his lovely little home

Where his friends were wont to come.

Where his harp in music rang, While the sweetest songs he sang, Now he lies in slumber still

On that steep and sunny hill, Sadly let him softly sleep

While his friends in silence weep.

Where the murmuring Miramichi Sweeps in splendor to the sea, Sings his anthem with the best

That beside its green banks rest His kind heart was large and warm, Strong apostle of Reform.

Let us hope the things he sought Shall in kindness yet be wrought, Shall not be too dearly bought, To his rest we lay him down

With his Harp and true man's crown, Renous River, N. B.

Wiseman-Dower Wedding At Chatham N.B.

The marriage of Miss Mary Myrtle Dower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dower of Chatham and Percy P. Wiseman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo Wiseman, of Moncton, was solemnized at the St. Luke's Methodist Parsonage Wednesday at 8.30 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. H. S. B. Strothard.

The bride wore a becoming taupe travelling suit with henna hat and was attended by her sister, Miss Hazel Dower, Norman Crosbie, of Chatham, assisted the groom. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Queen Street, where a reception was held at which were present a large number of relatives and friends.

The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion with ferns, lilies of the valley and other potted plants. After a dainty wedding luncheon had been served, Mr. and Mrs. Wiseman left by the Maritime on a trip to Montreal and other Canadian centres. On their return they will reside in Moncton, the groom being a member of the C. N. R. office staff.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts of cut glass china, silverware, linen, etc.; including a handsome china dinner set from her fellow employees in the T. Eaton Co.'s drygoods department of which she had for some time been a member.

Babe Ruth And George Kelly

A new feature has been added to the rivalry already affecting in a particular sense the Giants and Yankees and, in a general way, the National and American Leagues. It concerns the home run honors, a factor which has not figured to any extent in the major league rivalry of the past, but apparently is to be the subject of much interest and many disputes in the future. George Kelly, first baseman of the Giants, has been advanced by partisans of his team and league as the hitter who will dethrone Babe Ruth, the recognized king of home run hitters.

Kelly appears to be on his way to a new record for home runs in the National League, and there are many Ruth admirers who will be pulling strongly for the big first baseman of the Giants to reach this goal. He has made himself extremely popular by his game fight against odds, by his ability to rise to stardom in his profession after a poor start which drew ridicule more often than cheers. The National League home run record is twenty-seven, established by E. L. Williamson of the old Chicago team almost forty years ago, and threatened since by Freeman with twenty-five and Cravath with twenty-four. If Kelly succeeds in surpassing these figures he will have earned glory enough, and to expect more is somewhat unfair to Kelly.

Although the first baseman now holds a slight advantage over Ruth in number of home runs, with six to his credit against five for the Yankee slugger, it is unreasonable to expect of him to set the pace, or even to trail closely. There are factors entering into such a contest, if it can be called such, which place Kelly at a disadvantage. In the first place neither the Giants' first sacker nor any other player in all the history of baseball has been able to drive a base ball as Ruth does. The swing which is natural to Kelly never can generate the power which Ruth is able to put into his effort. Ruth's swing is longer and he puts all his weight and power behind it, so much so that he gives the spectator a thrill even when he fails to connect, sometimes falling from his effort.

Another element to be considered is that concerning the fields on which these two supermen of the game must perform. Kelly hits usually to left field; Ruth is a pronounced right field hitter. On most major league parks left field is longer than right, and even if two hitters carried equal hitting power, Kelly's task would therefore be greater. There are some parks in the National League where the left field walls have defied human endeavor to date; and Kelly probably will not drive any base balls over them. The targets which Ruth must aim at in the American League are difficult enough for most players, but he has been able for two years in succession to hit balls out of every park along the American circuit.

Ruth has averaged forty-two home runs a season during the past two years, and he is starting better this year than in either campaign. While hoping that Kelly sets a new league record, why handicap him by expecting the apparently impossible?

SELF DENIAL

Five hundred women passed through the Salvation Army Rescue Homes in Canada East during 1920, and only 13 of these (less than three per cent. proved unsatisfactory.

This is only one branch of the work for which the Self-Denial Appeal is being made, but the signal success achieved in dealing with women of the admittedly difficult class referred to has been more than equalled in many other spheres of Army labour. In Prison Work, Labour Bordeaux, Dispensaries, Summer Camps for Children, Children's Homes, Maternity Hospitals, Police Court Work, General Relief Work, and Women's Industrial Homes, as well as in many other ways, the best interests of the community are served by the Army of the Helping Hand in taking hold of the individual and meeting his or her needs, whether they may be.

The Army goes into all the world to proclaim Salvation to all men. Here are a few figures as to its extent: Countries and Colonies occupied, 70; languages in which Salvation is preached, 42; Corps, Circles and Societies, 11,173; Officers and Cadets (including Social Work), 18,321; persons without rank wholly employed in Salvation Army Work, 6,261; Local Officers, spare time (but unpaid), 71,419.

531,633 MORE POUNDS

of "SALADA" TEA were sold in the first three months of this year than in the corresponding period of last year. This is equivalent to an INCREASE of 20 tons a week and a modest estimate of this means that over one hundred million MORE cups of delicious "SALADA" were enjoyed in the homes of the people during these three months than in the same three months of 1920.

This INCREASE confirms the popularity of "SALADA", which was evidenced by the INCREASE of 1,496,236 pounds in "SALADA" sales for 1920 over 1919, and the increase of 1,536,789 pounds in 1919 over 1918.

We publish these figures because we believe everyone is interested in the reward of merit. For 30 years we have been blending and selling an honestly fine quality tea to the public. In all that time "SALADA" has remained matchless in flavour—unapproached by any other tea in cup quality—and as a result has continually increased in sales.

Please remember the above figures represent our INCREASES alone—"SALADA" sales are not only larger than those of any other tea in America, but amount to over ONE-TENTH OF THE TOTAL IMPORTS OF ALL KINDS OF TEA INTO AMERICA—viz.: Canada and the United States.
